Girl Scouts And Brownies Observe Scout Week

Junior Girl Scout Troop 725 held a candlelight-rededication ceremony at the Warrenton Baptist Church on Tuesday afternoon as a part of the celebration of the 55th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. Each scout was given an opportunity to renew her Scout Promise and to review the 10 Scout Laws. Troop 725, sponsored by the Warrenton Woman's Club, is composed of five patrols and includes girls from the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, and four girls from Norlina. The current troop officers are: Troop secretary (Scribe), Catherine Blankenship; treasurer, Susan Wilson. The patrol leaders and assistant leaders are:

Nature Patrol—Faye Felts, leader; Kathy Hayes, assistant leader.
Pet Patrol—Beth Elam, leader.
Horse Shoe Patrol—Elizabeth Overby, leader; Susan Thompson, assistant leader.
Green Beret Patrol—Susan Stegall, leader; Kaye Hilliard, assistant leader.
Honor Patrol—Creptal Weaver, leader; Bonnie Loyd, assistant leader.
Troop 725 and Brownie Troop 379 of Warrenton will go to Littleton Saturday, March 18, for a Girl Scout rally with Littleton Scouts. Girl Scout Troop 725 is the only scout troop which will sell Scout Cookies in Warren County this year. The cookies will be available and for sale after April 2. Orders are now being taken. Anyone interested in purchasing these cookies are asked to contact any member of Troop 725, or their adult leaders, Mrs. Linda Thompson, Mrs. Peggy Shearin, Mrs. Eunice Hilliard, Mrs. Margaret Robertson or Mrs. Anita Thompson. Say you saw it advertised in The Warren Record.

GREAT PALS
Truck Dispatcher: "I understand you did quite a bit of fishing on your vacation. Did you fish with flies?"
Driver Superintendent: "Man, we fished, ate, slept, danced, boated, camped, drank and swam with them."

Golf Team Wins In First Play

John Graham High School opened its 1967 season Monday afternoon when they defeated the golf teams from Scotland Neck and Northern Nash in a tri-match at Scotland Neck Country Club. The Warrenton golfers were impressive in their first outing of the year, Coach Jon Burwell said yesterday. They swept practically every match, with Joey Gilbert, Pettway Boyd and Phil Daniel leading the way. Burwell said that the next match would be at the John Graham Country Club next Monday afternoon, March 20, when they will host the Northern Nash team. The match will begin at 1 o'clock.

Hospital Receives Funds From Duke

Warren General Hospital has received a check for $1,376 from the Duke Endowment, S. L. Harris, hospital administrator, said yesterday. This compared with a donation of $956 last year. The funds were Warren General Hospital's share of appropriations of $578,655 to assist Carolina hospitals in financing services to the needy sick. Thomas L. Perkins, chairman of the Duke Endowment trustees, said that appropriations to hospitals are based on $1 a day for each day of free care in the fiscal year which ended Sept. 30, 1966.

In Hospital

Patients in Warren General Hospital were listed Wednesday as follows:
Fred Benton, Bertha Perkinson, Ethel Pinnell, H. A. Wright, Calvin Harris, Isabelle Williams, Sarah Powell, Ernestine Alexander, Jessie Gardner, John Waddell,
