

THE PRIMARIES SATURDAY

HELD IN ALL THE COUNTIES OF THE STATE ON THE SAME DAY.

Result as to Manning and Allen in Doubt—No one Nominated for Solicitor in this District—Doughton Probably in the Lead for Congress—Boyd Nominated for the Senate in Rowan.

All the counties in the State which hold primaries at all held them last Saturday. Many counties—more than was anticipated—did not hold county primaries at all.

There seems to have been no voting on the congressional candidates in several of the counties of this district. Rowan goes for Murphy, Iredeil for Caldwell and Taylorsville for Gwaltney.

Based on claims made by the respective managers of the two candidates on the counties which have expressed themselves, Judge Allen has received majorities in 28 counties, and Justice Manning 23.

The following counties will be practically even: Cabarrus, Catawba, Edgecombe, Gaston, Granville, Lee, Mecklenburg, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Union, Vance.

Of the five men in the race for solicitor in the twelfth judicial district the indications are that Smith and Shannonhouse will go into the convention that is to be held in Gastonia July 7.

No one has the nomination on the first ballot. There are 240 votes in the district convention, and they will be divided about as follows: Shannonhouse 73, Smith 72, Childs 31, Wilson 44, Mangum 20.

According to the returns from Mecklenburg county, of the 85 votes allotted, Mr. Smith, who received a total of 1,979 votes in the primary will get 42.03 votes in the convention.

In Gaston there were but two candidates in the race, Messrs. A. G. Mangum and George W. Wilson, the indications being that Wilson carried the county in a ratio of about 85 to 35 per cent.

Lincoln of course went solid for Childs. This will give him 26 votes. The convention will meet in Gastonia July 7.

In the Congressional Districts. In the third, fifth, sixth, eighth and tenth districts the Democratic standard bearers are in dispute.

In the third, fifth, sixth, eighth and tenth districts the Democratic standard bearers are in dispute. In the other five districts, the first, second, fourth, seventh and ninth, the present able representatives have no opposition and will be unanimously endorsed by their respective district conventions.

Based on the latest returns obtainable this is the situation in the contested districts:

Third District—Representative C. R. Thomas will probably receive the renomination.

In the Fifth District the result is in doubt between the four candidates, Steadman, Mebane, Jones and Royster.

In the sixth district a hard fight has been made against Godwin. He seems to be in the lead, but not enough to secure his nomination.

Based on printed and private reports J. M. Gudger, Jr., will go into the tenth district convention with a sufficient number of votes to nominate him on the first ballot as the opponent of John G. Grant (Republican) the incumbent.

In the Democratic primaries Saturday in Rowan the closest contest was for the county judgeship and the final count as announced Sunday gives Judge B. B. Miller, the present judge of this court, a total vote in the county of 1,141 and J. C. Keesler, Esq., a total of 1,136, a majority of 5 for Miller.

For sheriff the incumbent, James H. McKenzie, has a majority of 273 over J. S. Hall. This is a larger majority than he had two years ago when he defeated the late Sheriff J. Hodge Kridler.

Mr. A. H. Boyd won the greatest victory of the contest and has a majority of between 600 and 700 over Mr. W. B. Smoot for the State Senate. The indications are that W. D. Pethel, of Spencer, and W. D. Coleman, of lower Rowan, have been nominated for the lower house of the General Assembly.

The fight in Wake was long and bitter. The ring carried the city of Raleigh by majorities ranging from 300 to 500, but there was a landslide for the insurgents in the country precincts.

According to latest reports the result in Wake seems to be in doubt. It looks like Sears for Sheriff and Russ for Clerk of Court, both regulars, have won over the insurgents.

The Iredeil primary re-nominated Z. V. Long, for Senate; Z. V. Turlington and N. D. Tomlin, representative, and all other county officers including J. A. Hartness, clerk, without opposition.

In Mecklenburg W. C. Dowd, W. A. Grier and W. G. McLaughlin are nominated for the House and H. N. Pharr for the Senate.

News was received here this morning of the death of Mr. Jesse Skeen, one of the oldest citizens of Mt. Pleasant, which occurred there last evening about 7 o'clock. The cause of his death was acute Bright's disease.

Mr. Skeen was 78 years of age. He went to Mt. Pleasant 40 years ago, and operated a blacksmith shop there for 35 years.

Mr. Skeen held the Baptist church, though we believe he was not a member of any church. He was a good man and most useful citizen. He was kind in his ministrations to the sick, and his genial presence will be much missed in Mt. Pleasant.

The funeral service will be conducted this afternoon by Rev. N. R. Richardson and the interment made in the Methodist cemetery at Mt. Pleasant.

PRIMARIES IN THE COUNTY

D. B. SMITH CARRIES COUNTY FOR SOLICITOR—JUDGESHIP VOTE VERY CLOSE.

Doughton in the Lead for Congress—County Ticket Named Without Opposition—Lee Carries County for Corporation Commissioner.

Rev. Dr. Davis to Leave Concord.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Davis, the venerable and beloved rector of All Saints Episcopal church, will in the course of the next ten days tender to the congregation his resignation as rector of the church. Dr. Davis will also resign his work at Lexington. He and Mrs. Davis will move from here to Athens, Ga., and make their home with their son, Mr. W. J. Davis.

Dr. Davis has been rector of All Saints church for the past seventeen years, and both he and Mrs. Davis are universally beloved by the people of Concord.

During his residence here Dr. Davis has been closely associated with the people of all classes and denominations and his life has been a powerful influence for good in this community.

The people of Concord will, without an exception, regret that he has decided to leave here. He and Mrs. Davis will leave for Athens the last of August or the first of September.

ELECTRICAL STORM NEAR CHARLOTTE.

Animals Killed and Much Damage Done to Fruit.

A violent electrical storm, accompanied by heavy rains, broke over Hoskins, a suburb three miles west of Charlotte Saturday night, and did much damage. Two houses, one occupied, were struck by lightning, but fortunately no one was injured.

The rain, which was in the nature of a near cloudburst, was blown in under the roof of the Chadwick-Hoskins cotton mill No. 1, and poured through the spinning room. The machinery was seriously damaged.

Residents in that section were terribly frightened. Blinds were blown off the houses, fences were blown down and other such damage done to the homes. It is also reported, but cannot be authenticated, that a man was struck by the lightning and slightly injured.

Water rose five feet in two hours' time in the lake at Lakewood park, which is between Hoskins and the city.

The weather man says that it was a purely local affair, and that he had no forecast of it whatever.

A Child of the Ghetto. With the death of her mother, little Ruth is left an orphan, and henceforth she is compelled to fight the world alone.

The blame for a theft is placed upon her by the real thief. Ruth escapes the police, however, and trudging through the country she falls into a faint.

A farmer passing by takes her to his home and places her in the care of his mother. As time goes a strong attachment grows between the young farmer and the girl, until a betrothal is imminent. At this time one of the police officers who detailed on Ruth's case is granted a vacation, and with a friend goes for a day's fishing. Here he meets Ruth but a glance into her honest face convinces him of her innocence.

A telephone message from Gastonia this morning says that Mr. G. W. Wilson, candidate for solicitor, will have 46 votes in the judicial convention at Gastonia July 7.
