The White Republicans Refuse to Recognize Them.

TWO COUNTY TICKETS NOMINATED

Charley Reynolds, as Usual, Bosses the Whites and Runs Things to Suit Himself-"Brother John" Reynolds Nominated for Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee

The Republican county convention today was the noisiest and the most disgraceful imaginable. The trouble began by the attempt of Masten, Reynolds & Co. to bulldoze the colored men who were vastly in the majority. This was at first successfully resisted by Messrs. Davis, Unthank, Fitts and Mayo who made the Masten-Reynolds crowd almost livid with rage. The tactics of the white Republicans was the most approved known to bull. the most approved known to bull-

The convention was called to order at 1:15 by Chairman Lehman. He proceeded to "do up" Secretary Masten for the manner in which he called the convention. He said that any ten-year-old colored school-boy would have known better how to do than The best Foreign and American

Davis, colored, asked Masten what he meant by stating in his call that each township should have three votes each. This was a "stunner" and Charlie Reynolds had to come to Masten's rescue for an explanation. Chairman Lehman asked Masten to give the names of the majority of the members of the executive committee, who instructed him to call the convention. This Masten refused to do. Editor Goslen, of the Republican. All kinds of property insured at Editor Goslen, of the Republican, rose to a "point of order," and asked that the convention proceed to business. Rev. C. L. Davis knocked Mr. Goslen's proposition into smithereens and said he felt some delicacy in according Masten authority for calling the convention. E. P. Mayo spoke and said under the existing circumstances he thought Acting Chairman Masten chould resign Insure your life in the United man Masten should resign.

Mayo threatened to withdraw his faction but his friends said "No! stay with them." Reynolds put in Joseph Phipps, of Abbott's Creek. This was objected to but Reynolds accomplished his desire. GRAY& JONES.

He lead in everything. He nominated Editor Goslen and W. B. Longworth for secretaries. Goslen asked the representatives from the townships to get together for business. He asked Mayo to sit down and behave himself but the colored man replied that he had as much business there as he or any other white man and pro-posed to exert his privileges. Then posed to exert his privileges. Then there was an uproar.

After a long and quarrelsome intermission, Reynolds took a cane and tried to restore order. "No more personal epithets," he said. Mr. Goslen began to call the roll of townships. He was not permitted to proceed. The colored men again declared that the temporary chairman had not been the temporary chairman had not been legally chosen. Reynolds moved that they proceed to nominate a legislative ticket. The colored men were taken unawares, having forgotten the ille-gal choice of the chairman.

gal choice of the chairman.

Mayo arose and at once nominated J. S. Fitts for the Legislature. Unthank seconded the nomination in the best speech made before the convention. He demanded recognition in the name of the 1,200 negro voters.
"We have voted with you faithfully
now for 25 years. We have give you our time and efforts also. At the last election we were promised a deputy and were treated with silence and contempt. We ask you as men to be fair with us. If you want our votes;
give us in return your support. If you don't want our votes, say so and we will keep them from you [cheers.] We hold the balance of power in this county—at least 200 votes. Mr. Fitts is an honest man and an intelligent citizen."

Morris, of Kernersville, interrupted the speaker with this question: "Let-me ask who gave the colored men their freedom?" Sitverware, &c.

Unthank replied: "The good soldiers of the North, while such fellows as you were running and hiding like the Devil."

At this retort there was a great burst of cheering from the colored men, which was repeated with yells from the crowd while the white Re-publicans looked mad and downcast. Martin in seconding the nomination of Fitts said: "We demand this rec-Martin in seconding the nomination of Fitts said: "We demand this recognition not because we are negroes but because we are men. If you do not recognize us we will not give you our votes." [Great cheering.]

Sanford Spaugh nominated T. B. Long, of Old Richmond, and then Charlie Reynolds got up on a chair, after the manner of an auctioneer, and did all the talking. With the assistance of Secretary Goslen he called out the roll of townships. The colored men refused to vote. They maintained that it was a mass convention and not a convention of townships. They saw the program being rushed through, and then Mayo made a speech to his brethren and advised them to withdraw because their rights were being trampled on. With a mighty cheer the colored men began to move out of the court room. Then the Masten-Reynolds faction leered them and cried "Boo-o-o," as if they were cattle.

Reynolds then mounted a chair and Reynolds then mounted a chair and shouted: "Let the traitors go. The Republican party is a d—d sight better without them." He continued in his speech and then took out a copy of the Twin-City Times and read a few extracts.

John Nichols met them at the National Hotel as usual and a conference was held with leaders here as to the plan of campaign. Mr. T. R. Purnell, the editor of the Greensboro North State has also been in the city this week, but he did not go with the Eaves crowd to New York.

According to the stories that Eaves is said to be giving the leaders at headquarters, he has a regular Corbett cinch if the National Committee will will just open its heart and purse and give him the wherewithal to train for the contest.

THE WILY EAVES. Mr. Eaves evidently wants to avoid newspaper notoriety on this trip. Your correspondent met him at the hotel the day of his arrival here, but he didn't know how long he was go-ing to stay nor which way he would start when he did decide to leave. He slipped out that night to New York. He refused to talk about the outlook for his ticket.
