Coming Events Announced For Senior Citizens Club

by REV. G. ELTON COOKE
The Rev. G. Elton Cooke, spokesman for the Norlina Senior Social Club, announces the coming events of the club and its band.

On Thursday, June 23, at Gardner's Baptist Church they will have their monthly meeting at 12 noon. This is a covered dish dinner. The ladies of the Gardner's Baptist Church will present a surprise program, followed by the Norlina S.C.C. Band's rendition of "This Ole House."

Friday night, June 24, at Wise, by invitation of the Wise Ruritan Club, the Norlina S.C.C. Band will be one of 10 bands, competing in a program of music. The band has practiced every Monday, preparing for this performance.

On Wednesday, July 13, they will perform twice. At 10 a. m. they will present a 45 minute take-off on Hee-Haw, and a few extra skits, for the Durham Walk and Talk Club, a retired business men's club. The Rev. Millard Warren offered this invitation. At 1 p. m. at the Durham United Methodist Home, the same program will be presented for the residents of the home.

The band has had to say "No" to several other invitations, which complicated them, but were engagements they could not fit into their already busy social schedules.

The once popular song of years ago describes the Norlina S.C.C. Band well, "We've got rhythm, who can ask for anything more."

Illinois has 600 weekly newspapers and 83 dailies.

These hours are scheduled to provide the library services during the coolest hours of the day.

"We hope these times will be convenient for the public and that folks will come by the library," commented Mrs. Pullen.
