MRS. CARROLL DAVIDSON JONES, JR.

Miss Hecht Becomes Bride Of Mr. Jones

In a quiet and simple ceremony before relatives and close friends, Miss Pamela Kay Hecht and Carroll Davidson Jones, Jr., were united in marriage on May 9 at 4 o'clock in Redeemer Lutheran Church, Portsmouth, Va. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Larry W. Schmidt, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Hecht of Portsmouth, Va., and granddaughter of Mrs. Carl R. Hecht of Ridgeway. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll D. Jones, Sr., of Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Evelyn Little, organist, of Portsmouth rendered a program of wedding music.

The couple spoke their vows before an altar decorated with an all white center arrangement of large mums and snapdragons. Seven branch lighted candelabras interlaced with ivy and white satin ribbon were placed in the chancel at each end of the altar. Special pewes were marked with tiny nosegays of white miniature daisies and white satin ribbon.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of candelight polyester voile, featuring an empire bodice with lace cape sleeves and V-neckline with an overlay of lace. A deep ruffle of matching lace formed the hemline. She wore a picture hat fashioned to match her gown, and carried a nosegay of white daisies and stephanotis with ecrú satin streamers.

The bride chose her sister, Mrs. Eugene B. Via of Richmond, Va., as her only attendant. Her floor length gown of light blue floral polyester voile featured a V-neckline, short ruffled sleeves and ruffled hemline. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a basket of yellow and white daisies and babies breath tied with yellow ribbon.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Michael Tefft and Alva J. Davis of Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Denver O. Miller served as mistress of ceremonies.

The bride is a sophomore, majoring in Library Science, at Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Va., and a dean's list student. The groom is a cum laude graduate of Tidewater Community College. He is employed by Virginia Electric and Power Company in Norfolk, Va. The couple will reside in Chesapeake, Va.

Following the wedding, the couple was honored at a reception, given by the bride's parents, in the church social hall. Miss Lisa Miller registered guests. Mrs. Denver Miller served the wedding cake after the couple cut the traditional first slice. Refreshments consisted of ham biscuits, crabmeat balls, tea sandwiches, assorted cheese, punch, nuts and mints.

The Warren County and Warren County members of Xi Chapter Delta Kappa Gamma met at Norlina Womens Club at noon on Saturday, May 15. Warren County was the host group.

After the luncheon the Rev. Wayne Young led a memorial service honoring the late Mariam Boyd. Each person present received a booklet about "Miss Mariam," prepared by Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer.

The new officers for the coming year were installed by the outgoing officers. Mrs. Shirley White is the new president of the society.

Announcements for the Norlina United Methodist Church were made this week by the minister, the Rev. M. W. Warren, as follows:

Thursday, May 20-7:30 p. m., Bible Study and Sharing Group (Mark 4) will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Grissom.

Saturday, May 22-6 p. m., Men's Softball Team will play the Harriet Baptists at the E. M. Rollins Field in Henderson. The public is cordially invited to see these two teams play. Norlina has a real good team but it needs some support from friends to do some old fashioned boosting and rooting. We would like all the Young Adults who are not playing to fill up their cars with supporters and go back our men's softball team.

Sunday, May 23-9:45 a. m., Sunday School (all ages invited); 11 a. m., Morning Worship; 6 p. m., UMYF.

Wednesday, May 26-7:30 p. m., Chancel Choir rehearsal.

Thursday, May 27-7:30 p. m., Bible Study and Sharing Group (Mark 5).

Dudley Speaker At L&M Meeting

The Rev. Mr. David Dudley, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ridgeway, was guest speaker at the Norlina Literature and Music Club's annual spring luncheon meeting held at Bluefire LaMar House, Oine, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hayes.

Mr. Dudley spoke on "Faith of our Fathers." He stated that we assume that the founders of our nation were all orthodox Christians, when, in fact, many were Deists—believers in a system of faith that postulates a unitarian God, the rewards and punishments in the next world based on our deeds in this world, this belief being different from classic Christianity.

Mr. Dudley stated that this Deistic faith led them to write into our Constitution separation of Church and state, and freedom of worship, that wherever church and state are separated, people create a civic religion. He further states that our American civic religion comes complete with its own God—patriarchs, martyrs, temples and scriptures. Then he posed this question: Will this civic faith of America be enough to sustain us as we face our future, or do we need to return to the Christian God who has revealed himself in Jesus Christ?

