This fool-proof recipe from Fleischmann's Yeast Test Kitchen will produce fresh, moist rolls for a delightful and hearty sandwich.

ITALIAN BREAD

Makes 2 loaves or 6 hero rolls

- 5 to 5 1/2 cups unsifted flour
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 packages Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
- 1 tablespoon Fleischmann's Margarine, softened
- 1 3/4 cups very hot tap water (120°F. to 130°F.)
- Cornmeal
- Planters Peanut Oil
- 1 egg white
- 1 tablespoon cold water

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1 1/2 cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved yeast. Add softened margarine. Gradually add hot tap water to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add 3/4 cup flour and beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Cover; let rest for 20 minutes.

To make loaves: Divide dough in half. Roll each half into an oblong 15 x 10 inches. Beginning at wide side, roll up tightly; pinch seam to seal. Taper ends by rolling gently back and forth.

To make rolls: Divide dough into 6 equal pieces. Roll each piece into an oblong, 8 x 5 inches. Beginning at wide side, roll up tightly; pinch seam to seal. Taper ends.

Place on greased baking sheets sprinkled with cornmeal. Brush dough with peanut oil. Cover loosely with wax paper, then top with plastic wrap. Refrigerate 2 to 4 hours.

When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Uncover dough carefully. Let stand at room temperature 10 minutes. Make 3 or 4 diagonal cuts on tops with razor blade or sharp knife.

Bake at 425°F. 15 minutes for rolls, 20 minutes for loaves. Remove from oven and brush with egg white mixed with cold water. Return to oven; bake 5 to 10 minutes longer, until golden brown.
