Miss Thompson And Mr. Fuller Wed

In a ceremony of beauty and simplicity Miss Eleanor Ruth Thompson of Warrenton and William Louis Fuller, Jr., of Afton were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, November 15, at four o'clock at the Warren Plains Baptist Church. The Rev. Red W. Fuson, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bryant Thompson of Warrenton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Louis Fuller, Sr., of Afton.

The ceremony was performed before a background of five oregon fern balls, centered with a floral basket of mums, snap dragons, and gladiolas, four candelabrum with cathedral tapers.

Mr. Phillip Harris of Warrenton presented a program of nuptial organ music. Miss Amy Kilgore, of Warrenton, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and the "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of antique bridal satin fashioned with a rounded neckline and long sleeves extending to a point over the wrist trimmed with tiny pearls. The empire waist was accented with two rows of lace. Her A-line skirt was softly pleated in the back. Her floor length detachable train was attached to the shoulders and the edges of the train were bordered with lace. Her elbow length bouffant veil was attached to a crown of lace and pearls. Her jewelry consisted of an opal necklace and diamond earrings, both gifts from the groom. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, centered with a white orchid and showered with white satin ribbon and white feathered carnations.

Miss Anne Thompson, sister of the bride of Warrenton, was maid of honor. She wore a formal length gown of moss green crepe with a high neckline, an empire waist with long sleeves trimmed in Irish lace. Her A-line skirt was accented with a bow in the back. Her short veil of organza net was attached to a bow of matching material. She carried a nosegay of yellow and bronze pompons showered with bronze ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Verliene Thompson, sister of the bride of Raleigh, Mrs. Edgar G. Neal, sister of the groom, of Afton, Mrs. Harry J. Carter, cousin of the groom, of Afton, Mrs. Allison Rivers of Henderson, Miss Edwenna King, of Raleigh and Mrs. Joyce R. Vaughan of Richmond, Va. They were dressed like the honor attendant and carried nosegays of yellow and bronze pompons showered with yellow ribbon.

Mr. Harry J. Carter, cousin of the groom of Afton, served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Billy Thompson, of Raleigh, Mr. Jerry Thompson, of Warrenton, brothers of the bride, Mr. Edgar G. Neal, brother-in-law of the groom, of Afton, Mr. Ernest B. Harris, and Mr. Bill Stainback of Warrenton and Mr. Allison Rivers of Henderson.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding, a street-length dress of orange wool knit with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Fuller, mother of the groom, chose for the wedding a street-length dress of beige wool knit with black and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. W. E. Knight, maternal grandmother of the bride, chose for the wedding a street-length dress of beige wool knit with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Earl Maynard, Jr., of Warrenton, was wedding director and mistress of ceremony. Miss Bonnie Clayton, of Raleigh, registered the wedding guests. They wore white orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple received the guests in the vestibule of the church. After this, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. The bride chose for her going-away ensemble a green wool knit dress with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Mrs. Fuller graduated from

John Graham High School in Warrenton and attended Hard-barger Business College in Raleigh and now holds a position as bookkeeper at Warren Auto Parts in Warrenton.

Mr. Fuller graduated from John Graham High School in Warrenton and is presently engaged in farming. The couple will make their home on Rt. 2, Warrenton.

After-Rehearsal Party

Miss Eleanor Thompson and Mr. William Louis Fuller, Jr., were entertained at a cake-cutting and after rehearsal party at the Warrenton Country Club on Saturday night, November 14, given by the parents of the bride and groom. The table was covered with a pink table cloth covered with net tied on the corners with white bows. The table was centered with two three branch silver
