Zion Club Has Thursday Meet

By EVA HOLTZMAN

The Zion Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hal Paschall.

The meeting opened by all singing "Come to the Church in the Wildwood." Devotion was given by Mrs. Paschall using Philipians 3:8.

International leader Mrs. Louise Ranes reported on stamp collecting and old eye glasses.

Mrs. Eleanor Hayes, housing and energy environment leader, gave hints on conserving energy.

The members voted to donate $25 to Warren County Fireman's Relief Fund.

Mrs. Paschall took each member's blood pressure.

Mrs. Frieda Holtzman, food and nutrition leader, was in charge of the program on low calorie food. She talked about guides for healthy eating, keeping the four basic food groups in mind.

Refreshments were served along with apple and cabbage salad and pizza potato topper, prepared by Mrs. Holtzman as part of the program.

Louise Ranes will be hostess for the June meeting.

Special Service Is Planned Here

Gospel Baptist Church in Norlina will host Ed and Vicky Wells, missionaries to the Philippines, in a special service tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 p.m.

The Wellses will present their ministry in music and will also speak of their work among the people of the Philippine Islands.

On Sunday, June 2, Don Norman of Jerry Falwell's Old Time Gospel Hour will be special guest soloist for the church's annual homecoming celebration.

A special concert will be held at 2 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend both programs.

Training Clinic Plans Outlined

The Cullom Baptist Associational Sunday School ASSISTeam will host a Vacation Bible School Training Clinic on May 27 at Norlina Baptist Church.

The clinic will help Vacation Bible School teachers prepare to teach.

The clinic will be held from 7-9 p.m. Sessions will be offered for all age-group teachers. Clinicians are encouraged to bring their Southern Baptist Vacation Bible School literature to the session.

Ruritans Hear Talk On Stamps

Norlina Ruritan Club held its regular meeting recently with Mrs. Eva Holtzman, former postmistress, bringing the program on stamp collecting.

There are many methods of collecting stamps, according to Mrs. Holtzman, including collections centered on presidents, famous men and women, special events or places, animals and birds. Others collect only stamps issued with errors on them.

Mrs. Holtzman concluded her program with a film on "America the Beautiful."

The meeting was presided over by Leigh Traylor and Mrs. Holtzman was introduced by Erich Hecht.

The ladies served a barbecue supper with sherbet for dessert.

Walker Given UNC-G Degree

Allen R. Walker of Norlina was among 1,958 persons to receive degrees from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro during the institution's 93rd annual commencement on Sunday, May 12, in the Greensboro Coliseum.

Altogether, degrees were awarded to 1,354 undergraduates and to 604 graduate students. The latter figure included 61 students who earned doctoral degrees.

The degrees were conferred by UNC-G Chancellor William E. Moran.

Walker, a business administration major, son of Betty S. Walker of Rt. 2, Box 4, Norlina, received a bachelor of science degree.

Art Show Plans Are Released

The 19th annual Kerr Lake Spring Art Show will be open to the public Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26 from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the Administration Building at Satterwhite Point on Kerr Lake north of Henderson. The show is sponsored by the Kerr Lake Art Society and the Kerr Reservoir State Recreation Areas.

In addition, the Kerr Lake Ensemble will present a "Concert in the Park" at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday on the lawn of the Glass House.

All work is original art and may range from $20 to $300. Work is divided into amateur and professional categories. It is framed and ready to hang. There are no gallery fees or commissions charged.

Pieces are generally of traditional subjects, such as landscapes, seascapes, still life, and portraits. However, some contemporary work may be shown. Media will vary from watercolor, pen and ink, collage, pastels, charcoal, pencil, block prints, and others.

Halley's Comet

Halley's Comet is on the return leg of its 76-year tour of the solar system and Lick Observatory astronomers at the University of California, Santa Cruz have charted a 'road map' of nearby stars for part of the comet's trip back to the old neighborhood.

Halley's Comet will be visible — through a telescope — in the Lick 'road map' part of the sky through October 1985.

Astronomers expect that the comet will brighten enough by January 1986 to be seen with the naked eye.

SEVERANCE

Severance Is Citadel Grad

Kenneth David Severance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Severance of Reidsville, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Severance of Norlina, graduated on May 11 from The Citadel, Charleston, S. C.

Severance, who was recognized as a Distinguished Military Student, received a B.S. degree in business administration. He also received a Regular Army Commission in the U. S. Army.

His assignment will be to enter flight school in the Army Medical Service Corp., Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

Still Burning

An uncontrollable inferno is still burning after 23 years in a maze of old coal-mine tunnels beneath Centralia, Pa. After all attempts to extinguish the smoldering fire had failed, the federal government in 1983 approved a $42-million plan to buy out residents who wanted to leave.

One Sought For Murder Two Felony Suspects Turn Themselves In

Two suspects charged with felonies turned themselves in to the Warren County Sheriff's Department this week.

A man wanted in Virginia Beach, Va. in connection with the murder Friday of a woman reported to be his girlfriend turned himself in Saturday morning.

According to Office Deputy Betsy Frazier, Michael W. Owens, 29, called the Warrenton Police Department around 7:30 a.m. Saturday and told the dispatcher he had committed a murder and wanted to turn himself in.

Two hours later, he surrendered to Deputy Harold Seaman at the Sheriff's Department.

Owens was wanted on two felony warrants in Virginia Beach, Deputy Frazier said, for murder and for using a fire arm in commission of a murder.

He was held without bond in Warren County Jail until Monday when he was released to the custody of Virginia Beach authorities after signing extradition papers.

Deputy Frazier said Owens indicated he knew some residents of Warren County, and was enroute to their home when he decided to turn himself in.

In the other case, the second of two men charged with first degree rape and first degree aiding and abetting first degree rape of a Franklin County woman earlier this month surrendered to authorities Monday morning around 11:30.

Lawrence M. Alston, 28, of Route 3, Louisburg, was released on $5,000 bond for a probable cause hearing Wednesday morning in Warren County District Court.

A relative, Bobby Alston, 22, of Route 3, Warrenton, was released last week on $10,000 bond. He was incorrectly identified by officials at the time of his arrest as Lawrence Alston's brother. However, Deputy Thomas McCaffity said this week the two were distantly related, but were not brothers.

Both face identical charges stemming from an incident which allegedly occurred when Bobby Alston offered the woman, whose name has not been released, a ride home from a Louisburg nightclub.

The woman alleges that Alston refused to take her home and instead picked up Lawrence Alston and that she was raped by both men somewhere in the Inez community.

Nuclear Power

The United States has 83 nuclear power plants, more than any other country, says National Geographic World. The Soviet Union is second with 37 plants.

know your Carpeting

FAT FIBERS

Skinny fibers in shag carpets are gone with the wind. The trend now is carpets made with short, fat fibers. These carpets are proving durable, and more easily cared-for than the long shags which were so popular a couple of years ago.

Shags manufactured with fat fibers are not likely to crush down and become matted. The fat fibers have a resiliency which allows them to bounce back to their original shape, even after hard usage.

Come in today and look over our latest selection of shags, and other beautiful floor coverings. We maintain an inventory of the very latest styles.
