Warrenton was largely represented at the Lombardo dance in Oxford, as one might have thought on Thursday from the number of heavy eyelids about town.

More than 30 years ago people were making Hunter's a favorite gathering place at just about any time of the day. We welcomed our friends then, and we welcome them now. Throughout the years quality and courtesy have been two reasons why Hunter's has become a name worth remembering.

It's getting to be beach time now. Let us supply your needs.

MRS. WADE KENT RUSSELL

Miss Moseley Weds Wade Kent Russell

Miss Jane Speed Moseley and Wade Kent Russell pledged their vows in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, May 7, at four o'clock in the afternoon in Fairmont United Methodist Church in Raleigh. The Reverend Rufus H. Stark, II, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Speed Moseley of Goldsboro, and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Moseley of Warrenton. Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Russell of Albemarle are parents of the groom.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. William Baitinger, organist. Charles Moseley, guitarist, brother of the bride, sang and played "Wedding Song" (There Is Love) by Paul Stookey.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk quiana with a Victorian neckline and yoke of Brussels and Venice lace, embroidered with seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves carried the same lace and pearls motif, tapering into a point over the hands. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion attached to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls. Her bouquet was of gardenias and Stephanotis.

Miss Patricia Ann Baggott of Rockledge, Fla., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Russell of Charlotte, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Charles Moseley of Fremont, sister-in-law of the bride.

Wade H. Russell was his son's best man. Ushers were Charles Moseley of Fremont, brother of the bride; Joseph F. Russell, Jr., of Raleigh, cousin of the groom; Kenneth A. Laton, of Windsor, and Joseph L. Shaw of Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Wilton C. Hollowell of Goldsboro, directed the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Goldsboro High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is presently employed as a teacher at Swift Creek Elementary School in Raleigh.

The groom is a graduate of Albemarle High School and North Carolina State University. He is employed as an engineer with Carolina Power and Light Company.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside at 3256 Lewis Farm Road in Raleigh.

Reception
 Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus S. Moseley entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Guests were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Cook and directed to the fellowship hall.

Ms. Susan Hunt presided at the guest register. Friends of the couple in the Cook Sunday School Class of the church, served as hostesses in the reception area.

Mrs. Arnold Carlson, Mrs. Roland Hales, and Mrs. John Medlin cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Philip Green, Mrs. Joe Bostic, Mrs. Fred Stepe and Miss Julia Lisk presided at the punch bowls. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. James, Jr.