The LaMar house was beautifully decorated with gourds, plants and hanging baskets of spring flowers. A red, white and blue motif was used throughout the house in keeping with the Bicentennial theme of the luncheon meeting. Some of the ladies were attired in dresses of the 18th century.

Seventeen members and eighteen guests were greeted by Mrs. Hayes, president.

Thanks for the bountiful meal was led by the Rev. Mr. Robert Warren, pastor of Zion and Jerusalem Methodist Churches.

During the luncheon Mrs. Panthea Twitty of Warrenton, President of Warren County Historical Association, urged each member to consider joining the Historical Association.

After the luncheon, the members gathered for a short business session. Several motions were passed: one, instructing the Library Committee to purchase an item or items for use in the new Norlina Library, which is now in the process of being developed; also a motion to draw a resolution of appreciation to be presented to the family of the late Mrs. Sterling Norman Hawks who was one of the first members of the club, and that a book be presented to the Norlina Library in her memory.

The next meeting of the club will be in September.

Mistress Ford and Mistress Page ponder the problem of concealing Sir John Falstaff in a laundry basket in order to teach a lesson to the romantic Sir John. This amusing scene is from the National Opera's production "The Merry Wives of Windsor," by Nicolai, which will be performed today [Thursday] at John R. Hawkins Junior High School and Friday at John Graham High School. Their appearances are a part of the enrichment program offered by the Warren County Schools and made possible by a grant from the North Carolina Arts Council.

Eastern Stars Meet At Shocco

The 26th annual session of District #7 Grand Order of Eastern Star of North Carolina met at Shocco Chapel Baptist Church on Route 2, Warrenton on May 15. Rose of Sharon Chapter #542 served as hostess. District Matron F. T. Arnold opened the meeting and presented the gavel to Deputy Esmarelda Hawkins who presided. The welcome was given by Matron Vera Williams of Rose of Sharon Chapter.

Highlights of the day were the brides contest won by Rosebud Chapter #29 of Rocky Mount. Proceeds from the contest are donated to a scholarship fund and other benevolences. The presentation of gifts from the chapters to the girls at Dobbs School in Kinston was given. District Patron A. C. Batchelor gave the address on "Traditions in Transition." He urged members of the O.E.S. "to be prepared to change with the times or to be consumed by change." He suggested five ways which will help people survive and continue to move forward: Live by the law of love. Owe no man anything but to love him as thyself; Persist in prayer for self and others; Hold on to early and established values; Support other's ego, help every man realize this worth; practice what you preach. Follow love, goodness, justice, mercy and kindness.

Delegates attended from Halifax, Hertford, Northampton, Edgecombe and Warren Counties with attendance banner won by Evening Star Chapter #583 of Pendleton.

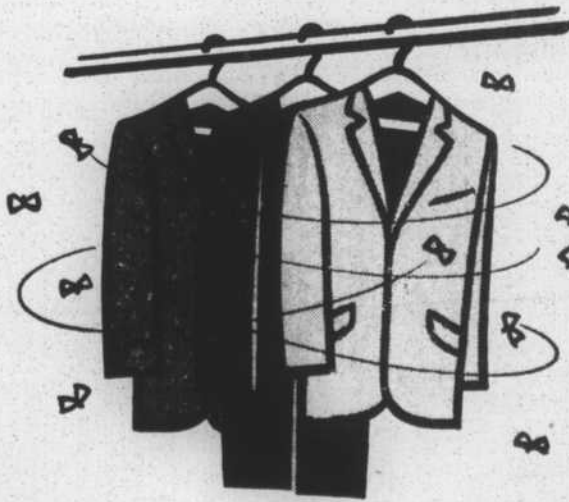

District Officers are A. C. Batchelor, Patron; Mrs. F. T. Arnold, Matron; Mrs. Elizabeth Wills, Associate Matron; Mrs. Ruth Brewer, Secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Flossie Bowser, Adah; Mrs. Jean Sharpe, Ruth;

Mrs. Barbara Edwards, Esther; Mrs. Estelle A. Smith, Martha; Mrs. Estelle D. Smith, Electa; Jack Brinkley, Warder.
