Vera Ray Sunday afternoon. W. R. Bunn is one of our successful watermelon growers. He pulled a 28 pound melon and 50 inches around and weighed 68 pounds. He invited Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Bunn to help him enjoy eating a Friday.

We feel sorry for J. G. Bunn as his pet dog "Tramp" disappeared about four weeks ago.

Master Barbee Pann is on the sick list.

Eugene Mitchell returned last week from Duke's hospital at Durham.

Visitor From Durham Is Honored.

Mrs. J. Sid Perry has returned to her home in Durham after a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Chas. E. Flowers.

While Mrs. Perry was here she was the guest of honor at two parties. On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Mrs. E. C. Daniel entertained a few friends at bridge in her honor. A pleasant evening was spent. At the conclusion of the playing prizes were presented to Mrs. G. S. Barbee and Mrs. Perry. Delicious ices and frosted cakes were served to the following guests: Messrs. James J. Sid Perry, G. S. Barbee, Chas. E. Flowers, L. M. Massey, G. S. Williams, M. F. Grote and C. V. Whitley.

On Thursday afternoon from 5:30 until 8 Mrs. Flower entertained for her. Bridge tables were placed in the flower garden and the pool. The weather was so pleasant a party was much more important than a bridge party so the guests had to move into the house and the playing continued.

When scores were counted Mrs. Barbee held high score. She received a dainty prize and the honor was presented with a lovely gift.

Iced tea, sandwiches and wafers were served.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lee Honor Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lee entertained at bridge Monday evening of last week for Mrs. Vardell Grantham, of Fairmont.

After several progressions of bridge, high score prize for ladies was won by Miss Aileen Chamblee; for men,
