North Warren Class Has 30th Reunion

The 1952 graduating class of Warren County Training School (now North Warren), held its first class reunion on Saturday, Sept. 4.

The day started at 9:00 a. m. in the school cafeteria with members of the class meeting for a get-reacquainted time. Those attending were served mini-sandwiches, grape and orange juice by the cafeteria personnel.

After greetings, there was a brief meeting in which the group organized a class reunion committee, and agreed to meet every three years.

Charles Coleman, coordinator of their reunion was elected president, Vernell Seward was elected secretary, and the office of treasurer was to be appointed later.

Everyone then adjourned to the parking lot for more conversation and picture-taking.

At 6:00 p. m. everyone returned to the cafeteria, beautifully decorated in blue and white, the graduating class colors, for dinner and dancing.

The program consisted of music rendered by the Antioch All-Male Chorus of Henderson.

Scripture and prayer and words of welcome were given by the principal of North Warren School, the Rev. W. T. Ramey, III. The class history was read by Charles Alexander, one of the class members. There was a short memorial service in which candles were lit for the deceased members of the graduating class, and Marion Alexander Robinson sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A delicious dinner consisting of turkey, dressing, whipped potatoes and green peas with apple pie for dessert was served by Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Townes and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Those class members attending were: Mervin Steward and wife; Mozelle Robinson Alexander and husband of New York; John Kersey, Elaris Robinson and Marion Alexander Robinson of New Jersey; Charles Alexander and wife; Faulkner Jones and wife; Phillip Russell and Reginald Paschall of Philadelphia, Pa.; James Perry Thornton and wife of Baltimore, Md.; Emma Lea Dunston of Washington, D. C.; Thomas Russell and wife; Willie Russell and wife, Catherine Alexander Smith and husband, and Major Claiborne of Richmond, Va.; Rosa Alston Walker, husband and children of Durham; and Charles Coleman, Lucille Hunter and Vernell Seward of Norlina and Wise.

Former teacher and coach, George C. Knox, was the special guest attending.

An enjoyable time was held by all and everyone left vowing to return again in 1985.
