CHAPEL EXERCISES

Armistice Day means a great deal to all the patriotic citizens of our State. All of us have a "thrill" in our heart on the Fourth of July, remembering the meaning of the celebration. Nov. 11 has just as wonderful a meaning for our little folks as well as the large ones. The sixth grade, at Zebulon, under the instruction of Miss Adams on Friday, Nov. 13 rendered an extraordinary program in chapel. The sixth grade as a whole have wonderful voices and their voices had the enthusiasm in it that we feel for our State. The building just rang with patriotic songs, for example, "America."

The program also consisted of various talks on why we celebrate Armistice, and the reading, "On Flanders Field."

Then a quartet, "I ain't gonna study war no mo'." Which was much enjoyed I assure you.

We (the Seniors) almost feel jealous of these brilliant little folks. I'll say we will have to get up and hustle to equal them. Sixth grade, we are proud of you. Come again with its equal. We will give you the "fifteen Raahs."

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25 AND 26

A dashing cavalier and a radiantly lovely dancing girl. Secluded nooks and whispered promises. Sweet sighs and sweeter kisses. A skulking form and a coward knife raised aloft. A nobleman stricken down and a shrinking girl bound in the meshes of the law. Intrigue—treachery—guile. Smouldering revolt fanned to a fierce flame. A mongrel horde bent upon revenge. Conflict—galloping chargers—swords—a gleam in the sun. The grim reaper strode abroad. And then—!

But you must see this great picture for yourself to learn how Right prevailed and how in the end Love claimed its own.

Triumphant! Exultant! Popular!

Pay, pray and perform was the subject of the sermon of Rev. H. G. Lane, rector, at the Church of the Good Shepherd Sunday in Raleigh.

These three thoughts which he used were given by Bishop Murray, of Maryland at the recent Episcopal conference at New Orleans to the delegates on the eve of their departure for home.
