CLEAN-UP DAY COMING.

Be Ready with the Goods When the Boys After Prize Money Calls—Be Sure to Chuck in the Tin Cans.

Editor Tribune:—Anticipating the clean-up day, people of the city are beginning to gather trash. Trash is carted away by the hundreds of loads last year and yet there was a nest egg left and no doubt there are many sky high piles if all were gathered. "Clean-up Day" this year should be fully appreciated. One such effort proved the worth of the scheme, and who knows but that the city was saved much sickness by the purification of lots and alleys?

There will be many busy boys, working singly and in groups, all after some of the prizes.

But do not depend on the boys for all. Do not expect them to go into the lot and gather up the trash. Have it ready for the boys. Pile out where they can readily get it, but by no means expect some one else to do that.

Do not forget the old tin cans. How cans do accumulate. They seem almost to grow so rapidly do they accumulate. The can, too, is a dangerous thing. It has been condemned by all health authorities and must go. Let everyone lying out go to the trash pile. Allow none to lie around to breed the mosquitoes.

Get started early in this work; do not wait. A little can is a dangerous thing especially if turned up to catch water, and becomes a home for many mosquitoes.

The clean up will cost the city several hundred dollars. It will be worth many more. No telling how much sickness is saved by a thorough scouring of the city.

Don't leave the cans for the census enumerators. He is after live folks and cans don't count with "Uncle Sam."

Not how big a city, but how good and how clean.

Finally brethren, clean up. Pile out your trash. We all have it in abundance and a good search will reveal it. Let the trash gathering begin.

COMMITTEE.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom and mercy, has seen fit to remove from among us our beloved friend and elder brother, Col. Paul B. Means, therefore be it resolved:

First, That the Dialectic Society loses in him a faithful member and the University a loyal son.

Second, That although we are deeply conscious of our loss, we rejoice in a life so nobly spent in the upbuilding of the University and in the betterment and uplift of the people of the State.

Third, That we extend to his loved ones our deepest sympathy and express to them our appreciation of his useful life and his kindly interest in the welfare of our Society and that of the University.

Fourth, That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and that copies be sent for publication to the University Magazine, The Tar Heel, The Concord Tribune, The News and Observer, The Charlotte Observer and The Greensboro Daily News.

Pleasant Birthday Remembrance.

Miss Edna Correll gave her mother, Mrs. E. F. Correll, a pleasant surprise yesterday, when she invited several lady friends to come and spend an hour at Mrs. Correll's bedside. All the ladies came and brought some fancy work to do and a most delightful hour, from 3 to 4 o'clock, was spent, during which time Miss Edna served refreshments. The ladies present were: Mesdames A. H. Propst, W. R. Harris, W. C. Boyd, E. C. Wagoner, D. B. Coltrane, W. C. Correll and Mrs. J. F. Dayvault, each of whom presented Mr. Correll with a birthday souvenir. Several others among Mrs. Correll's friends also sent her remembrances of the day.

Ball Game Here Tomorrow.

A game of ball will be played here tomorrow on the Forest Hill diamond between the Lock Mill and Mt. Pleasant teams. The line-up will be: Cook, Kiziah, Smith, Rose, Hughes, Alfred, Trexler. Battery: Searingen and Miller. The game will be called at 3:30. Much interest is being manifested in this game, as it has been some time since a game has been played on the Forest Hill diamond.

No More Night Work at the Brown Mill.

We are informed that after Friday night of this week there will be no more night work at the Brown cotton mill. This mill has been run at night almost ever since it was started several years ago. This announcement is in line with the curtailment movement which was decided on at the meeting of mill men some days ago.

INTERURBAN TROLLEY LINE.

Views of Mr. G. Ed Kestler on Proposed Line from Greensboro to Anderson, S. C.

