MRS. JOHN MILAM ROSS, JR.

Judith Carroll And John M. Ross Wed

The wedding of Miss Judith Gail Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Carroll of Norlina, and John Milam Ross, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross of Macon, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12, at 3 o'clock in the Warren Plains Baptist Church. The Rev. Delbert M. Burnett officiated. Music was rendered by Mrs. Glenn Weldon, organist, and Mr. Robert V. Allen of Warrenton, soloist. Mr. Allen sang "O Perfect Love," and the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Robert H. Carroll of Warrenton, wore a floor-length gown of bridal satin fashioned with long sleeves and circular neckline. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from three roses. She carried a corsage of white pom poms centered with an orchid.

Miss Sharon Ayscue, niece of the bride, was her only attendant. Her dress was of mint green, empire style and she wore a short matching veil which fell from a rose. Her flowers were bronze and gold mums tied with green ribbons.

Pete Vaughan was the best man. Ushers were David Ross, brother of the groom, and Danny Ayscue, nephew of the bride. For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed to a navy outfit with matching accessories, and wore the orchid lifted from her corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Norlina High School. The groom graduated from John Graham High School and holds a position with Warren Cotton and Fertilizer Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross will reside on Route 1, Macon.

Cake-Cutting

Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, Mrs. Robert V. Allen, Mrs. Sidney Burton and Mrs. Albert Lynch entertained at a cake-cutting in the social room of the church.

The bride was presented a corsage of white carnations upon arrival. The refreshment table was

MRS. RICKY EARL EDWARDS

Miss Joyner Becomes Bride Of Mr. Edwards

In a wedding of charm and beauty solemnized at Sulphur Springs Baptist Church on Sunday, Oct. 5, at 3 p. m. Miss Deborah Kay Joyner became the bride of Ricky Earl Edwards of Louisburg. The Rev. Charles Fulbright officiated, assisted by the Rev. Henry Johnson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Joyner of Route 2, Warrenton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Edwards of Route 3, Louisburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Lynda Myrick of Henderson was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Judy and Cecile Joyner, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Sandra Wilson of Route 2, Warrenton, and Mrs. Patsy May, cousin of the groom, of Route 3, Louisburg.

Freddie Edwards of Route 3, Louisburg, was his brother's best man. Ushers were covered with a yellow cloth overlaid with a white lace table cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow and white chrysanthemums flanked by silver candlesticks bearing yellow candles.

Punch was poured by Mrs. John Milam Ross, mother of the groom. The tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. Robert V. Allen, after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. Cheese straws, nuts and mints were served.

The flower girl was Shery Wilson, daughter of Wayne Wilson, and the ringbearer was Dwight Short, cousin of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. James Short of Route 2, Warrenton.

Reception

A reception was held at the Warrenton Recreation Club with Mrs. E. L. Perry and Mrs. Walter Hundley of Norlina serving as hostesses.

Following a wedding trip to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards are making their home on Route 2, Warrenton.
