MRS. CHARLES ARTHUR SEAMAN

Miss Parham Weds Charles A. Seaman

In a candlelight setting of beauty and solemnity Sunday, March 25, Miss Brenda Gay Parham and Charles Arthur Seaman exchanged their wedding vows. The three o'clock double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend A. T. Robertson, Jr., in Tabernacle Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Parham, of Route 2, Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Seaman, of Norlina, are parents of the groom.

The rostrum of the church was centered with a brass arch of burning candles flanked by matching arrangements of white and yellow flowers. A seventeen-branched brass candelabrum holding burning tapers along with standards of graceful palms completed the decorations. For their benediction, the couple knelt on a prie-dieu. Reserved pews for family members were marked with sprays of greenery and satin bows.

Mrs. Alma Matthews, organist, and Jimmy Adams, soloist, rendered a program of wedding music. "Melody of Love," "For Once in My Life," and "The Wedding Prayer" were presented as vocal selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal white organza princess-styled gown fashioned with a V-neckline and long, applied cuffed-in lace sleeves. Two rows of Venice appliques vertically complemented the front of the skirt while matching trim outlined the hemline. The semi-cathedral train was edged with an applied band of Venice feulettes. Her Camelot headpiece, from which flowed a fingertip-length veil, was in the Venice flower and leaf design. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white bridal roses and cymbidium orchids accented with sprays of baby's breath.

Mrs. Steve Franks, of Elizabeth City, attended as matron of honor. Her formal gown of mint green interlock polyester featured a high neckline banded in lace, and empire waistline with set-in midriff and streamers at back closing. The long, full sheer sleeves were cuffed in lace and circled at the wrists with sheer ruffles. To complement her gown, she wore a widebrimmed mint green hat banded with sheer yellow and green organza and centered at back with matching bow. She carried a white basket filled with yellow and white daisies and baby's breath tied with yellow satin ribbons.

In gowns and headpieces similar to that of the honor attendant, bridesmaids were Mrs. Raymond Seaman of Manson, sister-in-law of the groom; Mrs. Harry B. House of Henderson, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Donnie Bratton of Greenville, sister of the groom; and Miss Gale Stainback of Henderson, cousin of the bride. Each carried a white basket filled with yellow and white daisies and baby's breath.

Junior attendants were Miss

Robbin Parham, and Miss Tammy Reavis, cousin of the bride. Their dresses were of yellow polyester with yellow and white organza trim. Matching hair ribbons completed their attire. They each carried baskets identical to those of the bridesmaids. In identical attire as the junior attendants was Miss Brenda Faye Parham, who attended as flower girl. Master Harry Bruce House, Jr., cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer.

The groom had his father as best man. In the usher group were Raymond Seaman of Manson, brother of the groom, Donnie Bratton of Greenville, brother-in-law of the groom; R. D. Robertson of Greenville, cousin of the bride; and Harold Seaman of Norlina, cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony, the couple departed on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. Upon their return, they will make their home on Route 4, Henderson.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of John Graham High School in Warrenton. Mr. Seaman was graduated from Vance Senior High in 1971. Both are employed with Rose Merchandise on the Raleigh Road.

Celebrates Birthday

Miss Linda Bobbitt celebrated her 14th birthday with a cookout last Wednesday evening, April 28, at the picnic area at Kimball's Point. Following the cookout the group went to the honoree's home on Boyd Street for ice cream and cake.

Russell D. Robertson and Mrs. Pauline Rigsbee, aunts of the bride-elect, Miss Gale Stainback and Danny Hayes presided over the register.

The refreshment table was covered with yellow overlaid with a white organza daisy flowered cloth. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a nosegay of white roses, daisies, and baby's breath. A five-branched candelabrum held arrangements of yellow and white flowers and burning tapers. Silver punch bowls were placed on each end of the table.

After the cutting of the traditional first slice of cake by the honored couple, the serving was continued by Mrs. Henry J. Seaman and Mrs. Bernice Stainback. Mrs. Steve Franks poured punch. Other refreshments consisted of ham biscuits, finger sandwiches, cheese straws, nuts and mints.

Good-byes were said by Mrs. Harry B. House and R. D. Robertson, Jr.
