PASTOR FOR ST. JAMES.

Council Unanimously Nominates Rev. C. P. McLaughlin, of Pennsylvania.

At a meeting of the council of St. James Lutheran church, held yesterday, Rev. Charles P. McLaughlin, of Myersdale, Pa., was unanimously endorsed to the congregation for pastor. Mr. McLaughlin was here about three weeks ago, and preached two sermons at St. James. The congregation and all who heard him were greatly pleased with him, both as a man and a preacher, and the endorsement of the council is the result of the visit. The congregation of St. James will meet Sunday, July 31, to vote on the council's nomination, and no doubt Mr. McLaughlin will be unanimously called as pastor.

Mr. McLaughlin is about 39 years of age, and his family consists of his wife and three children. It is probable that he will accept the call when tendered him, and if so he will move his family to Concord about October 1st.

A United Democracy.

Mr. Jno. M. Julian, in his write-up of the congressional convention for his paper, the Salisbury Post, says:

This much is certain—the Democracy of the district is in better fettle than it has been since 1902, and this is not mere whistling to keep up courage, either. Gov. Doughton told me his section of the district is in better shape than it has been for years. Representative Bonis said the same of Ashe, while the Iredell, Cabarrus and Stanly folks are all talking big Democratic figures. After discounting a good deal of the confidence expressed by the twenty or more leading Democrats I have interviewed today, I feel sanguine over the prospects.

Additional Pensions.

The county pension board met this morning and the following pensions, not previously reported, were granted: Soldiers, W. A. Coleman, J. W. Clark and A. D. Melton; widows, Elizabeth Smith, Martha J. Eury and Eliza J. Williams. This makes a total of seven soldiers and six widows of soldiers to be granted pensions for this year. During the year four soldiers and four widows have died, making an increase of four in the pension list of this county.

Jubilee Convention in Salisbury.

All delegates chosen to represent the Auxiliary Societies of the Woman's Missionary work within the bounds of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod, to attend the Jubilee convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies to be held in St. Johns Lutheran church, Salisbury, N. C., beginning August 25th, 1910, will please send in their names as early as possible to the undersigned.

MRS. CHAS. M. BROWN,
Secretary,
July 18, 1910. Salisbury, N. C.

Veterans' Picnic.

The annual Confederate veterans picnic will be held at the court house in this city August 9th. Committees have been appointed in various townships to assist in the arrangements that are being made to make this the largest picnic ever held by the veterans of this county.

Marriage license was issued Saturday to Mr. A. J. Sims and Miss Katie Whitley.

Republican Primaries.

The county Republican primaries will be held Saturday, July 30th, at 2 o'clock in the county and at 8 o'clock in the city, the places to be designated in the regular call, which will be published later. The county convention will be held August 6th, when the county ticket will be nominated.

Popular Excursion to Richmond, Tuesday, July 19, 1910.

Southern Railway will operate their Popular Annual Excursion to Richmond, Tuesday July 19. Low round trip rate of $4.50 will apply from Concord and all stations from Charlotte to Linwood inclusive. This elegant train, consisting of Pullman sleeping cars, first class coaches and separate cars for colored people, will leave Charlotte 8 p. m. arriving at Richmond 6:30 Wednesday morning, July 20th. All tickets sold will be good returning on any of the regular trains up to and including Thursday, July 21st, which will afford ample time to visit the many attractions in and around this magnificent city.

John C. Davis, the North Carolina attorney, who swindled Washington people, mostly women, out of some two hundred thousand dollars, gets sixteen years in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas. It will be recalled that Davis is the individual, who posing as a church worker in Wilmington, some twenty years ago, stung the people of that community to the extent of thousands of dollars.

FOREST HILL NEWS.

Mr. Hornbuckle Preaches at Forest Hill—Reception at Mr. Wright's—Personal Notes.

Rev. J. P. Hornbuckle, of Reidsville, delivered a strong sermon to a large congregation at Forest Hill Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Hornbuckle spent several years in this community before entering the ministry and many hearty hand-clasps were given him by old friends and companions. Mr. and Mrs. Will Wood, of MeColl, S. C., are visiting at the home of Mr. Jno. R. Wood. They will spend several weeks in the city.

Mr. J. C. Keller spent Sunday in Kings Mountain with home folks. Mrs. H. C. Raimer has returned home after a visit of several weeks at Wrightsville.

Mrs. C. R. Allison, of Hot Springs, N. C., arrived in the city Saturday night and will spend several weeks with her father, Mr. J. M. Burrage.

Mr. J. A. Lisk, of Mt. Gilead, spent several days last week in the city with his sister, Mrs. S. V. Stewart, on North Church street.

Mr. Martin Eudy, of Charlotte, spent Sunday in the city with his father, Mr. H. D. Eudy.

Mrs. Cornelia Mills has returned to her home in the city after spending two weeks in Spray with relatives.

Mr. Eli T. Goldston spent several hours in Charlotte last Friday afternoon.

Misses Pearl Wash and Daisy Sherrill, of Charlotte, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright. Saturday night a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wright in honor of the visiting young ladies at which a number of invited friends were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

The Taft Prosperity Promised Failed to Arrive.

Mr. Alvin Horton, who is Congressman Webb's private secretary, writing to the Raleigh News and Observer from Statesville, where he attended the eighth district congressional convention, says of the situation in Cabarrus:

"In Cabarrus there is unprecedented dissatisfaction with the Republican tariff bill, even among those who have been the most ardent advocates of protection. It has brought, instead of the anticipated prosperity, losses to the mill man and idleness to hundreds of operatives. If there is any likelihood in that county of the election of a single Republican this fall—last year the entire Republican ticket was elected—it is not now apparent to those acquainted with Cabarrus affairs, and I have talked with many. In and near Concord there are twenty cotton mills and perhaps 4,000 operatives, many of the in idleness and distress, and none, neither mill nor laborer, in hope of a betterment of the mill industry."

