MRS. MABEL T. FALKNER
Mrs. Mabel Thornton Falkner died March 28 in Philadelphia, Pa. Formerly of Warrenton, she had lived in Philadelphia with her daughters since retiring. She taught school for many years in Warren County and was also an excellent seamstress.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Smith and Celestine F. McClaskey of Philadelphia; two sisters, Mrs. Vera T. Williams and Mrs. Flossie T. Tonic, both of Montclair, N. J.; two brothers, W. Melrose Thornton of Dayton, Ohio and Burnis H. Thornton of Durham and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Warrenton Baptist Church on Saturday at 2 p. m. with burial in the Warrenton Cemetery. Her nephew, Wadsworth Thornton, undertaker in Norfolk, Va., is in charge of arrangements. The family will meet friends at Harris-Turner Funeral Home on Friday night from 7 to 9 p. m.

MRS. MAGGIE RODWELL
Mrs. Maggie Alston Rodwell, 67, a resident of 509 W. Franklin Street in Warrenton, died Sunday in Duke Medical Center where she had been a patient following a lengthy illness.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ned Will and Hannah Allen Alston and the wife of the late James Rodwell.

Mrs. Rodwell is survived by one nephew, Alphonza Jones of Newark, N. J.; and one aunt, Mrs. Jessie Baskett of Warren County.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Greenwood Baptist Church in Warren County, with Rev. C. L. Faison in charge of the services. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

MRS. DIANE DAVIS
Funeral services for Mrs. Diane Davis, 35, were conducted at 3 p. m. Sunday from Young Memorial Holiness Church by the Rev. J. J. Pickard. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Davis, whose husband, Glentin Davis, resided at Warrenton, died at Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson on Wednesday of last week. She was the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Wilkins and the late Jessie L. Wilkins of Henderson.

Survivors in addition to her husband and her mother included four daughters, Mrs. Carolyn J. Perry, Miss Theresa Wilkins, Miss Marion Wilkins and Miss Pamela Wilkins, all of Henderson; three sons, Milton Wilkins, Clarence Wilkins and Carlton Wilkins, all of the home; three grandchildren, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Estelle Turner, also of Henderson.

Active pallbearers were Johnny Boone, Lero Williamson, Jimmy Wimbush, Albert Hart, Mark Taylor and James Richardson.

LEWIS E. ANDREOLI
WASHINGTON, N. C.—Funeral services for Lewis E. Andreoli, 67, a retired construction worker, who died Friday, were conducted at 2 p. m., Monday, from Chocowinity Baptist Church. Burial was in Oakdale Cemetery.

Mr. Andreoli is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dorothy E. Andreoli; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Ryder of Fayetteville, Mrs. Mary Goguen of Dothan, Ala., and Mrs. Faye Massengill of Colorado Springs, Colo.; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jo. Marie Lynch of Norlina and Mrs. Lola Fornes of New Bern; four brothers, Alfonso of Pine-town, Dominic, Jr., of Newport News, Va., Ettore and Geno Andreoli of Washington, N. C.; and 13 grandchildren.

JESSE A. HARRIS
Jesse Alfred Harris, 76, of Route 1, Norlina, died at his home Saturday morning following a lengthy illness.

A Warren County native, he was the son of the late John Harris and Mrs. Rosa Evans Harris and was born June 21, 1900. He was a retired chauffeur for the president of the Export Leaf Tobacco Company.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Snow Hill Baptist Church by the Rev. E. L. Brodie assisted by the Rev. J. B. Wilson. Burial with Masonic Lodge ceremony was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edna W. Harris, and son, Daniel Jackson, both of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Ella L. Denkins of Long Island, N. Y., Mrs. Susie Indiancorn and Miss Julia Harris, both of Warrenton, and one brother, Anthony Harris of New York City.

Cards Of Thanks

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends, neighbors and relatives for cards, flowers, phone calls, prayers, mailgrams, food, money and all acts of kindness extended to us during the tragic death of our son and brother, the late William Ervin Faulcon.

Special thanks to Mrs. Mabel Branche, Mrs. Mary Green, Mrs. Rosa Bell Robinson, the Rev. W. H. Burgess, Harris-Turner Funeral Home, the church choir, and my dear nurses, Miss Mattie Arrington, and Mrs. Joyce Hawkins for the wonderful work they rendered. May God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. Plummer E. Faulcon and children, Elenora, Plummer, Jr., James, Clinton, Charles, Gene, Kenneth, Larry and Cheryl.

The family of Wright Bolton expresses a special thank you to our many relatives and friends from Henderson and Warren County who have remembered him with prayers, visits, telephone calls and many nice cards during his long stay in Henderson and Duke Hospitals and since his return home. Thank you for the joy and comfort it brought to us. He is back home with us and doing well.

God bless each of you.
THELMA BOLTON,
HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

The family of the late Jacob T. Harris of New York City wishes to express their deepest appreciation to their many neighbors and friends for their cards, letters, monies, flowers, food and telegrams.

A special thanks to Mrs. Ann H. Polk Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Mitchell and Mrs. Frank Gibbs and son. A very special thanks to Mr. Alfred J. Ellington.

Many thanks to the Rev. Burnett, the Rev. Alex Brown and to the Harris-Turner Funeral Home. Many thanks to the Oak Chapel A.M.E. Church and pastor and all their members. And a special thanks to the Rev. Yarborough of the Warrenton Baptist Church. May God bless and keep you

Geographic Briefs

South America has the world's driest desert (Chile's Atacama Desert), longest mountain range (Andes) and the largest jungle (Amazonia), the National Geographic Society says.

Ancient Egyptians believed that the dead couldn't survive in the spirit world unless their bodies were well preserved, National Geographic World says. It took about 70 days to prepare a body for burial as a mummy.

Separating Stamps

When you find your postage stamps stuck together, place a piece of paper over them and press with a hot iron. The stamps should then come apart.
