UNION CHAPEL

We were well pleased with the attendance at Sunday school Sunday. There were 101 present. You should hear the children sing, it is wonderful. And we are proud to see so many children as well as grown ups come and take part. The leaders take such an interest, especially in the children. Those attending services Sunday night, were rewarded by hearing a very earnest and appreciative sermon by the pastor, Mr. Parrish. His subject was "Depression of the Soul." We have something to meditate on. We will begin having prayer meeting Sunday night at 7:30 at the church. All are invited. We are hoping to receive many blessings through these meetings, preparatory to our revival which begins the 4th. Sunday night at 7:30.

Miss Johnnie Belle Woodruff is spending several weeks in Durham, with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Mitchell. "Chuck" Woodruff is home from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Lelia King of Durham spent last week with her son Charlie and other relatives and friends.

Relatives and friends of Newell Hodge will be glad to know that he is assistant manager of Hotel Phoenix, Bath, Maine.

All of the farmers in this section who have tobacco have begun barning. Although most were late in getting plants to hoe after setting them in the fields and the dry weather held it back from growing, we are very much pleased with what we have. About half of the amount we had last year. Those who have cured report good results.

I would like to say—Through this paper—for the benefit of some one who would like to live in a good farming section another year that around Union Chapel and surrounding community is fine farming land. Seldom, if ever fails to produce good crops if we do our part. A fine community to live in. A good Sunday school and church, a good pastor and convenient to get to. As it is in the center from Wakfield and Hopkins Chapel school trucks run by nearly every home, going to one of the best schools in the state, Wakelon.

We invite a lot of good people to move in our neighborhood another year and join with us in Sunday school and church work as well as farming. We should all be more interested in the work of Soul Salvation than the comforts and pleasures of this life.

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

FOWLERS BRIDGE

The tobacco crops in our community are about as good as could be expected, considering the dry spells they have undergone.

Miss Virginia Mitchell spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. Grover Pearce.

Miss Vivian Perry returned home Sunday after spending a week in Raleigh with Miss Mildred Horton.

Miss Daphne Watkins of near Bethany spent a few days last week with Miss Mary Etta Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Horton spent two days last week at Chocowinity with Mrs. Horton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore.

People in this community were much surprised on Sunday to learn of the marriage of Miss Ivey Perry of this section to Mr. Coley Bridgers of Rocky Mount.

Mr. Layford Perry and wife spent Sunday with his father, L. W. Perry.

Mrs. C. C. Perry and Mrs. Eugene Mitchell visited in Wendell Sunday.

Mr. Lawrence Bridgers of Rocky Mount is spending a few days in this community.

Mrs. Lozy Baker spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Perry.

Mrs. Lillian Baker and Misses Christine Duke, Willie and Pattie Lucille Perry and Etura Strother called to see Mrs. Marvin Horton Tuesday.

HEPHZIBAH NEWS

We are glad to report Mrs. M. B. Perry improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Horton and daughter Jeanette visited in the home of T. P. Baker Sunday afternoon.

Dr. J. H. Ihrle and daughter, Mrs. Joe Palmer, visited Mrs. Jim Coley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. W. Horton and family visited J. G. Perry Sunday.

Mr. Elvis Perry and wife of Durham spent several days last week with his parents.

Marjorie Robertson spent last weekend with Doris Sherron.

Currituck.—With the bottom reached in prices for sweet potatoes, farmers in this section are leaving their potatoes lying in the fields to avoid the expense of digging and marketing.

Until last week growers had been offered approximately a dollar a barrel for sweets. Now that the bottom has fallen out of the market, farmers accept anything offered when they bring their potatoes to the market. Most of the dealers say they cannot handle any more shipments at present.
