Local Girl Takes Part In Peace Program

RALEIGH — Peace on earth was proclaimed through dance Dec. 10 in the annual Peace College Christmas concert. Modern and folk dance and ballet were combined in the program presented by the Peace Dance Club in the Hermann Student Center on campus. At least one local young woman performed with the group.

The concert, under the direction of Miss Jody Suttive, Peace dance instructor, opened with "Song of Joy" from Beethoven's Ninth. Margaret Fensel of Wilmington was ballet soloist for "Seascape" and another solo was performed by Pam Adams of Smithfield.

The troupe danced before several large black backdrops, under special lighting effects. Among the performers was Jane Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal W. Connell of Macon Road, Warrenton, and a 1969 graduate of John Graham High School where she was homecoming queen, an outstanding senior, a member of the annual staff, Monogram Club president and F.H.A. president. She is a Peace sophomore.

Dr. Charles Bunch Is Kentucky Colonel

Dr. Charles Bunch, surgeon and chief of staff at Warren General Hospital, has been commissioned a Kentucky Colonel by Governor Louie B. Nunn, Governor of Kentucky, it was learned here this week.

Governor Nunn, under date of Dec. 9, wrote Dr. Bunch as follows:

"It is my distinct privilege to commission you a Kentucky Colonel. This commission is an honor to be proudly displayed as a symbol of your interest in and dedication to Kentucky.

"I hope your appreciation of Kentucky and its many fine attributes will continue to grow."

Don't take the spare tire around your waist on vacation. Slim down now for a more pleasant summer, advises the North Carolina Heart Association.

Little Garden Club Meets At Bright Home

The Warrenton Little Garden Club held its Christmas meeting on Tuesday night of last week at the home of Mrs. R. H. Bright with Mrs. William King and Mrs. W. R. Hedgepeth as co-hostesses. The home was beautifully decorated in a Yuletide theme.

Mrs. J. C. League of Henderson presented an interesting program on "Basics of Flower Arranging and Christmas Arrangements." She showed several beautiful arrangements.

Mrs. Robert Fleming, program chairman, read a delightful poem, "Gardener's Visit From St. Nicholas."

Mrs. Julius Banzet, III, president, presided at the business meeting. The Mini-Garden Committee reported that dirt has been delivered to the garden site and work will soon proceed on the garden. The committee which was appointed to work on landscaping at the Lions Den reported that a member of the landscaping committee from State University in Raleigh is drawing plans which will be presented to the committee for approval. Mrs. Banzet presented each club member with a litter bag donated by the Warren County Forest Ranger.

Coffee, cakes and nuts were served from the dining room.
