Firemen Deserve Public Support

The Warren County Rural Volunteer Fire Department next week will hold its annual fund raising campaign to provide funds for expenses incurred in protecting the property of Warren County citizens. Most fund raising drives are for a good purpose and deserve the support of the public, most of whom are only asked to give a little of their money. We think that this is particularly true of the Warren County Rural Volunteer Fire Department.

During the years that the Warren County Rural Volunteer Fire Department has been in operation it has saved hundreds of thousands of dollars in property and won the respect, admiration and gratitude of the people of this county. They have earned our support, and we ask that our gratitude be shown this year by making our contributions as large as possible.

In making this appeal for funds, the firemen are asking only for the means to better serve the people of Warren County through the purchase of additional fire-fighting equipment and for funds to maintain such equipment in a condition necessary to protect property of all our citizens.

The firemen are giving of their time not only for actual fire-fighting, but for training, taking valuable time from their other duties and training. In fighting fires they not only give their time with no reward but a sense of duty fulfilled, and in so doing sometimes risk their lives, and frequently have their clothes ruined in battles with flames. All they ask is that the public give them the means through their donations to better serve them.

Not only do volunteer firemen render a great service to the public in reducing fire loss, but their devotion to duty and teamwork offers an inspiration to our people.

Since the firemen contribute their time, we have long felt that it should not be necessary for us to ask them to give additional time and trouble to raise funds. Something, we are certain, that must be one of the most objectional parts of their duties. We don't think it should be necessary, but, unfortunately, it is.

The Warren County Commissioners, well aware of the value of the volunteer firemen to the county and in appreciation of their service, make a very substantial donation to firemen of the county each year. But limitations on the general fund keeps this donation from being as large as it should be.

We have for several years felt that the county should support the fire department in the same manner that it supports the sheriff's department and other agencies of the county; that each year the funds provided should be through a special levy and should be in the form of an appropriation instead of a donation. We would like to see the next session of the General Assembly pass necessary legislation to make this possible.

But until this is done, the firemen must make their annual appeal for funds. We hope that our citizens will bear this in mind and make their donations as large as possible when approached for donations.

Miss Alston Marries Andrew Woods, Jr.

The Spring Green Baptist Church was the setting Saturday, October 14, for the wedding of Miss Frances Alston, daughter of Mrs. Irene A. Check, to Andrew Woods, Jr., son of Mrs. Bertha Woods and the late Andrew Woods, Sr. of Warrenton.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Staton, former pastor of the church.

The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with palms, ivy and chrysanthemums, accented with lighted Eucharistic candles.

Mrs. Maude Thomas, pianist, presented a program of nuptial music and Miss Carolyn Townes, vocalist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore a floor-length A-line gown of imported peau de soie, with chintilly lace and bell shaped sleeves. The train was pleated into back yoke of the dress. She wore a chapel length veil of silk illusion, centered with a satin rose. The gown and veil were made by the bride. She carried a white Bible, which was topped with a white orchid with streamers of lilies of the valley.

Miss Patricia Barnes of Baltimore, Md., cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a green street-length dress with a matching headpiece of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums with bows and streamers of two-tone bronze ribbons. Bridesmaids were Miss Yvonne Jones, Mrs. Effie Savoy, Mrs. Bertha Turner, Mrs. Margaret Woods and Mrs. Mary Jones. They wore green street-length dresses with matching head bows and carried bouquets of yellow mums with bows and streamers of yellow ribbon.

Miss Alfrida C. Robinson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white dress of chintilly lace. James A. Robinson, Jr., cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

Gardner Woods, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Perry Ayscue,

APPLE-CHEESE DESSERT

When you want baked beans, or beans in any form, one good way to increase the protein intake for the day is to serve a dessert that includes cheese or eggs. The following recipe prepared by USDA food specialists is most appropriate during the fall while apples are plentiful.

