

SENIOR CITIZENS READY TO BOARD BUS FOR STATE FAIR

Senior Citizens Attend North Carolina State Fair

MRS. BERTHA FORTE Home Eco. Exten. Agt. Senior Citizens of Warren County attended one of North Carolina's biggest events of the year on Monday, Oct. 19, when they attended the North Carolina State Fair in Raleigh.

The Ninth Annual Fun Festival for Senior Citizens was the highlight for the day and was entertaining for everyone. A. K. Pitzer, manager of N. C. State Fair introduced Commissioner James A. Graham of the N. C. Department of Agriculture, who gave an address of welcome. He told the Senior Citizens "this is your day - make it great," and for many it was great; as Mrs. Charlie Hawkins stated, "for the past fifty years I have been wanting to attend the State Fair and this is my first time to attend."

Entertainment for the Senior Citizens included competition for cash prizes awarded to the first and second place winners in each event, for the largest onion, sweet potato, Irish potato, ear of corn, red pepper pod, and the most unusual gourd. A hog and cow calling contest was held for both ladies and men. Entertainment from the Fair Shows was an unusual puppet show which was enjoyed by all.

Senior citizens found it most interesting to observe the educational and commercial exhibits, and to attend the flower show, wishing to grow some of the many beautiful flowers and arrange them in such manners for display. Attending the flower show also created for many of these citizens an appreciation for some of the wild flowers and other common flowers grown around the home. Bingo was another point of interest enjoyed by some members of the group, with Mrs. Ella B. Kearney returning to the county with a lovely smoking stand won in bingo.

Senior Citizens who attended the State Fair and expressing the desire to go next time were: Mrs. Robert Debnam, Mrs. Robert B. Davis, Mrs. Charlie Hawkins, Mrs. William Hawkins, Mrs. Ervin C. Kearney, Mrs. Raymond Fitts, Mrs. Willie Mae Williams, Mrs. Alice Carroll, Mrs. John Somerville, Mrs. M. H. Davis, Miss Eleanor Wright, Mrs. Jessie Harris, Mr. Herman Williams, Mrs. Willie Glasco, Mrs. Ella B. Kearney, Mrs. Roxana Green, Mrs. Irene Twidall, Mrs. Ama Williams, Mrs. Precilla Jordan, Miss Sadie Fitts, Mrs. Matilda Plummer, Mrs. Olivia Caudle, Mrs. Emily Hudgins, Mrs. Bessie Jones, Mrs. Corinne Plummer, Mrs. Ada S. Johnson and Mrs. Maggie Perry.

Also attending were Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Mrs. Calvin Somerville and daughter, Donna, Mrs. Mamie Kearney, Mrs. Rachael Hargrove, and Mrs. Bertha B. Forte, Home Economics Extension Agent.

Supporting the trip financially but unable to attend were Mr. B. N. Cheek and Mr. William Kearney.

Free and lifetime admission cards for Senior Citizens were accorded by the Fair. These cards may be used for future fairs and any day of the week.

Tar Heel Bankers To Conduct 4-H Campaign

North Carolina bankers are kicking off a Statewide 4-H Bank Campaign in October on behalf of America's 4 million 4-H members.

Dr. J. W. Poy, vice president, Wachovia Bank and Trust Co., Greenville, is serving as 1970 Statewide 4-H Bank Campaign Chairman. He joins bankers in 35 other states also conducting campaigns.

Poy said funds raised in North Carolina will help support the youth programs of the National 4-H Club Foundation in Washington, D. C. The Foundation owns and operates the National 4-H Center in suburban Washington.

The Center, which is now limited to about 20,000 persons annually, is conducting a $8 million expansion program. Construction includes a dormitory, cafeteria and seminar center with classrooms, library, chapel and auditorium. When expansion is completed, the Center can handle 60,000 people each year. Some $3.8 million has been pledged by individuals, businesses and corporations in the United States.

Poy said funds contributed to the bank campaign would support the Center in areas of citizenship education, leadership development and 4-H international programs.

Dr. Chester Black, state 4-H leader at N. C. State University, said some 228 Tar Heel 4-H members and adult leaders have participated in programs arranged by the 4-H Foundation this year. The programs included citizenship short courses, adult leader forums, people-to-people travel programs, and International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) orientations.

A Haywood County youth, Mike Carpenter, Rt. 3, Clyde, is a report-to-the-nation delegate. Carpenter is one of

Russell Receives Combat Badge in Vietnam

U. S. ARMY, VIETNAM - Army Private First Class Wayne L. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waverly B. Russell of Wise, N. C., received the combat infantryman badge near Chu Lai, Vietnam on Aug. 31.

Pfc. Russell received the award while assigned as an infantryman with Company A, 1st Battalion 52nd Infantry of the Americal Division's 198th Infantry Brigade. He entered the Army in November 1969, completed basic training at Ft. Bragg, N. C., and was last stationed at Ft. Polk, La.

The badge is a unique and cherished award that is highly coveted by its recipients. The award was originated during World War II to recognize the role of the infantryman. The badge can be awarded only to a member of an infantry unit of brigade, regimental or smaller size unit who satisfactorily performed in active ground combat against a hostile force for a period of time.

In honor of its singular meaning, the badge is worn above all other awards and decorations, over the left breast. It is a blue rectangle with a silver rifle mounted on it, superimposed over a curved wreath, subsequent awards are represented by stars at the top center of the wreath.

11 4-H members in the United States who report the accomplishments of 4-H to key leaders in government, agriculture, business and industry. The 4-H Foundation helps support and handles travel arrangements for the report delegates.

In 1969, 14 North Carolina bankers gave to the 4-H Foundation through the Nationwide 4-H Campaign. Eight bankers gave at the "Silver Clover" level of $100 or more.
