

Miss Calvert, Mr. Coley Wed

Miss Melanie Anne Calvert and Elwood Brogden Coley, Jr. were united in marriage in St. James Episcopal Church in Greenville, Tenn. on July 17 at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Calvert, Jr. of Greenville. She graduated from high school at St. Mary's College in Raleigh and received her bachelor of science degree in nursing from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority, Society of Hellenas, and Sisters of Minerva. She was presented at the Dogwood Ball in the spring of 1977. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. A. D. Harris of Lumberton, formerly of Warrenton.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Elwood Brogden Coley of Lumberton. He is a graduate of Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Va. and received a bachelor of arts degree in economics from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Order of the Gimgihoul. He is now associated with Trammel Crow Company in Orlando, Fla.

The Rev. C. Christopher Clements officiated over the ceremony. The acolyte was Warren L. Snead, Jr.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. R. S. Cowles, organist, Mrs. Robert King, soloist, and Judith Starr, violinist.

The church was decorated with seven-branch standing candelabra encircled with asparagus fern, with ferns at the base of each candelabra. The altar vases were filled with white roses, fugi mums, stock, button pompons, snapdragons, daisy pompons, gypsophila, and long stems of eucalyptus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin and Brussels lace. The gown was designed with a deep "V" neckline in the back and the front, accented with a bertha of Brussels lace. The long, fitted sleeves ended in calla points over the wrists. The voluminous skirt extended into a cathedral train.

The bridal veil of Brussels lace fell from a matching lace cloche. The cathedral-length veil incorporated wedding veils worn by both the bride's mother and paternal grandmother. She wore an heirloom pearl and diamond necklace belonging to her paternal great-great-grandmother.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Theodore Bratton of Raleigh, and as maid of honor, Jaynie Milligan of New York City. Bridesmaids were Sara and Martha Calvert, cousins of the bride, of Houston, Texas, Carter Agnor of Richmond, Va., Betsy Coley, sister of the groom, of Lumberton, Mrs. James Holladay of Concord, and Amie Serrel of Dallas, Texas.

Darlington Lawter Easterly was the flower girl.

John Wylie Capito was the ring bearer.

The groom's best man was Dr. Elwood B. Coley. Ushers were Sam J. Calvert, III and Gray R. Calvert, brothers of the bride, John Cohen, Frank Dowd and Ingram Hedgepeth, Jr. of Charlotte, James Holladay of Concord, Mark Hennessy of Atlanta, Ga., John Townsend of New York City, Bill Peebles of Lynchburg, Va., Mitch Kupchak of Los Angeles, Calif., Bill Wilson of Elizabeth City and George K. Roper of Chicago, Ill.

Parents of the bride entertained wedding guests following the ceremony at a reception at Link Hills Country Club.

The Jerry Collins Orchestra provided

music for dancing.

Mrs. R. Alan McMillan was in charge of the bride's cake table. Mary Lee Snead attended the bride's register and Annette and Christina Andersen offered satin roses filled with rice to the guests.

After the reception, the couple left on the wedding trip to The Greenbriar.

The couple will make their home in Orlando, Fla.

Bridal Parties

A dinner party was given for Miss Calvert on June 19 by Mrs. Fred Parvin and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith at the home of Mrs. Fred Parvin, Wyndwood, in Greenville.

On June 24, Miss Calvert was honored at a brunch given by Mrs. Robert G. Brown, Mrs. R. S. Cowles, Mrs. James Easterly and Mrs. Ben Keebler at the Brown home in Greenville.

Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mrs. John Garren, Mrs. Harrison Lamons, and Mrs. Walter Mason were hosts to a brunch at Link Hills Country Club for the bride-elect on July 1.

Mrs. Julius Pratt entertained at her home in Greenville with coffee on July 2.

On July 6, Mrs. Anthony Bewley entertained with a luncheon at her home and the home of Mrs. Lanthe Rush Campbell was the setting for a bridal luncheon on July 7.

A dinner party was held for family and out-of-town guests on Thursday, July 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Serrell in Greenville. Hosts for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Gon Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. David Patterson