6 cups apple slices (pared)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup unsifted flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter or margarine
2/3 cup finely shredded cheddar cheese

Fill a large pie pan or shallow baking dish with apples; sprinkle with lemon juice and 1/4 cup of the sugar.

Mix cinnamon, flour, salt, and remaining sugar. Mix in fat until mixture is crumbly. Stir in cheese. Spread over apples.

Bake at 350 degrees F (moderate oven) until apples are tender - about 45 minutes. Serve hot or cold with cream or ice cream, if desired. Makes six servings.

For additional apple recipes, ask for the Agricultural Extension Bulletin "Good Apple Recipes". These are available from the Home Economics Extension Agent's office.

Brooks Gives Assembly Program At Hawkins

Choosing "Excess Baggage" as a subject, The Rev. T. H. Brooks, Superintendent of Central Orphanage at Oxford, delivered the second in a series of monthly Assembly Programs to the 650 member High School student body and faculty of Hawkins High School and Thursday of last week Mr. Brooks, a dynamic and distinct orator, likened young people to a three-sided triangle in that each human life consists of the educational, spiritual and emotional sides. "Excess Baggage", claims the speaker, "Only slows one down and prevents him from reaching his potential in life."

A fourteen-voice ensemble from the High School Chorus sang an acapella rendition of John Work's "Rock In Jerusalem." The ensemble was directed by Mrs. O. B. Jenkins.

Assistant Principal James Jordan responded to Mr. Brooks' speech and announced several innovations in the school's guidance program. "We were most fortunate in obtaining the services of Rev. Brooks whose wide range of experiences makes him one of our best counselors for young people," Principal L. B. Henderson said yesterday.

Warrenton Woman Presented In Recital At Duke Auditorium

The North Carolina College Lyceum Committee presented Hilda Harris, mezzo soprano, in concert with Jonathan Brice, accompanist, in the B. N. Duke Auditorium in Durham on Thursday night of last week.

Miss Harris (Mrs. Young) is the sister of Mrs. Goldie Baskett and a graduate of John R. Hawkins High School. A delegation of 20 went from Warrenton to enjoy the recital.

Miss Harris received four lovely flower arrangements during her performance and two standing ovations at the close of her concert. Immediately following the concert, a reception for her was sponsored by the College Alumni Association.

Miss Harris returned with her sister to Warrenton for the weekend. Mrs. Goldie Baskett and Mrs. A. M. Alston gave a reception honoring her in the Alston Club House on Saturday evening, Oct. 14. Many friends and neighbors came to greet and show their respect to Mrs. Young.

Letter To Editor

EXPRESSES THANKS

To The Editor

Dr. Massey and I would like to express our sincere appreciation, not only for the very kind remarks in your editorial but your help in creating and maintaining a favorable image of Scouting in our area. As I have mentioned to you many times a favorable press is paramount to the success of our Scouting program. Last evening in an Executive Board meeting of the Boy Scouts of America, our Council president made special reference to your paper and encouraged other members of the board to keep the news media informed of the job scouting can do for young boys.

I would also be pleased to have you let the supporters of our program know how much the District Committee appreciates their support in the redevelopment of the County's Boy Scout Camp. At the appropriate time I hope to run a feature showing what has been done and the people who are responsible. This Camp is not the results of one or two but the cooperative effort of many people, businesses, and civic organizations.

We can say "Thank You," and show others of the support you are giving us; however, it is our desire to reciprocate in some tangible way for this fine vote of confidence.

W. K. "BU" DELBRIDGE
District Chairman Moratoc District ESA.

Wrinkle Remover

What's the only way to get rid of wrinkles in your laundry without ironing? Use clothes made with "permanent press" and dry them in an electric dryer.

Electric dryers and "permanent press" are made for each other. When "permanent press" is tumble dried, wrinkles fall out and creases fall in... where they belong. No ironing needed.

Of course, soft tumbling in an electric dryer reduces wrinkles—and ironing—in ordinary clothes, too.

So, give electric drying a tumble. Buy a new "wrinkle remover" from an electric appliance dealer, soon.
