Senior Social Club Holds Meeting At Methodist Church

The Norlina Senior Social Club met Thursday at the Norlina United Methodist Church. Fifty-seven members and guests were present. After a few brief remarks, Mrs. Joyce Mabry, club president, introduced the Rev. Jim Hebel of the Zion-Jerusalem Church. The Rev. Mr. Hebel gave a devotional on "Parental love that can't be repaid; but can be passed on."

A brief business session included the recognition of the birthday celebrants, the reading of letters of appreciation to Senators Jesse Helms and Robert Morgan, the discussion of future trips, and the plans for the next meeting, which will be Thursday, June 23, at Gardner's Baptist Church at 12 p. m. This meeting will be a covered dish lunch.

The program began with a concert by the Club Band, the same concert they presented at Senior Citizen's Day in Henderson, at the National Guard Armory, on Wednesday, May 25, to an audience of nearly 500. A slide presentation of the Norlina Senior Citizen's trip to Norfolk's Garden-By-The-Sea, the Willoughby-Baylor, and Moses Myers' homes, and Douglas MacArthur's Memorial were shown. It was followed by a slide tour of Washington, D. C., including slide and motion picture film of the Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale Inauguration on January 20, 1977.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Norlina United Methodist Church. Mrs. Ellen Moseley was given a rose, a token gift for her hours of work to fill the bus for the Washington, D. C. trip.

people on the mission field was led by Mrs. Fred Newsome as the benediction.

Warren Plaza News

By CHUCK SIMMONS
A troop of residents and a trip to Pleasant Hill Rest Home in Roanoke Rapids began the week for the residents of Warren Plaza Rest Home. They visited friends and spent the afternoon watching movies.

The lawn work has continued at Warren Plaza, with good participation from some interested and hard-working male residents, Alfonza Bunn, Hugh Phillips, Rudolph Lamm and Oscar Harris.

Warren Plaza would like to welcome Mrs. Lois G. Journigan to the Rest Home. The residents and employees will miss and kindly remember Eugene W. Perry of Edenton.

Friday night at the movies was an unusual one. An old classic silent movie, "Foolish Wives," was shown. The movie was a treat for many of the older residents who remember the silent movies.

The residents of Warren Plaza always look forward to the visits they have from their families and friends in the community and churches. If you have missed lately, come see us!
