PAUL'S ARREST IN JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:18-23:22.
GOLDEN TEXT—"If any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed."
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Is Brave in Danger.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul and the Jerusalem Mob.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Faces a Mob.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Spirit of the Mob.

I. Paul's Vow (21:18-26).
Upon Paul's arrival at Jerusalem representatives of the church there gave him a most cordial reception. In order that the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. The effort was to remove prejudice. They recognized that such an act would in no way compromise or involve the Gentile brethren. Furthermore this would not compromise his own principles of action, viz., to the Jews he became a Jew, and to the Gentiles, a Gentile; all things to all men in order to gain them for Christ.

II. Paul's Arrest (21:27-40).
How far this act conciliated the Jews we are not told, but it only enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These maddened Jews on the basis of a supposition seized him and dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly intending to put him to death. Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard. The chief captain, not being able to get any information from the howling mob, bound Paul and started for the castle. In order to protect him from the murderous frenzy of the mob, the soldiers lifted him upon their shoulders and bore him up the stairs. Paul kept himself under control, and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people. When he addressed him in Greek and quoted his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

III. Paul's Defense (22:1-27).
Paul's chief concern was not his own safety. He used this opportunity to witness unto them of Christ.

1. His Claim for a Rightful Hearing (vv. 1-3).
(1) His birth (v. 3).
He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation.
(2) His Education (v. 3).
He was educated under Gamaliel and instructed "according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers."
(3) His Zeal (v. 3).
He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His Attitude Toward Jesus (vv. 4-5).
"I persecuted this way unto the death," so that his attitude was one of hatred as was that of the Jews.
3. How His Attitude Was Changed (vv. 6-16).
While on his way to Damascus with authority to bind the Christians at Jerusalem, he was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou me?" When Paul inquired what he was to do, he was told to go to Damascus where he would be told what to do.

4. The Lord Commissioned Him to Go to the Gentiles (17-21).
IV. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).
The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's Earnest Look at the Council (vv. 1-2).
This was a solicitation of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage.
2. Paul's Stern Rebuke of the Head of the Council (v. 3).
"God shall smite thee, thou whited wall."

3. Paul's Appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 6-10).
Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees hoping to get their attention, for his preaching had something in common with their belief.

V. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11).
This assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

VI. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 18-22).
More than forty men placed themselves under a curse to abstain from eating and drinking until they had murdered him. God defeated their plan without a miracle.

YOUTHFUL FLANNEL DRESSES; NECKWEAR ADDS DAINY TOUCH

VIOLET, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red—not only are these the colors of the rainbow but the mode has made so bold as to appropriate these gay hues for its own especial use. Not one at a time does fashion help itself to the bright tones, but in pretty confusion are they applied in striped borderings on the very finest of sports flannels.

Sometimes on the frocks made of these attractive multi-colored woolsens, the stripes travel up and down, other times around and around. It is plain to be seen from this picture that, be they vertically or horizontally inclined, stripes are very decorative in dress designing.

Many blended colors appear in the striped panel effect which is at back and front of the dress shown to the right in the picture. The solid portion is in mahogany two-tone flannel. The material selected for the other dress is a rose, blue and green three-tone worsted flannel with skirt portion of a striped bordering, the same also forming cuffs, belt, tie and collar.

The manner in which many colors are being used together is really quite unique. Solid colored crepe de chine frocks carry decorative borders "made to order." That is, these borders are formed for each frock as desired by sewing multi-colored strips of silk together. Especially is the black or navy frock enlivened with a bordering on its sleeves and across the skirt formed of inch-wide strips of crepe using, perhaps, blue, scarlet, purple, gray and yellow, thus acquiring a five-inch-wide trimming as colorful as one would wish.

That striking colors are the order of the day is evidenced in the popularity of the bright red and wine shades for frock and wrap as well, also for millinery to match. One of the most talked-of colors for the flannel frock is bois de rose, also salmon and peach tones and raspberry shades are coming in with the newest fashions.

A simple flannel jumper frock in bois de rose is of appealing charm, especially if enhanced with tea-colored lace cuffs and collar.

Gilded leather trimmings are favored for the simple flannel frock, or the leather may be in gay colors, such as for instance a red leather belt, collar and cuffs on a navy woolen dress, or an applique decoration featuring leather in multi-shades.

Just because strictly tailored one-piece and two-piece frocks are the call of the mode do not for a moment think that women of fashion are going to look mannishly attired to the point of losing feminine charm. No gance. Now that the vogue is started there is no limit to the possibilities of this delightful theme of fanciful lace, lingerie or silk collar and cuff sets.

Any tailored frock is favored when it is complemented with a handsome panel-shaped jabot such as is shown to the left in the picture. For this effective panel-with-round-collar the crepe de chine is used in conjunction with lace.

Very interesting collars and cuffs are being styled of gay leathers, either multicolored or gilded in silver or gold effects. A further touch of novelty is supplied by clever handwork done with colorful floss or metal threads. Often several colors of leather are used together. These leather sets are very effective.

HOW TWO WOMEN AVOIDED OPERATIONS

The Following Letters of Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Beard Carry an Encouraging Message to Other Sick Women

MRS. ETHEL THURSTON
324 N. PINE STREET, LIMA, OHIO
Lima, Ohio.—"I want to tell you how your medicine has helped me. For weeks I suffered with awful pains from inflammation and I was in such misery that I had to bend double to get relief. I could not be touched or jarred, had awful pain all over my abdomen and could not touch my feet to the floor. It was impossible for me to straighten up and the pains never ceased. I took treatments for some time and finally was told I would have to have an operation. I do not believe in operations, and I had read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I told my husband I would try it before I gave up. I soon began to feel that it was doing me good. The awful misery began to leave me, also the backache. I have a good appetite and am gaining in weight. Taking the medicine was the best thing I ever did. I feel like it has saved my life and I do not hesitate to say so to my friends. At least it saved me from a dreaded operation and I am still taking it. I am willing to answer letters from women asking for the medicine."

—Mrs. ETHEL THURSTON, 324 North Pine Street, Lima, Ohio.

Mrs. Beard's Letter
Eddy, Texas.—"I will write you a few words, thinking it will do some one else good. Two doctors said I would have to be operated on because for nearly twelve months I suffered from a weakness from which I could get no relief. I was restless and nervous and was not able to walk around the house. They said it was the Change of Life. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and as I could not get any help from doctors I thought I would give that a trial. I began with the liquid and it helped me some, then you advised me to take the tablet form and I began to improve rapidly. I have gained in weight from 105 to 170 pounds. I recommend it to all women with this trouble."
—Mrs. M. E. BEARD, R. No. 1, Box 143, Eddy, Texas.

Use of Steel Increases
In 1880, when the steel industry was establishing itself, the per capita use of steel in the United States was 56 pounds, but due to modern industrial development the amount required is now about 755 pounds per person.
