MRS. WILLIAM JAMES LEINBACH

Former Warren Agent Is Wed At Sanford

Sanford—In a ceremony of impressive beauty solemnized at the Jonesboro Heights Methodist Church Sunday, December 27, at 4 o'clock, Miss Rita Ann Castleberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Newton Castleberry, Sr., took her vows with William James Leinbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Leinbach of Winston-Salem. The Rev. Vernon Tyson officiated.

The decorations of the church featured two massive arrangements of gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons in white flanked on either side by seven-branched candelabra holding burning tapers. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Jimmie Johnson, organist, and Mrs. F. L. Schrodt, Jr., soloist. Mrs. Johnson played "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach, "Wedding Prelude," Grieg, "Ave Maria," Schubert, "Arioso," Handel, "To God on High," Mendelssohn, and "Pans Angelicus," Franck. During the ceremony Mrs. Schrodt sang "O Perfect Love," by Fox and "The Song of Ruth," by Gounod.

The brunette beauty of the bride was enhanced by a formal gown of crepe de poile with a sabbina neckline featuring a bodice of three dimension embroidery outlined with pearls and long sleeves tapered to a point over the hands. Attached to the dome skirt was a Wat-teau detachable train with evenly divided three dimension embroidery. Her finger length mantilla, especially designed to compliment the gown, was edged with alencon lace and finished with tiny pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of frenched carnations and lillies of the valley centered with a white orchid. She was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Jerry Wilton Miller of Cary, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a two-toned gown fashioned with a bodice of moss green velvet with a boat neckline and three-quarter length sleeves accentuated by a satin band at the empire waistline ending in a self bow in the back and a floor length sheath skirt of candlelight crepe. Her headpiece was a cabbage rose in moss green with a short veil. She carried a single long stemmed red rose.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carey

Newton Castleberry, Jr., Mrs. Robert Castleberry, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Griffin and Misses Bobbie and Brenda Castleberry, all sisters of the bride. They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant and carried a long stemmed red rose.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his father. Ushers were Red Leinbach, Jr., and Lawrence B. Leinbach, brothers of the bridegroom, both of Winston-Salem. Carey N. Castleberry, Jr., and Robert Castleberry, brothers of the bride and Allen Goslen of Winston-Salem.

Acolytes were Carey N. Castleberry, III, and Robert Castleberry, Jr., nephews of the bride. Mrs. Marguerite Stogner of Greensboro, aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

The mother of the bride was attired in a silk brocade dress of aqua and gold. She wore a pillbox hat and matching accessories. At her shoulder was an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a deep blue beaded jacket dress of silk crepe with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Greeting guests at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hagaman of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Marguerite Stogner of Greensboro introduced to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Castleberry, Sr., the bride and the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Leinbach and the honor attendants. Presiding at the register was Mrs. Mary B. White of Warrenton. Directing guests to the refreshment table was Miss Barbara Cox. Mrs. Ralph White of Greensboro poured punch, which was served with mints, nuts and petit fours. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Robert Hayes, Mrs. Margaret Zahnizer, Mrs. Claudia Hanna, and Linda, Janet, Sheila and Susan Castleberry and Susan and Linda Hayes. Mr. and Mrs. Bill McIver of Chapel Hill said the goodbyes.

The fellowship hall was decorated with seven-branched candelabra and palms. The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a five branched candelabra with esperges holding arrangements of white carnations

Woman's Club Holds Christmas Meeting

The annual Christmas meeting of the Warrenton Woman's Club was held in the small dining room of Colonial Lodge last week. Mrs. W. A. Graham and Miss Mariam Boyd, hostesses, decorated the tables and the room in a beautiful Christmas motif. Place cards were made for the dinner by Girl Scout Troop 725, which is sponsored by the club.

Members gathered around the piano, played by Mrs. Leonard Daniel, to sing Christmas Carols and songs. Brightly wrapped boxes containing gifts of silver to "Care" were under the lighted tree.

Following a delicious dinner, Mrs. R. B. Butler, president, recognized Mrs. F. P. Whitley, who introduced the guest speaker, Dr. R. S. Cline, who spoke on the Medical situation in Warrenton County. His talk was illustrated with charts and graphs and ended with a question and answer period.

Mrs. T. W. Hawkins reported that $204.04 had been taken in at the "Bargain and Bake Sale" to be used for the Scholarship fund. Mrs. W. L. Wood made a complete report on the Christmas street lighting project. Miss Mariam Boyd reported that six Christmas gifts have been sent to the Warrenton County children at Murdock School and one to Caswell School.

Mrs. Butler announced that the Woman's Club Awards are now on display at Warrenton County Memorial Library and closed the meeting by reading the Christmas letter to the club from the National president, Mrs. W. H. Hasebroock of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Leinbach is a graduate of Sanford Central High School and attended Peace College. She holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn. She was formerly assistant Home Economics Extension agent in Warrenton County.

