Oine 4-H Club Conducts Meet

By JOANNA HARRISON

The Oine 4-H Club held its monthly meeting August 30, at the Oine Community Center. Arvella Downey presided over the meeting. The devotion, Pledge of Allegience, prayer, and song was led by Mary Harrison.

A report was given by Percel Harrison, Jr., on his trip to camp. A member of the Oine Specialist reported on their trip to the district meeting and N. C. 4-H Congress and how much they enjoyed it. The 4-H'ers also took a trip to King's Dominion that everyone enjoyed.

Members discussed in detail their project books. They were also reminded by their leaders to continue their beautification project.

Gambling Charges Heard Against 5

Five defendants appeared of B & H Discount and pay in a mixed session of Court on Friday to answer charges of gambling. Judge Charles W. Wilkinson of Oxford presided over the session.

Bobby Gene Alexander, John Edward Davis, Robert Branch, Moses Levister and William Shaw each entered pleas of not guilty. All were found guilty of gambling and given a jail sentence of 60 days, suspended for one year on the condition that they not be found guilty of gambling during the suspended period and pay fines of $35 and court costs.

The court also ruled that the money confiscated at the time of the arrests be turned over to the Sheriff for the Law Enforcement Officer's Undercover Fund except for $100 which was to be turned over to Moses Levister. Alexander, Davis and Branch gave notices of appeal to the next criminal session of Superior Court and later dropped the appeal, wishing to comply with the judgment.

Moses Levister appealed his case to the Superior Court with bond to remain in effect

William Shaw's attorney was granted a motion to dismiss a case of escape and the case was dismissed.

Mary Alston of Warren County was granted volun- County, no operator's lictary dismissal for using profane language.
