Miss Tammy Carroll Is Bride Of Mr. Clark

Miss Tammy Annette Carroll of Roanoke Rapids became the bride of Robert Scales Clark, III, of Littleton in a double-ring ceremony in the United Methodist Church in Littleton on May 1 at two o'clock. The Rev. John Neal Salter, Jr., officiated.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. H. E. Dickerson. Mrs. Christine Murphy, soloist, sang, "If" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The candlelight service was performed before an arrangement of white azaleas placed on the communion table with palm arrangements on both sides. An arched 15-prong candelabra with white burning tapers enhanced the setting. Pews were marked with bows and wedding bells and the windows were adorned with hurricane lamps.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Charlie King of Roanoke Rapids, the bride wore a formal gown of white eyelet, featuring a V-neckline, fitted bodice with long sleeves that ended with soft ruffles around the neck and wrists. She wore a single string of pearls. Her shoulder-length veil was edged with lace and seeded pearls was attached to a circle head piece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies, pompons, gypsophelia and greenery.

Mrs. Marinda Earp checks the blood pressure of Mrs. Peggy Rivers at the Warren County Health Department during a campaign to increase the number of people having blood pressure checks during High Blood Pressure Month.

More County Residents Having Pressure Checks

The first week of an intensive educational campaign as part of May as High Blood Pressure Month resulted in an increase in the number of people having blood pressure checks at the Warren County Health Department.

"The number of people at our clinic indicates an increased public awareness of the dangers of high blood pressure," says Mrs. Doris Dryden, head nurse at the department. She adds that effort is still needed to reach undetected cases of high blood pressure in the county.

High blood pressure has no symptoms but can do great damage to the body if left untreated. Each person should have a blood pressure check at least once a year. The Warren County Health Department offers free blood pressure checks every Tuesday from 8:30 to 4:30.

As part of High Blood Pressure Month the department is also making a film
