Rotarians Eulogize Life Of Dr. F. P. Hunter

The Warrenton Rotary Club at its regular meeting on Tuesday adopted "Resolution of Regret at The Death of Dr. F. P. Hunter."

The resolution, signed by President Will Fowler and Secretary Charles T. Johnson, reads as follows:

Whereas: Dr. Frank Patterson Hunter, a native of Warrenton, was called to the Great Beyond on Friday, October 30, 1970, and;

Whereas: He had practiced Medicine in Warrenton and Warren County continuously since finishing his Medical education and training in the early summer of 1927, and;

Whereas: His devotion to duty and his Medical skill were of the extraordinarily fine qualities that enabled him to extend his efforts on behalf of his patients to all hours of each day, and;

Whereas: Though himself a victim of Arthritis, he strove mightily and successfully to adapt his ailment to a faithful continuation of his professional activities, and;

Whereas: He was at all times interested in the general and specific welfare of his fellow-citizens and gave of his talents to the achievement of a better community life; tegic Mediterranean areas. The story is the same in Asia. As the western nations move out, the communists capitalize on the prevailing chaotic conditions and move in, according to their strategy.

Mrs. Bryson said experience has proved over and over again the utter futility of trusting a Russian promise. All Americans, particularly the leaders, must be made aware of this timetable. Public indignation must be harnessed in political power in force enough to upset the plan and drive its totally evil influence from the world.

Mrs. Stokes told of presenting a Certificate of Appreciation from the DAR to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moody in honor of their son, John Moody, who was killed in Vietnam. A book and flowers were also presented to Mr. and Mrs. Moody.

The names of the Good Citizens were announced by Mrs. Stokes. They are Ann Wood Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hardy of Warrenton and a senior at John Graham High School; Vickie Hawks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hawks of Norlina and a senior at Norlina High School; and Mary Frances Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Little of Littleton and a senior at Littleton High School. The girls, with Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Rooker, will attend Good Citizens Day in Hillsborough on Nov. 14.

Mrs. W. R. Baskerville reported over 26% of the membership had subscribed to the DAR Magazine.

Mrs. W. R. Woodall told of the new scholarship girl at Crossnore. The chapter voted to send a $50 scholarship to Crossnore and sent $35 for clothes for the girl.

A $35 valued box of clothing has been sent by Mrs. W. B. Crinkley to the Indian school at Cherokee.

Mrs. W. R. Baskerville gave the Junior American Citizens report for Mrs. W. A. Graham who was unable to be present. She said 974 girls and boys, grades one through eight, in Warren County schools, were receiving important instruction in good citizenship, holding monthly meetings, studying about the Flag, observance of Constitution Week in September, observance of American History Month in February and making and writing patriotic poems.

Mrs. W. T. Skinner, III, showed 80 slides of covered bridges and American painters.

DAR Holds Meeting At Home Of Mrs. Horne

The Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its Nov. 7 meeting with Mrs. Graham Horne at the historic, spacious Graham-Horne home in Warrenton. Other hostesses were Mrs. W. B. Hoskins, Mrs. C. P. Allen, Mrs. A. J. Williams, Mrs. H. M. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Rooker, Jr., and Miss Louise Allen.

Following the ritual, prayer and Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag led by Mrs. J. M. Stokes, chaplain, the DAR Hymn was sung with Mrs. C. T. Johnson at the piano.

Arrangements of fall flowers accented and blended with the general decor throughout the home.

The timetable for conquests for Russia in Africa is probably on schedule, Mrs. Bryson said, particularly in the str-
