Senior Social Club Meets At Church

By BARBARA COOKE
St. Paul's Lutheran Church was the setting for the April meeting of the Senior Social Club of Norlina. Mrs. Joyce Mabry, club president, gave the opening devotional. Sixty-eight members and guests were present. As the band played "The Battle Hymn of the Aging," all sang it.

Anne Creech, Supervisor of the Office of Aging Affairs for the Vance-Granville Community College, Mary Evans, Outreach Worker for Warren County and Margaret Tobin, Vance County Outreach Worker, presented a slide program, enumerating benefits for senior adults. Pamphlets and "The Link Letter" were distributed. Invitation was reiterated to Pinecrest Nursing Home on Wednesday, May 10, Senior Citizen Day. The Norlina Senior Social Club Rhythm Band and "Guys and Gals" will be featured in the program for the day.

They will also perform at Foxes' Crossing on June 25 at an outing and craft show. They plan to present a program in Durham for the "Walk and Talk Club," a club of retired men, upon invitation of the Rev. Millard Warren. All these days and times and practice sessions were discussed and planned.

Slides were then shown of the Halloween Parade and of the trip to Washington's birthplace, Wakefield, and Robert E. Lee's birthplace, Stratford Hall.

The schedule and agenda of the tour to Washington, D. C., for May 19-20 were outlined. Forty-three passengers are scheduled to tour the Capital, the White House, and to visit Kennedy's Grave and Lincoln's Memorial, and to meet Senator Jesse Helms and Senator Robert Morgan. They will stay in the Howard Johnson's Motel, opposite the Washington National Airport.

The most exciting auction of brown bags containing mystery "White Elephant" gifts was held. Bids were hot and heavy, and delight arose when the bidders discovered the surprise they had bid to have. A black China panther went for fifty cents, and a delicate fragrant Avon perfume went for thirty cents, while a roll of toilet paper brought in sixty-five cents. The auction was a success, supplementing the club's treasury in a fine way and "giving competitive pleasure to senior adults."

Delicious cakes and refreshments with drinks were served by the Lutheran ladies.
