SAVORY-SEASONED—stuffing fills the holiday turkey with goodness.

The traditional holiday meal calls for family favorites: candied yams, giblet gravy, creamed onions, turnips with apple slices, whipped potatoes and the noble bird with a savory stuffing.

Now, there is no doubt that stuffing makes the bird. And herb-seasoned stuffing gets it off to a perfect start. Bread with flakes of herbs and spices already baked in gives this stuffing its flavor accent. Simply follow the package directions for adding melted butter and water. To give it a personal touch use the recipe below.

SAUSAGE-MUSHROOM STUFFING

- 1 (16 ounce) package Pepperidge Farm herb-seasoned stuffing
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 1 pound sausage meat
- 1/4 cup snipped parsley

Prepare stuffing according to package directions. In skillet melt butter, and saute celery and mushroom slices until tender. Remove from skillet and saute sausage meat, breaking into small pieces with fork, until brown and crisp. Add sausage, celery, mushrooms and parsley to stuffing. Toss together lightly. Stuff turkey. Fills a 16 to 20 pound turkey.

Waves Drop Game Wise Youngster Is Given Party

The Norlina Blue Waves, defending Tar River champs, gained as many hits as Parkview—nine—but fell short in scoring as they suffered a season opening defeat by a score of 10-5.

Norlina, which captured the conference baseball crown last season, wasn't in championship form Monday afternoon as Parkview rocked Tim Hawks for seven runs in the first and second innings while Norlina was scoring once. Hawks was relieved of his pitching duties in the third inning when Coach Bob Price motioned for Craig Richardson to take the mound. Richardson's visit on the mound was short lived as Lee Stultz took over in the next inning.

The biggest inning for

Norlina was in the third when they scored three runs.

Stultz held the visiting Dragons scoreless for two innings but he was clipped for one run in the sixth and two in the seventh innings. He fanned one batter.

Craig Richardson batted 2-3, Chip Gums 1-1 and Morris Aycock 1-2, to lead the Blue Waves hitting attack.

Today (Thursday) the Blue Waves host Bluestone at 4 p. m. on the Norlina athletic field. The remainder of the schedule is as follows: Mar. 28, at Vance; Mar. 31, at Louisville; Apr. 4, Franklinton; Apr. 7, Bunn; Apr. 18, at Warrenton; Apr. 22, at Parkview; Apr. 25, Louisville; Apr. 28, at Franklinton; May 2, at Bunn; May 5, Warrenton; May 9, Vance High.
