

Personal Mention

Mrs. Iscar Strickland is still confined to her bed and must stay there for some time longer, her doctor says.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tillet and small daughter, Anne, of Newport News, spent Sunday night with her friend of teaching days, Mrs. C. V. Whitley. Mrs. Tillet, as Miss Annie Parker, was a teacher in Wakelon a number of years ago.

Mrs. J. Syd. Perry, who has been convalescing at Dr. C. E. Flowers, returned to Durham Tuesday, called there on account of the illness of her husband. Mr. Perry, we understand, had a stroke of apoplexy.

Mrs. J. H. Fowler has returned from a visit with friends in Kannapolis and Greensboro.

Miss Grace Fowler is visiting her sister in Kannapolis.

On last Sunday Misses Jane Hoyle, Clarice Fowler, Ethelyn Green, Doris Horton, Ruby Temples, Erveane Massey and Inez Pitts, who spent the holidays with home folks, returned to N. C. C. W.

E. C. Daniel and John Barrow, Jr., returned to the University after spending the Christmas holidays here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mangum and little son, Fred, Jr., were Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Davis, Fred, Jr., seems have made a complete recovery from his recent serious illness.

Milton Hagwood and Charlie Clark have moved from Wakefield; Milton moving to a farm near Fuquay Springs and Charlie to the Bethlehem community beyond Lake Myra.

Hubert Clark has moved on the Blake Stallings farm near Wakelon school.

Millard Mitchell, son of Ralph Mitchell, Wakefield, was carried to Duke hospital seriously ill last Sunday. He is still in the hospital and shows no improvement.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Yesterday's News and Observer carries the announcement of the issuance of a marriage license for W. A. Liles and Canova Corbett. Mr. Liles is a prominent citizen on Zebulon, Rt. 1. We congratulate him.

Wendell Postmaster

Among the North Carolina names sent to the Senate for confirmations is that of Geo. H. Wright, Jr., of Wendell, Mr. Wright has been postmaster of our sister town for some time. The names of J. C. Matthews of Spring Hope and Lawrence Harris of Wake Forest were also sent to the Senate for confirmation.

TAG OR PARK

Captain Chas. D. Farmer, chief of the State Highway Patrol has instructed his men to park all cars with 1931 license tags, and to keep them there till new tags are secured. No arrests will be made, neither can cars be moved till re-tagged.

State Treasurer Dies

Captain Nathan O'Berry, State Treasurer, died almost suddenly at his home in Goldsboro early Wednesday morning. He succeeded B. R. Lacy as State Treasurer in 1929. He had never held public office before, but was one of the State's foremost citizens.

Sat. Eve. Post Script.

Once a man took a long trip to get away from fools, and ended by spending all his time with one.

