

Norlina Downs Visiting Enfield In Friday Play

The Norlina Blue Waves overran visiting Littleton by the score of 26-8 in a Roanoke Conference victory Friday night.

Norlina amassed all its points in the first two periods and withstood a Littleton rally in the last half.

Littleton marched 94 yards in 12 plays for its touchdown in the final period. Halfback Bill

Bowman churned his way to paydirt from seven yards out. Senior quarterback Jimmy Kearney picked up the two point conversion.

The setback sent the Blue Jays reeling to their sixth loss against one win. Littleton possesses a 1-4 league chart.

The Blue Jays visit Warrenton in another league clash Friday night.

Jackets Lose

The Warrenton Yellow Jackets suffered a 20-6 upset loss at the hands of Wakelon High School at Zebulon on Friday night. The loss dropped the Jackets overall record to 4-3.

The Jackets return to Roanoke Conference play as they host Littleton Friday night. The loss was the second straight for the injury-plagued Jackets of Coach Harvey Brooks.

NO FROST ON PUMPKIN

Mrs. D. E. Read, Chadburn, Rt. 2, is busy using early pumpkins she grew this year to make marmalade. So, there will be few of her pumpkins left for Jack Frost to paint.

Mrs. Read, using an extension approved recipe, is selling pumpkin marmalade at the SENC-Crafts Store, Lake Waccamaw.

"This is the first pumpkin marmalade to go on sale in Columbus County," Mrs. Yvonne Ray, home economics extension agent, notes.

GEORGE BELL

ship and operation of a radio station has been his dream since his high school days. This, he said, led to his attending the electronic school in Washington, D. C., and to his working for various radio stations to gain experience. In his efforts to start a radio station in his home town he has met with many frustrations and many delays, but at long last, he said, he is doing what he wants to do with his ambition now to give the Warrenton area the best possible radio service.

Steed is married to the former Miss Frances Lewis of Cascade, Va., who teaches math at John Graham High School. They have one daughter, Sreda, age 6.

NO HIPPIES

A youngster, proud of his own hippie-like growth of hair, was being shown a new baby who was very bald.

"Where did he come from?" he asked.

"From heaven."

Turning to his mother, the boy said: "Gee, they cut hair close in heaven, don't they?"

'Make It Yourself With Wool' Meeting To Be Held
