Marriage Licenses

Gustavo Olivas Basurto, 23, Mexican, of Tuscon, Arizona, to Eula Annie Lynch, 21, Indian, of Hollister.

Burnette Anistead, 26, black, of Nashville to Patricia Ann Coley, 16, black, of Enfield.

John Crandall Wilson, 25, white, of Manson, to Jeanne Holt Knight, 25, white, of Norlina.

George Anderson Jones, 29, black, of Henderson, to Pattie Mae Royster, 25, black, of Rt. 2, Norlina.

Youngest of the three drug arrests was Lionel Boone, 19, son of Charles Boone escorted above to the county jail by a deputy sheriff.

Defendants Get Hearing

The men appeared in Warren County District Court on Friday for a hearing required by law to be held within 96 hours of their arrests. Each man was charged with felonious possession of a controlled substance with intent to sell and with manufacturing a controlled substance.

Judge Charles W. Wilkinson of Oxford set a preliminary hearing for Nov. 18. He then allowed bonds to be reduced to $7,000 for the elder Boone men and to $1,000 for Lionel Boone.

In Memoriam

In memory of Hilliard Bullock who passed Nov. 10th, 1975.

Daddy you left us but you didn't go alone The same one who took our mother home Took you to be with Him above Where there's only peace and joy and love.

We hope someday again we'll meet And all of our bitters will turn to sweet We will hold onto the Fathers hand Until we reach the promised land.

Friday Is State Holiday

Friday has been proclaimed Veterans Day in North Carolina and it is an official state holiday.

But the federal government observed Veterans Day on Oct. 24.

This may confuse people in Warren County about exactly when Veterans Day is, but according to state officials, the confusion will subside in 1978.

Next year there will be but one official day nationwide to observe as Veterans Day, Nov. 11. According to Charles Beddingfield, assistant secretary for Veterans Affairs, that date was traditionally recognized as Veterans Day until several years ago when the federal government changed most holidays to Mondays to give federal employees three-day breaks.

Veterans' organizations expressed much discontent over the change and individual states began to change their observance back to the traditional date. The North Carolina General Assembly changed it back to the Nov. 11 date in 1975. This year, all states except the District of Columbia, Mississippi and South Dakota will salute veterans on Nov. 11.

Veterans Day commemorates the signing of the Armistice, which ended the fighting of World War I, at 11 a. m. Nov. 11, 1918. The special day has become a time for all veterans to be honored.

Veterans organizations including the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, AMVETS, and disabled American Veterans, usually join together in local communities to observe Veterans Day.
