Miss Marilyn Long And Mr. Willie Norwood Wed

DURHAM - A six o'clock ceremony on Nov. 7 united in marriage Miss Marilyn Dionne Long of Lakeview Park here and Willie Lee Norwood, Jr., of Arcola at the Church of God.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Raymond Bowers of Lakeview Park. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norwood, Sr., of Arcola.

The Rev. Benjamin C. Horrell performed the double ring ceremony before an altar of yellow fall flowers, ferns and lighted tapers in branched candelabra arranged with yellow chrysanthemums and oak leaf clusters. Mrs. Hazel Allen, organist and Nick Downing, soloist provided a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her step-father, the bride wore a formal A-line gown with fitted silk angel skin peau and lace bodice embellished with seed pearls and scalloped lace at the high neckline. The long bishop sleeves ended with lace cuffs fastened with miniature covered buttons. Her chapel train was edged with double rows of matching scalloped lace. Her silk bouffant veil was attached to a forward petal headpiece of lace encrusted with pearls and tear drop crystals. She carried a cascade of chrysanthemums, carnations and lilies of the valley centered with white orchids.

Miss Deborah Sharon Long was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an empire gown of crepe in alternating shades of green and gold with a matching headpiece of velvet and net. She carried a nosegay of bronze pompons, yellow baby's breath and valley lilies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Clements of Hopewell, Va., cousin of the bride; Miss Jackie Bowers of Petersburg, Va., the bride's step-aunt; Mrs. Alfred Coleman of Prince George, Va., also her cousin and Miss Kittie Norwood of Arcola and Mrs. Freddie Edwards of Louisburg, the bridegroom's sisters.

Flower girl was Miss Rhonda Dickens who carried a basket of yellow pompons and yellow baby's breath.

They were dressed identically to the honor attendant in gold or green gowns and the bridesmaids carried matching nosegays.

Mr. Norwood, Sr., was his son's best man. Groomsmen were the Rev. Emmanuel Pegram of Greensboro, the bridegroom's brother-in-law; Freddie Edwards of Louisburg, also a brother-in-law; Bruce Ayscue of Raleigh, his uncle; Danny Norwood of Hopewell, Va., cousin and Dwight Ayscue of Warrenton.
