Arts Commission To Sponsor A Reception

The Warrenton Arts Commission will sponsor a reception for the March exhibit, "Warren County Collects," this Sunday, March 13, from 3 to 5 p. m. The reception will be held at the Warrenton Town Hall.

This unprecedented exhibit is composed of artwork from private collections in Warren County. Among artists exhibited are Lucy Allen Rodwell, Mary Tannahill, Eliza Polk, Vernon Rollins, Mrs. F. S. Paskard, and Margaret Parsley Moore. The exhibit holds sentimental value as well as museum quality collector's items.

Two special highlights of the exhibit are foreign artwork from China and Russia. Also of special interest is a delightful collection of mid-18th century calling cards and a mid-18th century valentine.

Most of the works in the exhibit are in the realistic style—that is real subject matter depicted in such a manner that it is easily recognized as a familiar object. Many of the artworks are also of value as artistic antiquity.

Warren County Collects will be on display at the Town Hall from March 13 through Friday, March 25. School, civic and other interested groups may visit the exhibit daily from 12 to 1:30 p. m. and 4 to 5:30 p. m.

WE KEEP CRAZY CRYSTALS AT ALL TIMES—70¢—$1.00

We are glad to report that Doc White is back in the store after an illness of several days.

Many of our farm friends were in town yesterday, apparently interested in parity checks or some other farm business.

We were distressed to learn of the sudden and serious illness of Mr. Al Williams. We're trusting that he will soon be back in our store with friends.

More than 30 years ago people were making Hunter's a favorite gathering place at just about any time of the day. We welcomed our friends then, and we welcome them now. Throughout the years quality and courtesy have been two reasons why Hunter's has become a name worth remembering.

The boys are beginning to talk politics more and more now. Come in for an earful or an eyeful.