The announcement that the Dukes will build an interurban trolley line, for both passenger and freight business, from Greensboro to Anderson, S. C., is creating much interest all along the line. Mr. G. Ed Kestler, chairman of the board of county commissioners, gives The Tribune the following as his views in regard to this line:

He says as the Messrs. Duke have stated to the press that they will build an interurban trolley line uniting Greensboro, Salisbury, Concord, Charlotte and the South Carolina towns provided the people along the proposed line show some appreciation for and take some interest in said proposition we should show our inclination to welcome this great movement in our midst. It is true a company is now building a line here but he thinks it would no doubt either be an independent link in this chain or else be willing to join in said general line. In either case we would be the beneficiary of said enterprise. If the promoters of this line will tell us what is necessary for us to do to co-operate in the work it would be the part of wisdom to do it and thus bring an enterprise here that would redound greatly to our industrial growth. Such things spell progress of untold value to any community, and our people will encourage all efforts looking in this direction. In ten years we would have an almost continuous chain of towns all along this line and we could hardly estimate the value resultant from such a situation. In Virginia, in the North and West these lines have wrought wonderful things to these sections. If this movement is dependent upon our co-operation let us start to co-operate. It takes big money and big people to do big things and the Dukes are such people and they should be welcomed here. We should find out what the requirements are of these gentlemen and if the conditions are liberal and conducive to our good, then take steps to meet them.

Colored Man Goes Insane.

Gene Cannon, a young negro man, was locked up here yesterday afternoon by the officers. Cannon's mind has been weak for some time and yesterday he seemed to become suddenly insane. He lives on Capt. H. B. Clark's place, about four miles from the city. He came to Concord Saturday and has been here since that time. Those who have been with him say that he has shown signs of insanity for several days.

When arrested yesterday afternoon by the officers he resisted arrest and being a large and powerful negro, it proved a difficult task to get him to the Sheriff's office. He was confined in the office for a short time and later taken to jail, where he will remain until the application for his admission to the insane asylum is acted upon. The application was made several days ago. While in the Sheriff's office the negro quoted several verses from the Bible and boasted of his strength. His conversation clearly showed that he had completely lost his reason. He has two brothers in the asylum.

Cannon was in our office Monday night, and left an ad for the Penny Column, saying that he had gone to Washington "in the interest of his brother, David Cannon, of Norwich, Conn." He acted queerly at that time.

Reformed Church Classis.

The North Carolina Classis of the Reformed church will meet in eightieth annual session in Zion Reformed church, Lenoir, Wednesday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock. The opening sermon will be preached by the retiring president, Rev. S. W. Beck, of Lexington.

This body comprises in the State a membership of 7,000 confirmed and unconfirmed. It supports two institutions of learning, Catawba College at Newton and Claremont College for Women at Hickory. It also supports Nazareth Orphans' Home at Crescent, Rowan county. The members of this denomination are active in both home and foreign missions. Among the items of importance to be attended to this year will be the election of delegates to the General Synod which meets in Trinity Reformed church, Canton, O., May 16, 1911; also delegates to the Synod of the Potomac (district synod) which meets in Christ Reformed church, Altoona, Pa., October 30. The classis at Lenoir will be composed of sixty ministers and elders.

Thinks Roosevelt Will Run.

John T. McCutcheon, cartoonist and writer, for some time with Theodore Roosevelt in Africa, is returning to America on the steamer Asia. McCutcheon predicts that Colonel Roosevelt will again become President, and says that whenever the matter was mentioned the Colonel avoided all participation in the discussion.

MT. PLEASANT NEWS.

Messrs. Paul Lentz and Rufus Foil, of Salisbury, visited their parents here Sunday.

Mr. Lee Foil brought his new Courier from Salisbury last week.

The automobile which is operated by the Mt. Pleasant Transfer Co. was brought over from Concord Monday and is now making its regular trips.

Rev. S. A. Wysong, of Pennsylvania, will preach at the Reformed church Sunday morning. He will probably fill the vacancy made by Dr. Williams.

The Concord graded school team came over Tuesday evening and defeated the second team of the Institute by a score of 4 to 0. The game was fast and interesting from start to finish.

The Institute team played St. Mary's a tight game Saturday. The score resulted in a tie of six and six. The boys will go down Saturday to give them another game.

The recital given by the music students of the Seminary Monday night was much appreciated by a large audience. This splendid entertainment reflects much credit on the director of this department.

Death of a Former Concord Lady in Mississippi.

