Fleming-Stallings

Reunion Held

Fellowship, food and fun were enjoyed by 110 family members attending the Fleming-Stallings reunion held July 31 at the Colonial Heights (Va.) Community Building.

Descendants of Mrs. Myrtle Fleming of Norlina and the late Sol B. Fleming came from Waynesville, Cary, Henderson, Warrenton and Norlina to join their Virginia kin from Fairfax, Richmond, Chester, Petersburg, Prince George, Hopewell and Colonial Heights. Other relatives from Fayetteville and Columbia, S. C. were in attendance.

Family pictures were taken and a program of music, singing and awards were enjoyed. The blessing was given by Wallace Stallings of Norlina.

The reunion ended with a short business meeting and plans were made for next year's reunion when Mrs. Myrtle Stallings Fleming, her 16 children, 52 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren hope to reunite.

AA Circle Meets At Wilson Home

The Annie Armstrong Circle Number Two of Wise Baptist Church met August 2 in the home of Mrs. Mildred Wilson with Mrs. Robert Rogers presiding.

Mrs. Louise White led in the opening prayer and Mrs. Lois Hawks was in charge of the program and closed with a prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served to the 19 members present.

The September meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Collier.

Rooker Family Holds Reunion

Descendants of Henry Foote Rooker and Alice Edwards Rooker held their fourth annual family reunion Sunday at the Norlina Woman's Club House.

Nine of the couple's ten children were able to attend. They were William H. Rooker of Monroe, Bessie Rooker Hicks of Norlina, Tommy Rooker of Norlina, Annie Rooker Tilghman of Snow Hill, Clifton Rooker of Norlina, Randolph Rooker of Durham, John Edward Rooker of Norlina, Foote Rooker of Norlina and Gladys Rooker Phillips of Southampton, Mass. Ruth Rooker Johnson of Show Low, Arizona was unable to attend.

Homemade Brunswick stew, a covered dish lunch and good fellowship were enjoyed by 105 members of the family. The blessing was given by William H. Rooker.

Family pictures were taken of all nine families and a prize was awarded to John Edward Rooker for having the largest family—three children and seven grandchildren.

Four generations were represented at the reunion, and gag gifts were presented to each of the nine children. A plastic airplane was given to Gladys Phillips for her trip back to Massachusetts.

Art work and crafts made by many family members were displayed. Helen Rooker made a cake representing the house in which all ten children were reared.

Softball Team Wins All Its Games

The Norlina ladies softball church team, sponsored by Zion-Jerusalem churches, has just concluded an undefeated season in its third year of competition.

Next on the agenda for the club is an all-star game scheduled August 27 at the Middleburg School. Game-time is 3 p. m. when the club will face a team composed of league all-stars.

During its initial year of play, the team was coached by Clint Heze, Norlina High School principal, winning second place in the Cullom Baptist Association Softball League. The following year, under the management of Hubie Stegall, the club took first place.

This year's squad is coached by Jim Hebel, pastor of the Zion-Jerusalem Church; Arthur Holt King and Wayne Paynter.

Members of the team and their husbands were honored by Ben Lloyd of Norlina at a cookout at Palmer Point on Saturday. Coaches will have a pig picking at the home of Arthur Holt King on September 3 for team members and their families.

Members of the squad include Maurine King, Nancy Paynter, Emily Perkinson, Debbie Parham, Teresa Wimbrow, Peggy Newell, Donna Paynter, Mary Lou Lewis, Ellen Stegall, Melba Barker, Debbie Tarleton and Phyllis Newsom.

Mrs. Holtzman Honored As 4-H Club Leader

Mrs. Chris Holtzman of Ridgeway has been honored as one of North Carolina's outstanding volunteer 4-H leaders for 1977.

She was one of 14 persons from across the state who were presented plaques at a special luncheon during the 1977 North Carolina 4-H Congress in Raleigh.

Making the presentation was Dr. George Hyatt, Jr., director of the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Hyatt told the audience that 12,000 volunteer leaders were working with extension agents in conducting the 4-H program in North Carolina.

MRS. HOLTZMAN

MRS. ERNEST S. HOLTZWORTH

Miss Egerton And Mr. Holzworth Wed

Miss Barbara Cameron Egerton and Ernest S. Holzworth were united in marriage on Sunday, Aug. 7, at four o'clock in the Littleton Methodist Church. The Rev. Clarence R. Breedin, Jr., officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Egerton, Jr., of Littleton and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Holzworth of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Vows were spoken before an altar on which an open Bible was used. Cathedral tapers were used in spiral candelabrum tied with green and white daisies.

Mrs. Marvin Newsom, organist, played traditional wedding selections and four chimes prior to the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of organza trimmed in Venice lace. She wore a full-length veil of Belgium lace and carried a clutch bouquet of daisies centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Robert M. Rogers, of Pisgah Forest, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pam Broughton of Durham, Miss Wanda Gray of Warrenton, Mrs. Ann Phyllis of Havelock and Mrs. Betsy Holzworth of Pittsburgh, roommate of the bride through college and the bride's sister-in-law.

Richard K. Holzworth, of Pittsburgh, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Gregg Lewandowski of Greenville, Dimi-tro Kulik of Pittsburgh and Chris and Jon Holzworth of Pittsburgh, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. N. A. Hobbs of Athens, Ga., maternal grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Clinton Egerton of Norlina, her paternal grandmother, were both present for the wedding.

Reception Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the yard of their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newsom introduced the guests to the receiving line and Mrs. Fred Owen presided at the guest register.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pope said the goodbyes to the 150 guests present.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. George Harland Alston and Mrs. C. W. Egerton, III.

Lakeside Dinner A lakeside dinner honoring Barbara Egerton and Ernest Holzworth was given for the out-of-town guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Newsom. Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Alston, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Browning, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marvin Newsom and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newsom.

Luncheon The bridesmaids luncheon was given by Mrs. F. L. Owen, Jr., and Mrs. H. A. Guidry.

Brunch A brunch for the out-of-town guests was given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack May of Raleigh, aunt and uncle of the bride, at the home of Mrs. Andrew J. May in Littleton.

Rehearsal Dinner Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holzworth, parents of the groom, entertained at a rehearsal dinner in the Rib Room at the Howard Johnson Motor Inn in Roanoke Rapids. The menu included steak, lobster and champagne.
