Club Wins Award

Mrs. Anna Thompson and Mrs. Mammie King of the Macon Woman's Club attended the May 5 session of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs in Winston-Salem. They also attended the awards luncheon where the Macon Woman's Club was presented an award for outstanding work done in the Gerontology Division of the Home Life Department of which Mrs. Arnie Belle Fuller is chairman.

Under Mrs. Fuller's able leadership, the club contributed greatly to the pleasure and well-being of the residents of various rest homes, convalescents, and shut-ins, both locally and in the surrounding area.

Final Vaccination Day Is Scheduled

Saturday, May 22, is the last day for dog vaccination in Warren County, according to Frank Twitty, dog warden.

Vaccinations will be given for $4 per dog from 1 to 5 p. m. at the Warren County Landfill on Baltimore Road.

Twitty stressed the importance of the vaccination for rabies, and said that shots for distemper, hepatitis, and worms will also be available.

Vaccinations will be done by Dr. George Davis, III, a veterinarian.

For further information, call Twitty at 257-2711.

Funeral services for Lawrence "Larry" Cooper, 42, of Norlina were conducted Monday at 4 p. m. from the Macon United Methodist Church by the Rev. Martin Armstrong. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery at Macon.