A letter has been received by relatives in the city telling of the death of Miss Margaret Spears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spears, formerly of No. 1 township, this county, which occurred on the 22nd of April at her home in Water Valley, Miss. Miss Spears was born in this county and moved away with her parents when she was eight years old. She was a niece of Mr. D. B. Porter of this city, and has a number of relatives throughout the county. Miss Spears visited relatives in this county about three years ago and made a large number of friends. The letter stated that she died with pellagra, but did not state how long she had been sick. She had been teaching school the past winter and her school closed only a short time ago.

See The Times for Job Printing.

A SUCCESSFUL CONCORD BOY.

Mr. Theodore Smith One of the Foremost Designers in the South.

Mr. Theodore S. Smith, son of Mr. W. M. Smith, of Concord, is winning honors as one of the most expert designers in the South. For several years he was designer in the big printing establishment of his brother-in-law, at San Antonio, Texas, but recently The J. P. Bell Co., of Lynchburg, Va., one of the largest printing firms in Virginia, has secured him. In announcing this acquisition Bell & Co. say of Mr. Smith:

"Owing to the great increase in our Catalogue, Booklet and Designing Departments we have employed Mr. Theo. S. Smith, whose talent we believe will very materially strengthen our organization. Mr. Smith has been connected for the past eleven years with one of the leading printing establishments of the South. We are very fortunate in securing his services, and we are confident the public will show their appreciation of our bringing such a high class man to this city."

"Mr. Smith's ability as a designer of Catalogues, Booklets, Folders and Advertising Matter is recognized by the highest authorities. He will be glad to give valuable advice to any one desiring artistic printing; has made a thorough study of the business, and knows how to obtain results."

"Our reputation as high class printers has been well known for more than fifty years, and we feel that Mr. Smith's connection with us will perfect us in the above departments, as is a man 'Who Knows and Does Things.'"

Red Men Here Next Week.

The Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men, of North Carolina will meet in Concord May 4th and 5th. Great preparations are being made by the local lodge for the entertainment of their visiting brothers. A big parade of the "Indians" over the streets of the city will be a feature of the meeting. Over a hundred delegates are expected to attend the meeting and will be entertained at the St. Cloud-Normandy and Mr. Norman is making special arrangements for the accommodation of the visiting delegates.

Mr. Jno. C. Smith Sinking Fast.

Mr. Ira Melhaffey received a telegram from Asheville this afternoon at 1:20 o'clock saying that his brother-in-law, Mr. Jno. C. Smith, was sinking fast, and that he could live only a few hours. He had been much worse for several days. The host of friends here of Mr. Smith will hear this news with genuine regret, although it has been known for some time that he could not live long.

Trinity College Commencement.

Trinity commencement will this year embrace June 5 to 8. Rev. W. J. Dawson D. D., will deliver the baccalaureate address, and Hon. Charles Sager, Secretary of Commerce and Labor, will deliver the annual address. The annual address before the Alumni Association will be delivered by Senator Simmons, and a poem appropriate to the occasion will be read by Rev. Plato Durham.

Interesting Political Development.

Hickory Democrat.
There is an interesting political development in the State. Ex-Governor Glenn had promised ex-Governor Aycock to support him for the United States Senate. He secured a written statement from Mr. Aycock to the effect that he is not now a candidate. Mr. Glenn has therefore promised his support to Governor W. W. Kitchin, which means, of course, that the Governor is an aspirant for the senatorship against Senator Simmons. The incident is further interpreted to mean that Mr. Glenn will make a hard fight to succeed Senator Lee S. Overman.

Farmers Should Replant in Corn, Not in Cotton.

Atlanta Constitution.
"Every farmer whose cotton has been injured should replant in corn and not attempt to grow a second stand of cotton," said Commissioner of Agriculture T. G. Hudson yesterday in discussing the effect which the recent cold wave has had on the fleecy staple.

"Cotton never grows well when planted where it has been killed by the cold," continued Mr. Hudson, and it is also rather late in the season to be planting cotton. The fact that 35 or 40 per cent. of the crop has been ruined by the cold means that what the farmer loses in quantity he will counterbalance by the increased price it will bring, so that he will suffer very little, if any at all, financially, as a result of the cold wave."

Mr. Hudson states that a number of farmers have already told him they expect to plant corn in the places where the cotton was killed.

The schools of Wilkes county pledged $75 to the Jackson Training School at Concord and raised $90. So far only five counties in the State have raised the amount pledged to the school, Wilkes being among the first.
