LWMS Meets

The Lutheran Woman's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church met Thursday at the Lutheran Church parish hall with Mrs. W. J. Hecht as hostess. The hall was decorated with beautiful iris flowers.

The Rev. G. T. Naumann opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn and a devotional and led in the topic discussion on "How Muslims Worship," taken from the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly.

Mrs. Herman Brauer, president, presided over the business session. After reading the news letter, Missions, for the quarter, it was decided to give a gift of money to Calvary Lutheran Church in Jacksonville. All ladies were urged to attend the zone workshop in Durham on Saturday, May 2.

The hostess served cake and ice cream topped with strawberries, and coffee.

Heads Society

Mrs. L. M. Paschall, Jr., was elected president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Drewry Methodist Church at its meeting last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. H. B. White.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Felix Ranes, vice president; Mrs. Alton Curtis, secretary; and Mrs. James Barker, treasurer.

Mrs. L. M. Paschall, Jr., president, presided over the meeting.

The hostess served fruit salad, crackers, sandwiches and coffee.

Homemakers Meet

The Drewry Homemakers Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fleming which was tastefully decorated with fall flowers.

Mrs. Annie Wilson, president, presided over the business session and Mrs. Fleming gave the devotion.

Mrs. Annie Wilson gave the demonstration on "Linen for Beds and Baths." She stressed the need of checking for size, type and quality, and the purposes for which they will be used. Three points emphasized were who will use the towel, for what purpose and how it will be laundered.

The hostess served strawberry shortcake, crackers and coffee.
