WHISKEY AGENCIES CLOSED.

Order issued by Mayor Murphy of Greensboro, With Reference to Them.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

GREENSBORO, May 4.—There was mourning in certain quarters of Greensboro Thursday and there seems to be no balm in Gilead for the care- less ones, who are bowed down on account of an order issued by Mayor Murphy Thursday directing that all agencies in the city for whiskey houses shut up shop. Chief of Police Neelley yesterday afternoon served notice upon the agents here, of which there are four, and they agreed to close up their offices and did not give the officer any trouble. It is understood that they had been advised by their attorneys. It is generally understood that none of the agents will attempt to resist the Mayor's order, as they believe he is supported in his position by a recent decision of the Supreme Court, in which all of the time-honored traditions as to the sacredness of interstate commerce have been knocked sky-high. A copy of the decision of the higher court has been in the hands of an attorney here for some time, but no action was taken in the matter until yesterday.

The case in point went up from South Dakota. A man there who acted as agent for a liquor firm outside of the State in receiving orders was tried, convicted and sentenced for retailing. There was a section in the South Dakota law that makes the place of delivery the place of sale, just as it does in North Carolina. An appeal to the Supreme Court of the State was taken by the attorney for the South Dakota defendant. The opinion of the lower court was sustained and the Supreme Court of the United States upheld the opinion of the State courts.

The court says that the interstate commerce principle does not apply in such cases; the Wilson act passed two years ago meets that point. It says that a man who acts as agent for the solicitation and delivery of sales of whiskey in prohibition territory is the seller, where the law defines the place of delivery the place of sale. This is certainly reversal of the Supreme Court's opinion in a case carried up from Monroe.

The four agents here had been doing a big business and were apparently undisturbed by the disapproval that was heaped upon them by the prohibitionists of the city. The Southern Express Company had also profited greatly by the agency business here, and almost every train that came from Virginia has brought its supply of whiskey.

WITHOUT A KICK. When a government inspector passes on the plumbing and heating plant of a government contract, you may be assured that it is done correctly. The plumbing and heating contract for the Winston Post Office was completed by the Crawford Plumbing and Mill Supply Co., of this city and was highly complimented by the government officer. A word to the wise is usually sufficient.

CAN YOU IMPROVE The looks of your dining table? Is it possible to make it more inviting? Pretty dishes help to make the food taste good, you know. We have some real bargains in dinner sets. MEETINGS OF VARIOUS LOCAL CHURCH SOCIETIES

Two Missionary Meetings Yesterday—Other Societies to Meet Next Week.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Centenary M. E. Church met yesterday afternoon in the ladies' parlor with quite a large attendance. The new president, Mrs. Ernest Dalton, presided for the first time.

The society was very much gratified to enroll three new names for membership Mrs. William M. Hendrix, Mrs. J. A. Jones and Mrs. Rufus Osburn.

Among the business matters transacted was the election of delegates to the annual missionary conference, which convenes in Greensboro May 6. Mesdames T. G. Corart and Samuel Blackburn were elected to represent the society.

Mesdames W. P. Hill and L. A. Vaughn were appointed on the program committee to arrange for the next quarterly social meeting of the society, which will be in June.

Mrs. T. G. Corart who had charge of the missionary lesson on "Christus Redemptor," conducted it in her usual pleasant style, all the ladies taking part in the discussion.

Those present yesterday were Mesdames Ernest Dalton, Samuel Blackburn, W. P. Hill, W. L. Marler, E. C. Bowman, L. A. Vaughn, L. C. O'Brien, Duke Hay, R. I. Dalton, L. Starr, R. E. Dalton, William Beck, James Newman, Henry Barrow, P. H. Hanes, Frank Martin and Miss Nora Dodson.

D. C. Rankin Society Meets. The D. C. Rankin Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, composed of the young ladies and the young married ladies in the congregation, were entertained on yesterday afternoon by Misses Mary and Mittie Wiley, at their home on Spruce street.

About forty members were present.

Mrs. Robert Nissen had a most interesting paper on "The Woman Who Gave Herself."

"Go, Give and Pray" furnished the themes for most instructive articles, read by Misses Robina Mickle, Mittie Wiley and Flora Leak.

