Church Women To Hold Day Of Self-Denial

A Call to Prayer and Self-Denial will be held by Woman's Christian services of seven Warren County Methodist Churches on Monday, Oct. 27, at Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church at Warrenton, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

Participating churches will be Wesley Memorial, Norlina, Macon, Shocco, Providence, Shady Grove and Bethlehem. Each member attending is asked to bring a sandwich.

Mrs. Fred Newsome, treasurer of the Raleigh District, will be the guest speaker for the "Quiet Day." Her topic will be "She Shall Be Called Woman."

In announcing the special program at Wesley Church, Mrs. Wiley Coleman said that the call to Prayer and Self Denial is one of the most important annual observances of United Methodist Women throughout the United States.

The Call to Prayer and Self-Denial, Mrs. Coleman said, focuses on mission study, a much needed offering for special world and national project, and a deepened spiritual life. More than 36,500 local societies in all 50 states will join in the observance.

Mrs. Coleman said that the theme of the 1969 Call to Prayer and Self-Denial, "Let the Earth Bring Forth," emphasizes not only the need to feed the hungry today but also to teach them new ways to bring forth from the earth food to meet their needs in years to come.

Foreign Student Is Woman's Club Speaker

Howard Tang, a foreign student studying at Louisburg College, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Warrenton Woman's Club on Thursday night of last week. He was brought to the meeting by Walter B. Jones, publicity director of Louisburg College. Jones was presented by Mrs. Charles Bunch.

Tang said that he had come to Louisburg College from his native Malaysia 14 months ago. He told of the clothing worn in his native land and customs of his people. He attended a Christian school in Malaysia where he studied English. He said as a result of his knowledge of English he had a better chance of getting a job. He had learned the names of American colleges from Methodist friends in his home land.

A question and answer period followed Tang's talk.

The supper meeting was held at the Afton-Elberon clubhouse with Mrs. W. R. Hedgepeth and Mrs. W. L. Hight as hostesses.

Plans were made to attend the District 14 fall meeting in Franklinton on Oct. 24.

MR. AND MRS. COURTNEY K. SADLER

Sadlers Celebrate Golden Anniversary

By RUTH MINCHER
LITTLETON - A reception was held on Sunday to honor Mr. and Mrs. Courtney K. Sadler of Route 3, Littleton, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Given by their three children, Mrs. Mark Harris, Jr., of Roanoke Rapids (Dorothy); Mrs. P. C. Vann (Mary Esther) of Zebulon and their son, Courtney L. Sadler of Winston-Salem, the event was held at McPherson Bottling Company in Littleton at the request of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, Sr. Mr. Jones is president of the firm.

Mr. Sadler is a retired employee of McPherson, having served the plant in several capacities for more than 35 years.

Greeting guests upon their arrival were Putney Halthcock and Haywood Browning, Mrs. Browning and Mark Harris, Jr., welcomed the guests and presented them to the receiving line which was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Sadler and their daughters. The son and his family were a little late arriving for the event.

F. C. Vann directed guests to the refreshment table. Mrs. Alton K. Overby of Raleigh poured punch and Mrs. Mary Sessoms of Nashville served the cake.

Lt. Col. Willa Pearl Perkinson (Ret.) of Golden Rod, Fla. and their grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris of Raleigh, presided at the gift table.

Mrs. Forrest Pegram of Vaughan and Alton K. Overby of Raleigh assisted in serving. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sadler of near Vaughan.

An arrangement of golden chrysanthemums centered the refreshment table and arrangements of late fall flowers in shades of yellow and gold were used at points throughout the building. A three-tiered wedding cake was at one end of the table and the punch bowl was at the other.

Married Oct. 8, 1919, at Panacea Springs (a once famous health spa located near Littleton), Mrs. Sadler is the former Miss Cora Browning, daughter of the late N. W. and Mary Jane Butts Browning of Aurelian Springs.

The officiating minister was the Rev. J. P. Harris. The couple recall that their witnesses were W. F. Joyner, Miss Pauline Benton and Miss Julia Cunningham. They were unable to contact any of them in time for their reception.

For the occasion, Mrs. Sadler was dressed in a model of gold polished cotton and she wore a corsage at her shoulder.

More than 200 guests were present from Warrenton, Wise, Macon, Enfield, Nashville, Raleigh, Roanoke Rapids, Cary, Littleton, Florida and from Richmond, Gasburg and Lawrenceville in Virginia.

Cotton sets pace for lively decor

DISTINCTIVE - Cotton in a bold geometric of black, brown, and orange sets off this handsome den with a distinctive masculine flavor. The Waverly fabric, called "Mardi Gras," is used for Roman shades on the slanted windows and as a cover for the clean-lined desk chair. Companion wallpaper and accessories of orange and yellow unify the room.

FOR THE GUEST ROOM - Cotton in a geometric cane pattern sets the color and design pace in this handsome guest room. The fabric in brown, black, and gold is used for the daybed, walls, and draperies. The brown and black coloring is repeated in parson's tables and a contemporary chair, while the gold is picked up in the floor covering and the wall behind the bed. Fabric by Dealey-Edson.
