

Warrenton Girl

Has Graduated

GREENSBORO — Mary T. White of Warrenton was among 391 persons who completed their degree requirements during the first semester at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The students are being invited back to the campus May 15-16 to participate in UNC-G's 90th annual commencement exercises.

Among the first semester graduates were 148 who completed graduate degrees. These included 129 at the master's degree level, 17 who finished their doctorates, and two students who completed the specialist in education degree.

Miss White, an art major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. White, III, of Warrenton. She completed requirements for a bachelor of fine arts degree, cum laude.

Celebrates Birthday

Mike Carter and son, Chris, of Rocky Mount spent the weekend with Mrs. Ada Carter and family. Chris celebrated his first birthday on January 21 at his residence. Those attending were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Carter, Mrs. Ada Carter, Nancy Carter, Dennis Paschall, and Mrs. Frances Bobbitt and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Francis Burrows of Warrenton announce the engagement of their daughter, Laura Melissa, to James Judson Kearney, III, of Littleton. An April 10 wedding is planned.

Month Was Frigid One

Five days in January saw the temperature drop to 10 degrees or below, according to Clarence Skillman, Cooperative Observer with the U. S. Weather Service in Arcola. The lowest temperature of the month was six degrees on January 11, and the temperature was 32 degrees or below on 28 days during the month.

Snow fell on three days during the month, and the greatest rainfall during a 24-hour period was 1.11 inches on January 15.

The total rainfall from July 1981 to January 1982 was 23.88 inches, compared to 17.02 inches from July 1980 to January 1981.

The temperature high of the month was 67 degrees on January 8.

Visit Mother

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Baskervill of South Hill, Va., visited Mrs. W. R. Baskervill here on Sunday.

Set Limit

If you're dieting, set a limit on how much you will eat before going to a party—and stick to the limit.

Macon Woman's

Club Gathers

The Macon Women's club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Glenn Riggan with Mrs. C. E. Thompson as co-hostess.

Mrs. G. W. King, president, presided. Mrs. Cooper Leonard gave an interesting devotion. There was a short business session at which time Mrs. Al Fleming gave each member a list of things she could do to help in making the schools of Warren County more efficient. Each member selected something to do in February, March, and April.

Following the business session, Howard Daniel showed pictures of his and Mrs. Daniel's trip to the Holy Land. Mrs. Daniel gave interesting descriptions of all the places shown.

Many beautiful articles and arts and crafts were exhibited and many won blue ribbons. Mrs. Mary Davis and Mrs. Howard Daniel served as judges. Following this, the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

The club adjourned to meet in March with Mrs. H. M. Fuller and Mrs. Alton Grissom.

Missionary Body

Meets Last Week

On Tuesday, January 26, the Olga Hood Missionary Circle met in the home of Miss Gwen Allen. Fifteen members were present.

New business discussed included the project of providing needed supplies for the emergency child center in Henderson. Members agreed to bring the items of their preference to help the children and staff members of the center.

A program entitled, "Are Have-Nots My Responsibility?" was presented jointly by members of the circle.

Scripture passages were studied for Bible facts. Old Testament and New Testament passages were compared on the topic of Christian responsibility.

Following the program, members presented baby gifts to Debbie Kinton.

Hostesses were Pat Schuster, Martha Overby, Carolyn Dickerson, Brenda Hawks, Gwen Allen and Harriett Faulkner. They served refreshments which were enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be in the home of Carolyn Dickerson with Gwen Allen presenting the program.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cable of Greenville announce the birth of a daughter, Morgan Michelle, on January 19 at Pitt County Hospital in Greenville. Mrs. Cable is the former Miss Annie Craft, daughter of Mrs. Mary R. Craft of Norlina and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rooker of Norlina.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

Chicken-Shrimp Supreme
 ¼ cup (½ stick) butter
 8 oz. sliced fresh mushrooms
 2 tbsps. sliced green onion
 2 cans (10½-oz. ea.) condensed cream of chicken soup
 ½ cup sherry
 ½ cup light cream OR half and half
 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
 2 cups cut-up cooked chicken
 2 cups cooked shrimp
 2 tbsps. chopped parsley
 Hot buttered rice

Melt butter in a 3-quart saucepan; add mushrooms and onion. Sauté 5 min. Remove from heat. Add soup; gradually stir in sherry and light cream. Add cheese and heat over low heat, stirring occasionally, until cheese is melted. Add chicken and shrimp; heat to serving temperature. (Do not boil.) Just before serving, stir in parsley. Serve over rice. Serves 8.

Bullet

Willingness of the American consumer to bite the bullet may determine how well he survives the 1980s, says a business expert.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Raymond Abbott, Jr., of Henderson announce the engagement of their daughter, Sherry Kay, to Phillip Mayes Parham, son of Mrs. Sarah E. Parham of Littleton and the late Noland D. Parham. The couple plans to be married May 29 at Harriett Baptist Church in Henderson.

Senior Social Club Meets

The Norlina Senior Citizens Social Club had its monthly meeting last Thursday at the Norlina Methodist Church. Over 50 members were present.

The president called the meeting to order. Mrs. Studie Clark gave the devotion. The group sang several hymns, then the minutes were read and business conducted.

Mrs. Ann Mitchell from Henderson was introduced to the group. She and Mrs. Hazel Norwood informed everyone of some interesting trips available this year. After their presentation, the white elephant sale began.

Some very unusual items were auctioned, and afterwards delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at Warrenton Baptist Church at 2 p.m. on Thursday, February 25.

The club's band will meet with its director on February 9 at 2 p.m. at the Norlina Methodist Church.

Firemen Report Calls

At 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 27, the Norlina Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call at the residence of Donald Sledge on Kearney Street in Norlina. Upon arrival, the firemen found that the fire had been extinguished.

Twelve men and one truck responded to the call. At 3:05 p.m. on Monday, February 1, the department was called to assist the Drewry Fire Department at a house fire at the residence of Mrs. Ed White of Drewry. The fire was contained in the kitchen and the attic area above the kitchen. The cause was not listed. Smoke damage was heavy to contents throughout the house.

Twelve men and three trucks responded from the Norlina Department, and they utilized the air cascade system by filling breathing apparatus at the scene.

The Vance County Fire Department also answered the call.

Tall, Tall Trees!

The lush Olympic rain forest of northwestern Washington supports a large variety of trees, including conifers that average 200 feet tall. Nowhere else do more species of trees grow to such extreme heights.