All enjoyed Dr. Lilly's fine talk. So enthusiastic was Mrs. Henry Roan in presenting the need of more money for the work in Africa, that $50.00 was pledged in a short while by those present for the work, this in addition to their cot which they keep up in the Elizabeth Blake Hospital, at Souchow, China.

Two new members were enrolled, Misses Nannie Sheets and Haydie Garner.

After the business meeting a delightful social session was greatly enjoyed, the hostesses serving tempting refreshments.

Will Meet Monday. The Young Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary M. E. Church will be entertained on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Miss Annie Grogan, on Cherry street.

Woman's Home Mission and Aid Society of Centenary church meets on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ladies' parlor.

Centenary Light Bearers will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the annex. A full attendance is desired.

The Mission Band of the Home Moravian church will meet Monday at 8 o'clock with Miss Louise Grunert.

THE DAINY DESSERT

Put a pint of boiling water, you will have prepared a dessert which will surprise and delight all who taste it. When it has become cool it will jellify and be ready to eat. For a more elaborate dessert try the following:

Banana Cream.
Put five large bananas, rub smooth with five tablespoons of sugar. Add one cup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then one package of Lemon Jell-O dissolved in one and one-half cups of boiling water. Pour in mold or bowl and when cold garnish with crushed cherries. Serve with whipped cream.

Prisoner To Be Released.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The only thing between William January, of Kansas City, Mo., and liberty from the penitentiary is attaching of signature of attorney general to recommendation for mercy and signature of president to pardon which is already agreed upon. If there is no hitch in the proceedings telegraphic messages will be sent before nightfall to the warden at Leavenworth prison directing that January be released immediately. Thousands of petitions for mercy, surpassing all previous cases in number and dignity, have been received by Attorney General Bonaparte.

IT'S EASILY EXPLAINED.

Many ask us why our ice-cream soda is so good. It's easily explained. At our fountain we use the absolutely pure syrups and crushed fruits, as flavors, and our ice cream is made fresh each day, from choice, rich, pure dairy cream, and our mixerologist is an expert. His egg drinks are the talk of the town. All the popular drinks. Learn the Way to Simpson's.

Girl is Heard From.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A letter written by Miss Loretta Whaley, 17 years old, an heiress, supposedly lured away from home by Jere Knode Cooke, former pastor of an aristocratic church at Hempstead, Long Island, was made public today. It says she loves Jere more than all and will abide by the consequences. The letter was addressed to Miss Audrey Townsend, a former chum of Miss Whaley. In her letter Miss Whaley says Hempstead was too slow for her and she supposes Miss Townsend will be surprised to hear of her elopement with Cooke.

THINGS ARE MOVING.

This business of moving is a specialty with us and we are so accustomed to it we can't keep still. So when you have anything to move—furniture, pianos, safes, baggage—let us know. We will move you with promptness and at the most reasonable prices. Fisher Livery and Transfer Co. Phone 227. Church street.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a Jimson bar into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at P. A. Thompson's, druggist.

NOT FOR THE PRICE.

You never saw a more perfect little ladies' watch than this seven-jeweled United States movement, in a plain, open-face, gold-filled twenty-years-guarantee case for twelve dollars. It's a perfect little gem for the money, and a perfect time piece. It is worth more money, but we want to get them on the move. We are expert in fine watch repairing. Chas. F. Sapp & Co., 9 1/2 West Fourth St.

PLAY BALL.

We just want you to know where to buy your baseball goods. We are local agents for the celebrated house of Reach. We have the balls, bats, gloves, mits, masks, protectors and rules, and if you look in our window as you pass you will get some idea Brown, Rogers Co., on the Square.

Death at Richmond, Va.

Raleigh Christian Forbes, son of Mr. W. S. Forbes, of Richmond, Va., died of pneumonia a few days ago at the age of 19 years. Mr. Forbes has many friends in Winston-Salem who sympathize with him in his bereavement.

MR. BUSINESS MAN!

Perhaps right now you want something in the printing line. Cards, letter or bill heads. Do you know we are doing the most artistic line of printing in this section of the world, and our prices are most becoming? It's rather hard to find you but a phone call will bring one of us to you, for your order or estimate. You'll like our work. L. R. Womble Printing Co., 417 1/2 Liberty St.
