THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross is the nation's badge of mercy. Wherever there is suffering, our spirit of compassion and sympathy is carried under its humanitarian banner.

When disaster strikes, devastating prosperous communities, demolishing happy homes, and leaving a path of death and desolation, our Red Cross is ever ready to relieve suffering and prevent distress. It cares for the injured, shelters the homeless and places every sufferer back on his feet with a normal prospect for the future.

This is but one of its many humane services. Every day is a day of disaster for hundreds of homes. Sickness and disease, poverty and suffering, never declare a truce. Always they are exacting their toll of human happiness, and Red Cross workers are busy fighting them. Into the homes of the factory hands, out to the lonely farm houses, and on to the scenes of disaster, our emissary of mercy goes to translate our message of sympathy into deeds of constructive service, wherever suffering casts its shadow. It is the composite voice of thousands of people in your state and nation who have made it their medium for magnifying a thousand-fold their personal service to humanity.

The manifold services of the American Red Cross cannot be translated into words. All that the following few pages can do is to suggest to you what these thousands of people, organized for service in their Red Cross, have accomplished in YOUR STATE in the last year.

As the official relief agency of the American people, the Red Cross has engaged in relief operations following ninety disasters in the last year. In these disasters over 1,000 people were killed and over 3,200 injured. The organization assisted over 40,000 disaster victims.

The disaster relief work of the American Red Cross looks beyond the immediate needs of the sufferers and supplies permanent relief. At first only food, clothing, shelter, and medical aid are supplied. But when the emergency needs have been met, a thorough program of rehabilitation is instituted. Every family is given the assistance which, when supplemented by its own efforts, will place it permanently in a self-supporting position with sufficient resources to supply its minimum needs.

An important function of the Red Cross is its foreign relief operations. It is the agency through which the sympathy of the American people is expressed to disaster sufferers in other countries. It acts in this capacity only where it is felt that the magnitude to make outside help necessary and where it is felt that the country affected cannot otherwise meet the emergency without undue hardship.

Two serious disasters in North Carolina during the last year have necessitated Red Cross disaster relief work.

DECREASE SHOWN IN EXPORTS OF AMERICA

Washington, Nov. 1.—Shrinkage in September exports from the United States, which totaled $420,318,459 was shown by Commerce Department figures today, due chiefly to a falling off in the trade with Europe and with Canada and other world areas, however, increased their takings of American goods, and these gains made the net decrease, as compared with the preceding September, only about $7,000,000.

Imports from every quarter of the globe, on the other hand, increased sharply, the total being $350,004,758 in September, 1925 against 387,144,334 in September, 1924.

SOCIALS FOR MUSIC CLUB

Pilot, Nov. 16.—Among the most elaborate of the fall social affairs was the social given by Miss Mary Lee Alford to her music teacher, Miss Lucille Tripp, and the members of the Music Club, on Saturday afternoon at her home.

The guests were met at the door by Mary Lee and directed in the parlor, which was lovely decorated with ferns and pink roses.

First a music recital was given by members as follows: "Oak Leaves" by Mary Lee Alford, "Reverie" by Pattie B. Lamm, "Pupils Song" by Cramer Pearce, "Children's Delight" by Alma Pearce, "Rustic Fiddler" by Pattie B. Lamm, "Sexette" by Lucille Tripp.

After the music recital the guests were invited in the dining room by Miss Ruby Pearce. Serving in the dining-room were: Mrs. S. D. Stallings and Miss Lola Alford.

The dining-room was beautifully decorated with bright colored chrysanthemums.

Chicken salad, and banana sandwiches with hot coffee was served, also cake and fruit salad with whipped cream.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Misses Lucille Tripp, Mary Lee Alford, Bonnie Belle Alford, Pattie B. Lamm, Willie K. Bunn, Cramer and Alma Pearce and Allene Pearce. Visitors, Mrs. J. B. Alford Mrs. S. D. Stallings, Mrs. G. D. Pearce, Misses Lola Alford, Ruby and Ester Pearce, Roberta Brantley, Laura Williams, Ruby Mae Wiggs, Annie Lee Denton, and Inez Bunn.

After being served in the dining-room quite an enjoyable hour was spent in the parlor in gay conversations.

About 6:30 all went home declaring they had one among the best times of their lives.

SYLVIA MAE IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Little Sylvia Mae Garrison, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Garrison, 301 North Main St., Burlington, died about six o'clock Sunday morning at Rainey Hospital, of pneumonia, following an operation for appendicitis, and was buried Monday at Pine Hall cemetery. The funeral service having been conducted by Rev. Martin W. Buck, at the home. Death never came in a gentler mood to carry away a baby, for little Sylvia was taken at the end of a little song she had learned at the Kinder-garten "Keep sweet, Keep sweet, This is the only way, This is the only way to win the day, just keep sweet." Although folded in the arms of death and already off on the journey that reflected happiness in her smile. The voice came out of the mist with a of Sylvia's bed the little song, she couldn't quite start it and called on her dear little brother, Marshall as she often did, to begin the song. Marshall was not there, but presently a feeble voice, but distinct, lifted out of Sylvia's bed the little song, she repeated it three times, then "come on" she said, to loved ones at the bed side, and the little spirit had gone. Her little singing class mates of the Kindergarten, sang so sweetly at the funeral "Jesus Loves Me, This I know" and "Keep Sweet, Keep Sweet." Sylvia's voice was stilled, but did not her beautiful little spirit look down on its presence about the casket, a halo of light, hope and inspiration, a benediction to all to come home.

