Miss Brantley Honored At Floating Courtesy

A floating nuptial courtesy was extended to Miss Joyce Elaine Brantley, December bride-elect, on Saturday evening at the Norlina Woman's Clubhouse. Miss Clara Brantley, Mrs. Liza Stevenson, Mrs. Karney Brantley and Mrs. Frances Faulk were hostesses.

Guests were greeted by the honoree and Mrs. Karney Brantley. Miss Barbara Brantley assisted in registering the guests at a table which was laid in white lace and held the guest register and a miniature bride doll.

The bridal motif prevailed in decorations throughout the clubhouse. Centering the refreshment table was an arrangement of mixed white flowers and Baker's fern topped with a white wrought iron bridal shower umbrella trimmed with bridal net and green ribbons.

Approximately 35 guests attending the courtesy were served bridal cake squares, salted nuts, mints, cheese straws and lime punch. Mrs. Stevenson and Miss Brantley presided over the punch bowl.

Special guests for the party were Mrs. John Clifton Brantley, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. John Edward Rooker, mother of the prospective groom.

During the evening the bride-elect received many lovely and useful gifts which were displayed by Miss Joan O'Neal. For the occasion, Miss Brantley was remembered with a corsage of miniature white mums and an electric mixer by the hostesses.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Faulk.

MRS. JOHN QUINCE ALLEN

Miss Wilson, Mr. Allen Wed At Home Of Bride

Miss Pam Wilson of Norlina and John Quince Allen were united in marriage in a double-ring, candle-lighted ceremony on Nov. 25 at the home of the bride. The Rev. Wade Tucker officiated.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Norlina. Mr. Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen of 3823 Ingram Drive, Brentwood, Raleigh. He is presently employed in Raleigh.

The bride wore a white street-length dress with a single strand of pearls and a white mantilla headpiece. She carried a cascade nosegay of white rose buds, fern and baby's breath centered with a yellow-throated orchid.

Miss Wade Wilson was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress with a white lace bodice and a black dirndl skirt with a hot pink sash at the waist.

The bride's mother wore an aqua knit dress. The groom's mother wore a dress and coat ensemble of aqua shantung and lace, and the bride's grandmother wore a navy dress. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

The bride chose for her wedding trip a yellow and blue knit dress and the orchid from her nosegay.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. Wedding cake and punch were served from a table which bore a white wedding cloth and an arrangement of purple mums.

After spending several days at Atlantic Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Allen are making their home at Kimball's Point on Kerr Lake.

Homemaker Saves Child's Life

A child's life may have been saved because a Granville County homemaker, Mrs. Hattie Rogers, cared enough to share safety information with others.

Mrs. Rogers asked for extra copies of booklets on "First Aid" to give to some friends who could not attend the Extension Homemakers meeting on accident prevention.

Not too long afterwards, a neighbor child swallowed poison. The mother followed the instructions in the first aid book given her by Mrs. Rogers; then rushed the child to the family physician.

"The child was not hospitalized and is doing fine," Mrs. Mary Parham, home economics extension agent, says.
