

Whiskey Involved In Number Of Court Cases

Whiskey was involved in a number of cases tried in Warren County District Court last Friday.

George Moseley was sentenced to the roads for four months when he pled guilty to possession of taxpaid whiskey for purpose of sale. The sentence was suspended for two years provided the defendant pay a $125 fine and court costs in one case, and the further provision that he not have in his possession any quantity of non-taxpaid liquor at his home or any other place and not have in his possession more than the legal amount of taxpaid liquor at any time. It was ordered that the whiskey be confiscated by the Sheriff of Warren County.

Ercell Swanson Williams failed to appear in court to answer to a charge of drunk driving. Judgment absolute on his bond was ordered.

Richard Bruce entered a plea of nolo contendere to a charge of possession of taxpaid whiskey for purpose of sale. The defendant was ordered to pay a $20 fine and court cost. The court ordered that one-half of the whiskey be confiscated by the Sheriff of Warren County.

James Davis was ordered to pay a $10 fine and court costs when he pled guilty to a charge of public drunkenness. Davis was also ordered to pay court costs in another case in which he pled guilty to a charge of possession of taxpaid wine with seal broken.

Mabel Williams Towns was found guilty of possession of non-taxpaid liquor. Prayer for judgment was continued for three years upon condition the defendant pays a $40 fine and court costs and that she not have in her possession any quantity of non-taxpaid liquor at home or elsewhere. In a second case in which Mabel Williams Towns was charged with possession of taxpaid liquor for purpose of sale, the state took a nol pros with leave.

Frank J. Wood, charged with non-support, was found not guilty.

Henry Lewis Livas pled guilty to speeding 70 miles per hour in a 60 mph zone. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs.

Ossie Lynch was sentenced to work under the supervision of the State Department of Correction for three months when he pled guilty to charges of no operator's license, no current registration, no financial security in force, expired inspection certificate. The sentence was suspended for five years upon condition the defendant pays a $100 fine and court costs and not be guilty of any of the crimes charged for five years.

Thomas Glenn Cherry was found guilty of speeding 70 miles per hour in a 60 mph zone. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs.

Charles Jackson Rivers, charged with abandonment and non-support, was found not guilty.

William Lee Mills pled guilty to a charge of failure to comply with terms of suspended sentence. The court ordered the following judgment:

"This matter coming on for hearing on why this indigent defendant should not be committed to the North Carolina State Department of Correction for a period of two months as a result of not having met the conditions of his suspended sentence, this matter is continued and the defendant is to be held in the Warren County jail until such time as the State of Virginia law enforcement officers arrive here to take the defendant into custody as a result of a warrant issued from the State of Virginia charging the defendant with larceny of automobile, at which time the Sheriff of Warren County shall turn the defendant over to the law enforcement officers of the State of Virginia, and this matter shall be dismissed at the time."

Janet Sylvia Carroll was granted a divorce from Richard Marlon Carroll.

Ruth Evans King, charged with abandonment and non-support, was found not guilty.

Electric Power To Be Interrupted Sunday

Electric power will be off in several sections of Warren County Sunday, H. V. Massengill, local manager for Carolina Power and Light Company, announced yesterday.

The towns of Littleton, Macon, Vaughan, and surrounding areas, including customers served by Halifax Membership Corporation, will be off from 1 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.

The towns of Warrenton, Norlina, Ridgeway, Manson, Middleburg and surrounding areas will be interrupted from 3 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Massengill said the interruption is necessary in order to install new switches in the Warrenton sub-station and complete the conversion work on the Littleton feeder line.

He said that if inclement weather or other factors interfere with work, it will be rescheduled.

Tyndall Speaker At Junior's Club Meeting

Captain Earl Tyndall was the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Warrenton Junior Woman's Club held at the Presbyterian Church on Thursday night, Oct. 22, at 8 o'clock.

Presented by Mrs. Donna Blaylock, chairman of international affairs, Captain Tyndall showed interesting slides on Vietnam. Some of the slides were of the United States Army building roads, and other slides showing ways and means of living of the Vietnamese. After a brief question and answer period, Mrs. Blaylock thanked Captain Tyndall and presented him with a fishing tackle box and fish chain.

A short business session followed Captain Tyndall's talk.

Mrs. Janet Halthcock, president, presided over the meeting. Miss Deborah Brown led the Pledge to the Flag and Mrs. Judy Clark gave the devotion. Miss Liz Kilgore sang "This Is My Song," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Margaret Aycock.

Miss Deborah Brown, chairman of public affairs, announced that her department had planned a bake sale on Nov. 3, Election Day, on the courthouse square.

The meeting was adjourned with the reading of the club litany.

The hostesses, Billie Vern Proctor, Joyce Aycock, Margaret Aycock and Judy Clark, served cake squares, midget pickles, nuts, coffee and soft drinks.

Junior Woman's Club Thanks Art Patrons

Mrs. Joyce Aycock and Mrs. Janet Harris of the Fine Arts Department of the Warrenton Junior Club, this week expressed their thanks to the public for making its art display at the office of Carolina Power and Light Company a success.

"We would like to thank everyone who went by the Carolina Power and Light Company office to see the display and the local artist who made the display possible," the club members said.

These local artists were Mrs. Diane T. Rodwell, Margaret Tharrington, Maggie Hayes, Debbie J. Edwards, Phyllis King, Carolyn S. Schoonover, John Thomas Rooker, Phillip Harris, James G. Gillespie, and Robert Loyd.

The members also said that they would like to express their thanks to Radio Station WARR and The Warren Record for their excellent publicity.

Doctor: Have you ever had your ears pierced?
Patient: No, but I've often had 'em bored.

TO THE VOTERS - of - WARREN COUNTY

We, supporters of Claude T. Bowers, would again like to thank you for the fine support you gave General Bowers in the Democratic Primary of May 2 in his successful contest for County Commissioner.

Again we ask for your vote and your support for General Bowers in the General Election of Tuesday, November 3, when he will have Republican opposition. We ask that all his friends and supporters make a special effort to vote. We ask that you will not take his election for granted but that you will vote.

We make this request in the firm belief that the business experience of General Bowers and the contacts he made in Raleigh and Washington while serving for many years as Adjutant General of North Carolina will be invaluable in the continued progress of the county.

General Bower's whole life has demonstrated that he is a builder. We ask that he be given the opportunity to help in the building of Warren County by your vote on November 3.