Mr. Leinbach attended the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and graduated from the University of Michigan. He is a registered representative for Reynolds Co. Winston-Salem.

After the reception the bride changed into a raspberry red suit with black accessories. She pinned the corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Following a wedding trip to Dorado, Puerto Rico the couple will be at home at 741 Barns-ale Road in Winston-Salem.

ATTEND WEDDING

Among the guests who attended the wedding and reception of Miss Rita Castleberry and Mr. Bill Leinbach in Sanford on Sunday, December 27, were Mrs. H. W. White, Mr. Bobby Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daniel and daughter, Joy Lyn, Mr. and Mrs. William Skinner and son, Tom, and Miss Emily Ballinger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shore and daughter, Nina, of Greensboro and Miss Karen Shore of Durham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brickhouse on Christmas Day. Their Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brickhouse and children, Blaine, Nancy and Paul Ellis of Sanford.

Miss Temple Becomes Bride Of Mr. Copley

In a beautiful ceremony performed Sunday, December 20, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the Warren Plains Baptist Church, Miss Lillian Kay Temple of Harlowe became the bride of Kenneth G. Copley, Jr., of Macon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Temple, Sr., of Harlowe. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Copley, Sr., of Macon.

The Rev. Robert F. Oates, pastor of the Warren Plains Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The wedding was directed by Miss Polly James of Lonsburg.

Mrs. Gid King and Mrs. Janet Oates of Warren Plains presented a program of nuptial music. The altar was decorated with an arrangement of poinsettias, fern and greenery in silver vases on stands and altar candles in seven branched candelabrum.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin appliqued with roses, styled with an empire waist and bateau neckline, featuring a chapel train. She wore a short veil of illusion and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Mary Lou Bell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her Christmas green dress of satin was fashioned with a portrait neckline and belle-shaped skirt. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Miss Betsy Copley, sister of the groom, Miss Bonnie Shearin and Miss Carolyn Teachey attended the bride as bridesmaids. They wore Christmas red dresses identical to that of the matron of honor.

Mr. Kenneth G. Copley, Sr., of Macon was his son's best man. The ushers were Jimmy Wilson, cousin of the groom, M. D. Abbott, and Earl and Jackie Temple, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Kenneth G. Copley, Sr., chose an ice blue brocade sheath dress with matching jacket and veil hat for her son's wedding. She wore matching peade sole shoes and pocketbook and a white cymbidium orchid.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Earl Temple, wore a mint green brocade sheath dress with matching jacket and veil hat with a white cymbidium orchid.

The groom is employed by the Carolina Power and Light Company in Raleigh. He is a graduate of John Graham High School and Chowan College. The bride is a member of the high school faculty at John Graham High School where she teaches business. She is a graduate of Beaufort High School and East Carolina College. After a brief wedding trip the couple will make their home at Rt. 1, Macon, N. C.

BUFFET SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Robertson, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Robertson, Jr., and Miss Carolyn Teachey entertained for the out-of-town guests and members of the wedding party at the Robertson home in Warrenton on December 19 at 6:00 o'clock with a buffet supper.

The house was attractively decorated in the traditional Christmas motif. The table was decorated with an arrangement of white pompons, fern, and greenery flanked by burning tapers. Approximately 30 people attended this supper.

REHEARSAL PARTY

The Copley-Temple wedding party was entertained at a rehearsal party given by the bride's parents and Mrs. Susie Stegall, Mrs. Kathleen Wilson, Mrs. Blanch Copley, and Mrs. Ethel Limer. The party took place immediately after the rehearsal on Saturday night in the recreational room of the Warren Plains Baptist Church.

A beautiful arrangement of Christmas greenery and flowers decorated the table. The wedding cake was prepared by the mother of the groom. The grooms mother cut the cake and the mother of the bride served punch. There were approximately 75 friends and relatives of the couple attending.

BREAKFAST

The members of the Copley-Temple wedding party were feted at a breakfast on the day of the wedding at 11:00 o'clock at the Arcola Clubhouse. Hostesses were Mrs. Anna Ayscue, Mrs. Shirley Lyles, Mrs. Marie Harris and Mrs. Karen Cobb.

The clubhouse was decorated throughout with a lovely pink and white motif.

Dear Customers And Friends,

Many fine things have happened during the year 1964 which is now history, that make us at Leggett's proud to be a part of the Warrenton Community. Without listing all of these, for the lack of space, we mention one that stands high above all others and that is the personal relationship we have had with all our friends who have intrusted their needs with us. For these fine people we are eternally grateful.

Another year is about to begin and with this beginning we pledge to you in 1965 the best service and merchandise that can possibly be obtained. May the New Year bring you the things you most desire and we hope we may have occasion to show our gratitude to you through further service.

Sincerely,

Leggett's