Cabarrus Fair to Mr. Murphy.

Salisbury Post. Ashe, Alleghany, and Watagua stuck to Doughton like a leech from the start. Stanly and Cabarrus shifted their strength from time to time but they were fair to the Rowan candidate. While Murphy received 7 votes in the Cabarrus convention none of his representatives attended the Statesville convention and the whole Cabarrus vote could have been taken from him on any ballot. The delegation was exceedingly fair, however, and on one ballot gave the Rowan candidate its solid vote. Stanly was equally as just.

Special Rates to Wilmington, N. C., on Regular Trains 40 and 44 July 20th Via Seaboard Air Line Railway.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway will operate special excursion rates on trains 40 and 44 Wednesday, July 20th, leaving Charlotte 4:50 a. m. and 5 p. m. Rate for the round trip from Charlotte will be $3.00. The tickets will be good to return on any regular train up to and including July 22d. Tickets will be sold from points Charlotte to Wadesboro inclusive. This is the cheapest excursion ever operated on regular trains. See flyers for information.

JAMES KER, JR., T. P. A.
Charlotte, N. C.
H. S. LEARD, D. P. A., Raleigh, N. C.

Aerial tragedies are happening often these days. In one afternoon we get the news of the tragic death of Charles Stewart Rolls at Bourne-mouth; next morning a German balloon is wrecked, killing its five occupants. Since that first fatal accident at Fort Myer, when the breaking of Orville Wright's propeller caused the death of Lieut. Selfridge, the death list on such accounts has been steadily growing and, we suppose, will continue to grow.

Messrs. A. Burwell, Jr., and J. A. C. Wadsworth, of Charlotte, spent yesterday in the city.

MONT AMOENA SEMINARY.

Miss Ethelyn Crabtree Will Teach English There Again Next Session.

Miss Ethelyn Crabtree, who taught English and Expression in Mont Amoena Seminary so acceptably for several years, has been secured for that work this session. Miss Crabtree was well qualified for her work when she taught at Mont Amoena, being a graduate of Roanoke College with high class standing; but since that time she has taken the A. M. degree from Roanoke College and also took a three years' course in Virginia College, making a specialty of English and Expression. The following is what her teachers say of her work in Virginia College:

"Miss Crabtree has been for three years a student of the Virginia College School of Expression. It gives us pleasure to testify that she has been in every way a most satisfactory pupil. Her earnestness and application, added to natural ability and a mind conversant with the best literature, can not fail to make her a successful worker in the field of Expression. Miss Crabtree's work under me covered the scope required for graduation in the Virginia College School of Expression. I most heartily recommend her to any one requiring a teacher of Expression. She has my perfect confidence and endorsement. It is with pleasure that I have the opportunity of testifying to the excellent work and the appreciation of English literature which characterize Miss Crabtree. In my opinion she would admirably fill any position she might accept."

Death of Former Concord Lady in High Point.

Mr. J. C. Fink received a telegram this morning from Mrs. Fink, who is in High Point, announcing the death of Mrs. Emma Atkinson, who died in that city this morning. Before her first marriage to Mr. William Wine-coff, of this county, she was Miss Emma Kimbro, also of this county, where she had a large number of friends. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Lizzie Wine-coff, of High Point. The remains will arrive here tomorrow morning on No. 11 and the interment will be made at Oakwood cemetery.

Cotton is Highest Since Sulley Year.

Not since the memorial Sulley campaign of 1903-04 has cotton sold as high as it did in New York last Saturday. The July option advanced about 20 points to 16.53, or about $1 a bale above last night's closing. This was due solely to a continuation of the short scare that had been responsible for the advance of more than $5 a bale last week.

We respectfully ask the pastors of all the churches of the city to hand us in every Saturday morning notices for the following Sunday services. We prefer a written notice to be sent, so as to avoid mistakes, but where this is not convenient the telephone may be used. We shall be glad to publish all church notices free of charge.

Speaker Cannon Seriously Ill.

Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, while speaking at the Chautauqua at Winfield, Kansas, Saturday afternoon, suffered a temporary collapse and was compelled to stop speaking. He revived sufficiently to apologize to his audience and said: "Am better; nothing serious."

Great anxiety is felt by his friends. Mr. Cannon had not been feeling well since he arrived from Kansas City in the morning. He had nearly finished his speech when, after taking a drink of ice water, he began to talk incoherently.

Mr. Williams Leaves the Training School.

Mr. W. H. Williams, of Alexander county, who has been assistant superintendent of the Jackson Training School since last September, has resigned that position, and he will leave tomorrow for his former home near Hiddenite. Mr. Williams's family left several days ago. Mr. Williams was formally principal of the graded schools here. His work at the Training School will be done by John W. Cook, who recently became associated with the school.

Mr. Harris a Good Guesser.

The Asheville Gazette-News says: "W. R. Harris of the Harris Furniture Company has been awarded the third prize offered by the Athens Table company of Athens, Tenn., the amount being $15. The prizes offered were for the nearest guesses to the amount of the increase of business the Athens concern did the first half of last year. Mr. Harris proves that he is not only a good furniture man, but a fine guesser as well."

Home News Away from Home.

Concord people who leave the city, either for a short or long stay—whether they go to mountain or seashore—should not fail to order The Daily Tribune sent to them by mail at 40 cents a month.