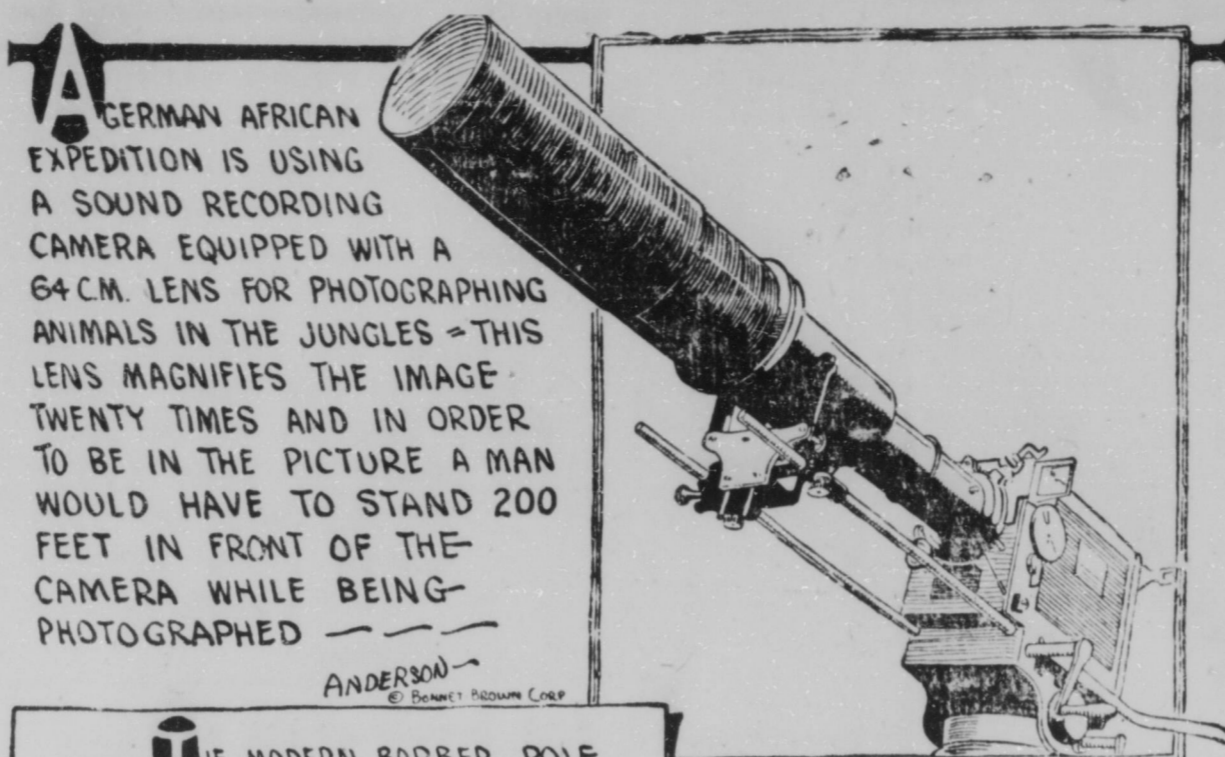

Now'd be a good time for the doctors to bring out a line of moderate-priced diseases.

A man whose only motive for action is wages does a bad piece of work.

It is better to work for the prevention of miseries than to multiply places for refuge for the miserable.

Odd — but TRUE

THE MODERN BARBER POLE IS A SURVIVAL OF THE DAYS WHEN THE BARBERS PRACTICED MEDICINE AS A SIDE LINE - THE GILT BALL AT THE TOP REPRESENTED THE BASIN USED TO LATHER THE CUSTOMERS, THE POLE REPRESENTED THE STAFF HELD BY PERSONS DURING VENESECTION WHILE THE TWO SPIRAL RIBBONS STOOD FOR THE BANDAGES USED BEFORE AND AFTER THE BLOOD-LETTING

CUT AND CULLED

The Modern Cocktail.
An old Dutchman, returning to Holland, was asked by a friend what in his estimation was the strangest thing he had noticed, and he replied: "The United States has many wonderful things, but the strangest is a drink called the cocktail—and here is how they make it: They put in whiskey to make it strong, then water to make it weak; gin to make it hot and ice to make it cold; lemon to make it sour, sugar to make it sweet; then they say, 'Here's to you!' and drink it themselves."

SOME BIRD!

A little boy's essay on geese: "A geese is a low, heavy set bird which is mostly meat and feathers. His head sits on one side and he sits on the other. A geese can't sing much on account of dampness of the moisture. He ain't got no between-his-toes and he's got a balloon on his stomach to keep him from sinking. Some geese when they gits big has curls on their tails and is called ganders. Ganders don't haff to sit and hatch, but just eat and loaf, and go swimmin. If I was a geese, I'd rather be a gander."

"Now, in case anything should go wrong with this experiment," said the professor of chemistry, "we and the laboratory with us will be blown sky high. Now, come a little closer, boys, in order that you may follow me."

New Yorker (incredulously): "And you mean to say that in California you have 365 days of sunshine a year?"

The man from Los Angeles: "Exactly so, sir, and that's a mighty conservative estimate."

Prison chaplain (to prisoner about to be discharged): "Now, my man, try to remember what I said in my sermon last Sunday and make up your mind never to return to this place."

Prisoner (deeply moved): "No man who ever heard you preach would want to come back here."

"What's the matter with your wife? She's all broken up lately."

"She got a terrible jar."

"What has happened?"

"Why, she was assisting at the Ladies' Aid rummage sale, took off her new hat, and somebody sold it for thirty-five cents."

"I am satisfied on one thing at last; I found where my husband spends his evenings," remarked Mrs. Gadabout.

"You don't say so, dear; how did you find out?" questioned the excited Mrs. Gossip.

"I stayed at home one evening last week, and found him there," answered the satisfied lady.

Miss Sniff and Miss Snip, who had not seen each other for years, met one day.

"How do you do?" exclaimed Miss Snip.

"Now, this is delightful!" said Miss Sniff. "You haven't seen me for eleven years, and you knew me at once! I cannot have changed so dreadfully in all that time. I cannot have changed so dreadfully in all that time. It flatters me."

"Oh, I recognized your hat!" said Miss Snip.

The express had not been living up to its reputation. First it would go forward fifty yards or so, then back and then stand still, puffing uncertainly, and then begin with the same things all over gain. At last one of the travelers called the guard.

"What's the matter with this train," he demanded, "backing up and jerking forward in this way?"

"It's quite all right sir," the guard assured him. "I think the engine driver is teaching his wife to drive."

Horse sense behind the steering wheel is better than horse power under the hood.

Three pure bred Jersey bull calves were purchased by Wake county farmers from the Coastal Plain Branch Station shed in December.
