

John Graham High School Posts Second Conference Win Over Norlina In Game Here

The Norlina Blue Waves suffered their fourth conference loss at Warrenton this Friday losing to the John Graham Yellow Jackets 61-0. The victory gave the Jackets a 2-1 conference record, and was due in no small part to the fine offensive blocking efforts by the Graham line.

Following a Norlina punt to the Waves' own 40, John Graham, in eight carries, scored her first six points with Al Floyd's sweep around right end from 10 yards out. Leon Edmonds made the conversion and Warrenton led 8-0. John Graham scored again with 43 seconds remaining in the first period as Edmonds plunged from the 4. His kick for the PAT was good.

Four minutes later Floyd scored his second tally for the Jackets on a 20 yard run to his left behind superb blocking; Edmonds' attempt for the additional two points was stopped by Gary Egerton for the Waves.

Following this the Waves came close to scoring themselves when Kent Whitmore's 15 yard return of the kickoff gave Norlina a 1st and 10 on its 25. A handoff to Weldon Rook resulted in the Senior fullback's carry to the 50, after nearly breaking loose and going all the way. Waverly White then gave the Jackets a lesson on how to throw the bomb, rifling a 50 yard pass to David Brantley, who had successfully eluded his defender; there, at the Graham 5, Norlina saw its hopes of scoring thwarted when the ball slipped from the receiver's fingers. A penalty against Norlina on the next play forced the Waves to punt.

In control once more on the Warrenton 34, the Jackets let Edmonds carry in four plays to the Norlina 29. Al Cooper swept to his left end ground to the 3; Edmonds, in two carries, lugged the ball for his second tally and the Jackets' fourth. Floyd's conversion brought the score to 29-0 at the half.

To open the third quarter Edmonds and Clarence Thompson shares the glory in bringing the ball down for the score. It was Edmonds who found paydirt from 1 yard out, however, and went on to make the conversion as well.

Here again Norlina fought back, beginning with Francis Alston's 20 yard kickoff return. Grinding out a 1st down at the 50, Norlina was assisted by a 15 yard penalty against the Blue and Gold. Once more, the Waves plowed through for a 1st down at the Graham 25 due to White's quarterback sneak. Unfortunately for the visitors, a fumble was recovered by the Yellow Jackets, and four plays later Floyd ran unscathed into the end zone for the sixth Graham TD. The conversion was good and gave Warrenton a 45-0 edge.

The Jackets recovered another fumble on the Norlina 26. This drive, which saw Donnie Walker's being injured in a goal line stand, ended in Edmonds diving in from the 2 yard line for his fifth touchdown. Floyd added two more points to the score to close the period.

Early in the fourth quarter, Cooper culminated the scoring for the Jackets in lugging the ball into the end zone on a double reverse. Cooper was also responsible for scoring the conversion and gave Graham her 61-0 victory edge.

The Blue Waves journey this week to face Littleton at Littleton, while John Graham, in another home stand, will challenge Wakelon in a non-conference bout.

Wakelon To Play Here; Norlina At Littleton

John Graham High School will play Wakelon on the school athletic field here on Friday night. Wakelon was defeated by Louisville, 8-0 last Friday night.

Norlina will play at Littleton Friday night in a conference game.

Harvey Brooks, coach of the Yellow Jackets, said yesterday that admission for the remaining games here would be $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for children. He said that the Conference had set the price of all games at $1.25 and 75¢ at a meeting prior to the opening of the season, but that Warrenton had failed to receive notice of the change until this week.

Ass'n Of Jewish Men, Women And Children Meet

The annual convention of the North Carolina Association of Jewish Men, Women and Youth was held Saturday and Sunday, October 11 and 12, at the Holiday Inn, Weldon.

This was the 48th annual convention of the North Carolina Association of Jewish Women, the 39th year of the North Carolina Association of Jewish Men, and the 23rd for the North Carolina Association of Jewish Youth. The adult associations sponsor many worthwhile projects within the State of North Carolina. Among those is the Home for the Jewish Aged in Clemmons, N. C., loan and scholarship funds for needy students regardless of race or creed, the Judaica Library Project at the University of North Carolina, and the Circuit Riding Rabbi Project.

Saturday night was hospitality night for members who arrived early. Registration started at 9:00 a. m. Sunday morning and each of the three groups held a business meeting at 10:00 a. m. A joint luncheon followed at 1:00 p. m. with Rabbi Harry L. Lawrence of Spring Valley, N. Y., as guest speaker.

Herman Bernard, High Point, is president of the Men's Association; Mrs. Theodore Samet, Hickory, president of the Women's Association, and Stuart Segerman, Jacksonville, president of the Youth Association. I. D. Blumenthal, Charlotte, is Chairman of the Board.

Local members of the Board of Directors are Robert G. Liverman, Roanoke Rapids; Hy Diamond, Warrenton; and Ellis Farber of Weldon and Scotland Neck. Mrs. Harry Froid, Weldon, is chairman of arrangements for the convention.

VFW Post Urges Citizens To Give President Support

The Andrew J. Hundley Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #4096, of Norlina, this week urged that all citizens speak out in support of the President of the United States and the efforts of the United States government to stem the flow of Communism in South Vietnam.