She was a bright child and favorite among her playmates, whose passing brings deep grief to the home and the neighborhood.

Need Personal Revival

"The world is in crving need of a personal revival of religion, not revivals in churches or protracted meetings but in individual effort—man to man," said Rev. M. A. Barber, at Christ Church in Raleigh, Sunday morning.

Rules of Contest

1.—Any reputable man, woman or child, residing in Wake, and surrounding territory is eligible to enter this election and compete for a prize.

2.—No employee or near relative of any person in the business office of The Zebulon Record is eligible to enter this distribution. Correspondents are eligible. The management reserves the right to reject any nominations.

3.—The winner of the prizes will be decided by the accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, and advertising cards and by coupons from the paper.

4.—Candidates are not confined to their own particular town or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions; but may take orders anywhere in this section; or for that matter, anywhere in the United States.

5.—Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions, and votes will be issued on both.

6.—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing to vote for their favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying for their subscriptions.

7.—Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the Election Department must represent subscriptions.

8.—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscription will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.

9.—Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competitions, or any other combination arrangement or effort to the detriment of candidates or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering or taking part in such agreement, arrangement or effort will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.

10.—Any ballot issued on subscription may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidate. The printed coupons appearing from week to week in this paper must be cited before the expiration date appearing thereon.

11.—In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes, a prize identical in value will be given each party.

12.—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or candidate varying from the rules and statement published through the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publishers.

13.—No statement, assertion or promise, either written or verbal made by any of the solicitors, agents, or candidates, will be recognized by the publishers or campaign management.

14.—Every candidate is an authorized agent of The Zebulon Record and as such may collect subscriptions payment from present as well as from new subscribers.

15.—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all money collected, and that they will remit such amounts in full at least three times each week.

16.—There will be several big prizes awarded, besides a 20 per cent cash commission to all active non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event ANY candidate becomes INACTIVE, failing to make a weekly cash report, he or she will, at the decision of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or commission.

17.—To insure absolute fairness in awarding the prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a "sealed ballot box" system and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges selected from the advisory board. During the last few days of the election, the box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where the candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed will the seals be broken, the box unlocked and the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

18.—The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of the election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidate and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.

19.—Twenty-five thousand extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription secured during the first period of the campaign; 10,000 extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription secured during each of the remaining three periods.

20.—The publishers guarantee fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

21.—Campaign closes December 23, 1925.

22.—In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above conditions.

THE PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of this distribution is two-fold—primarily to increase the subscription lists of The Zebulon Record and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, and in a big way through their spare time during the next few weeks. So, it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of us all concerned. In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartedly. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.

The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no "double vote" offers, extra votes given or any other inducement whatever inaugurated during this competition. Neither will there be any long term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straight-forward and simple and is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be fully understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women and boys and girls, and one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no losers in this race.

HOW TO ENTER THE ELECTION

The first step in order to become a candidate and compete for a prize is to clip the nomination coupon appearing in this issue; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to the campaign department of The Zebulon Record, Zebulon, N. C. This coupon entitles you or the person whom you might nominate to 5,000 FREE votes. These votes are given you a starter, and to speed you on your way to win. Only one such nomination coupon will be accepted for each candidate.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED

The next step is to call on or write the campaign department for a free working outfit, consisting of a special receipt book, sample copies of the paper and other information relative to launching an active campaign.

Thus equipped, you have but to go to your friends, neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them clip all the free coupons from their papers or pay a subscription to The Zebulon Record through you. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will never win anything unless you make the start; and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless, you should start at once. You must plan out your campaign the same as any successful business man plans out his work for a season, and above everything else, let no one discourage you, but stick to the finish. Anything worth having is worth striving for. A few short weeks and you may be riding in your own automobile.

It takes votes to win and votes are secured in two ways: First, by clipping coupons appearing in each issue of The Zebulon Record. Begin by gathering them now. After next week these coupons will be reduced to a lesser number of votes. The only restriction placed on coupons is that they must be deposited at the campaign department of The Zebulon Record on or before the expiration date printed thereon. Get your friends to saving these coupons—they all count.

The other and faster way to get votes is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to The Zebulon Record. On each subscription turned in, a certain number of votes are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the campaign department (see schedule for votes elsewhere). So, you see, the more subscriptions you secure the more votes you can get and the better your chances are to capture the grand capital prize.

EARLY START MEANS EARLY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the FULL SIX WEEKS in which to secure the winning votes, but now and put to and including Saturday December 5, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

ADVISORY BOARD

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct this election, from start to finish, in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interest of the participants, and absolute honesty in all dealing is guaranteed.

However, not all wisdom lies with any one man or institution and for that reason an Advisory Board has been decided upon, whose functions shall be to decide any questions of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the competition and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes the last night of the election. The personnel of the board is as follows:

Messrs. E. C. Danie's, M. J. Sexton, L. L. Massey, F. E. Bunn, L. M. Gold, Rev. Theo. B. Davis, Zebulon; Rev. A. A. Pippin, of Wakefield, J. H. Weathers, of Bunn; J. M. Stallings, of Pilot; Seba High, of Middlesex.
