PART OF LARGE GROUP AT FARM-CITY MEETING

Andrews Is Speaker At Farm-City Meeting Here

Warren County farmers were hosts to Warren County businessmen at a barbecue and chicken supper at the Lions Den on Wednesday of last week in observance of County-City Week in North Carolina.

The meeting, whose purpose is to promote better understanding and cooperation between city and country people, was first scheduled for last week when the event was held over the state, but due to the state of emergency in Warren County was postponed for a week.

Even a week later, the event was marred to a degree by rural firemen being called from the meeting to fight a rash of fires over the county.

Dr. Walter Glenn Andrews, chairman of the East Central District Extension Service, was the speaker for the event sponsored by the Warren County Extension Department.

Elmer Harris, chairman of the County Agriculture Advisory Committee, presided over the meeting. The invocation was given by S. M. Cheston, vice chairman of the committee.

Dr. Andrews, presented by Howard Daniel, vice president of the Citizens Bank and vice chairman of Farm-City Week, spoke on the relations between farm and city dwellers and their environmental problems. He stressed their dependence on each other and their need to work together to stop the pollution of our environment and the waste of our natural resources.

H. V. Massengill, local manager of Carolina Power and Light Company, expressed the appreciation of the business men to their hosts, the Warren County farmers. L. C. Cooper, Extension Agricultural Agent, responded.

Farmers introduced their guests, who stood for recognition. Some 170 farmers and business men were present for the dinner when barbecued pork, smothered chicken, vegetables and coffee were served by Shearin's of Essex-Hollister.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my sister, Mrs. Janette Elliott, who departed this life October 31, 1970.

When Jesus, called you home with Him up in that Heavenly band. I miss you more, and more each day since you left me. I know you are happy. I don't understand, but I know God knew best for me.

Sister, you were always jolly and full of cheer, had a smile, when he greeted you.

In spite of pain and trouble you always had time for me. You worked hard and were a generous woman.

Sister, you were one of the best friends I had. The joy, which came from knowing you, did love to give and love each other.

I will remember these things, and never forget you.

Sister, no more pain will come your way.