Speaking on behalf of Post No. 4096, Commander S. A. Daniel said: "The delegates attending the V.F.W. National Convention in August in Philadelphia, Pa., unanimously urged that our government continue to seek victory in Vietnam and that all of our citizens lend their full support to the men on the fighting front."

"Frankly, we are sick and tired of listening to a very vocal minority undermining the bargaining position of our President and in so doing endangering the lives of our men on the fighting front. It is my belief that the time has come when the much talked about silent majority should speak out. We must let the men on the battlefield know that they have the support of the people at home and we must let Hanoi know that the President has the support of the people in this country."

"It is my hope that the people of this area will speak out on this issue and that other patriotic, civic and fraternal groups will join with us in this crusade. I am firmly convinced," Commander Daniel concluded, "that if we fail to

Golf Tournament Is Under Way At Country Club

By JUNIE DRAKE

Mild upsets and very close matches featured the opening round play among members of Warrenton Golf Club who are vying for fated honors in Ladies and Men's divisions of the Club Championship tournament now in full swing.

The Ladies completed playoffs for flight placement last week with favorites winning in the top bracket while the lower bracket furnished one or two disappointments for some of the girls who had higher aspirations this year.

Rhoda Currin, defending lady champ, Helen Banzet, runner-up last year and former champion, Bettye Benton and Marguerite Miles all won their playoff matches and gained championship flight standing. Grace Miles, Selma Perkinson, Juanita Wood and Winnie Nunn were victims of the championship foursome and now compete for top honors in first flight. Peggy Shearin, Ruth Bugg, Margaret Traynham, and Julia Currin won playoffs and are second flight competitors while Emily Burrows, Conn Whitford, Lela Holt and Patty Brauer, the losers, are assigned third flight positions. Opening round, sudden death matches are scheduled for October 19, in all flights for the ladies.

Joey Gilbert, three-time winner of the club championship and favorite to repeat, has been eliminated. Joey, a student and member of the golf team at Atlantic Christian College, came home last weekend to defend his title in opening round play and was immediately dethroned. The Giant Killer was Duke Miles a versatile golfer, voiceful competitor and former club champion. The victory was decisive for Miles who now looms as a decided dark horse to go all the way.

The number two man in championship flight position, Junie Drake, also went down to defeat as Phil Daniel, another former club champion applied the gas. Drake had a number of low scores in play throughout the season and was picked by some as a possible winner but he did not have it with him Sunday afternoon and that is a fatal mistake in competition with Phil Daniel. Daniel took a commanding lead mid-way the match but Drake stayed in the game and cut the lead to one hole with a birdie on number fifteen. However, Phil sank a 35 foot birdie putt on the ensuing hole and closed out Drake on the seventeenth. Daniel, a college student at Elizabeth City, could easily take home all the marbles if he continues his steady play.

J. R. "Joe" Gilbert, father of Joey, the "old pro" in every sense, was taken the limit in his match with Bobby Edmonds. Joe found himself in serious trouble late in the game and had to call on all his golfing prowess to pull even at the end of eighteen holes. Edmonds had a chance on the final hole to win but luck was not with him as a speaking out now, the vocal minority in this country will most certainly take over all that is meaningful in this land of ours. No one seeks peace more urgently than the Veterans of Foreign Wars, but we will not seek peace at any price which is what the vocal minority is calling for today."

In Memoriam

Mrs. Ida Kearney Fitts, a native and resident of Macon, died Friday 26 September. She was 86 years old.

Mrs. Fitts was well known and very highly respected throughout Warren County for her foresight, energy and leadership. These, as well as her many other talents were consistently used to help improve civic, religious and educational life in and around Macon.

Mrs. Fitts enthusiastically participated in the religious life of the community. An ardent and outstanding church worker, she was a thinker, organizer and a doer who conceived and developed many programs that widely affected her church at the local, regional and state levels. She held numerous offices and responsible positions in several organizations.

Mrs. Fitts was married to the late Reverend Guilford Booker Fitts in 1902. She is survived by her seven children, a brother, an aunt, a nephew, ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

four foot putt evaded the hole. Gilbert won on the first sudden death hole. Joe's golf course visits are limited these days but he still has what it takes and must not be counted out of any match, anytime.

Elree Hilliard won over D. F. Flaylock to complete the four: some going into the championship flight semifinals October 19. Hilliard had to come from behind to defeat Flaylock as "Big D" was having a good day until he reached the middle holes of the match. Elree's putter caught fire as Flaylock's touch went sour on the green. Hilliard won on the final hole. Hilliard, the "Billy Joe" type player at times, is capable of causing concern.

Bill Delbridge defeated Boyd Mayfield as Monroe Gardner won from Gary Andrews in first flight matches.

ed A. A. Wood in second flight play.

James White won over Tommy Frazier in the only match run off in third flight competition.

Gid Alston defeated Bill Hicks as John Andrews closed out by Diamond in fourth flight matches while Sears Bugg was the winner over W. A. Miles in fifth flight.

Semi-final matches are scheduled for October 19, in all flights.
