THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Nominates County and Legislative Ticket and Listens to Speeches by Messrs. Cowles and Pearson.

The Republican county convention met at the court house this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The convention was called to order by County Chairman H. S. Williams. Every voting precinct in the county was represented except No. 3 township, where only one Republican attended the primaries and no delegates were elected. There were no delegates from No. 4 but several republicans were present and these were made delegates by the convention.

Mr. H. S. Williams was made permanent chairman and Messrs. C. L. Sims and Chas. R. Andrew, secretaries.

Messrs. M. F. Teeter and C. D. Barringer were placed in nomination for the State Senate. The vote was as follows: Teeter 42 1-3, Barringer 30 1-2. Mr. Teeter was declared the nominee.

H. S. Williams was nominated for the House of Representatives by acclamation.

A. H. Peninger and W. L. Robbins were placed in nomination for Clerk of Court. The vote was taken but before the result was announced Mr. Robbins moved that his opponent be nominated by acclamation, which was done.

Sheriff J. F. Honeycutt was nominated by acclamation to succeed himself. His nomination brought forth the first applause of the convention.

James F. Harris was nominated for Register of Deeds by acclamation.

For Treasurer W. A. Overcash was nominated by acclamation.

For Coroner Howard Caldwell was nominated without opposition.

Harkey were placed in nomination for commissioners. The following were nominated: G. Ed Kestler, Frank Goodman, G. S. Klutz, W. A. Kindley and J. P. Morrison. Upon motion of Col. Bill Newell, who stated that as No. 10 always asked for much and received little, he moved the nominations be made unanimous. For the benefit of Col. Wade H. Harris, who has so vigorously fought for the nomination of Col. Newell, we will state that Col. Newell received 1140 votes.

Congressman Cowles and Col. W. Pearson will speak before the convention this afternoon.

Tom Ragan in a Wreck.

The following from Friday's Salisbury Post will be read with interest as the young man referred to once lived here.

Mr. J. H. Ragan received notice several days ago that his son, Mr. Thomas O. Ragan, was painfully injured in a head-on collision of a passenger and freight train on the B. & O. railroad, near Parkersburg, W. Va., early Monday morning. Young Ragan was a brakeman on the freight and was covered up in the wreckage. Engineer A. G. Lancaster and Fireman J. C. Gilchrist, of the passenger train were seriously hurt in the collision.

These were the only persons injured and they were taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Parkersburg. Mr. Ragan has telegraphed to have his boy sent home as soon as he is able to come.

Cabarrus County Should be Likewise, Charlotte Observer.

Alamance county is bestirring itself to establish a hospital. The county commissioners have donated ten acres of land on the macadamized road between Burlington and Graham and $3,000 has been raised in Burlington alone for the project. Tomorrow a house-to-house canvass will be begun to increase this amount. Medical science has advanced so greatly in the last generation that many lives are now saved which would formerly have been considered doomed but without hospital facilities and trained nursing the doctors are unable to secure the best results. On the very material basis of dollars and cents it will not take the proposed institution many months to repay the investment made by saving lives which would otherwise have been lost.

STATE GEOLOGIST HERE.

Visits Concord in Interest of Good Roads—Finds Roads in Cabarrus Compare Favorably with Other Counties.

Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist and member of the faculty of the University of North Carolina, spent last night in the city, traveling in the North Carolina Geological Survey Good Roads car, enroute from Chapel Hill to Asheville. Dr. Pratt is one of the leaders in the work of conservation of North Carolina's resources, and as the building and maintaining of good roads forms a very important part of this work he is devoting a large portion of his time to this department. When the highway from Chapel Hill to Asheville is complete it will go from Chapel Hill to Charlotte via Gastonia, Rutherfordton, Hickory Nut Gap and through Henderson county. The survey of the portion of this road in Cleveland county is completed and the work is now in progress.

The highway from Charlotte to Raleigh, with the exception of Davidson county and Bingham township, in Orange county, is in excellent condition. Work of macadamizing the road in this township is now in progress. The people in Davidson county are alive to the necessity of good roads, and a number of townships have voted bonds to build these but owing to the depressed condition of the bond market the bonds have not been offered for sale.

When asked as to the condition of the roads in this county, Dr. Pratt stated that they would compare favorably with those found in most any other county. He stated that in counties where there were already a number of miles of macadam road and others being constructed that in the enthusiasm of building more good roads county officials failed to give the proper attention to the maintenance of the roads already constructed. Dr. Pratt further stated that every county should have a Good Roads Association and the management of the roads should be free from politics and under the supervision of a capable road engineer.

Dr. Pratt was accompanied by Mr. Elden Bayley, road assistant, and they were driving a Chalmers "30." The following card is being distributed by Dr. Pratt among the users of the good roads in the different counties:

How to Keep this Road for Years.
This road was constructed for your use.

Don't drive in one track. Avoid making ruts.

If all use one place all the wear will be in one place and make a rut.

If you use a little care and do not drive exactly where the last wagon did the wear will be distributed, which road will remain good for years otherwise it will keep the surface smooth and the wise it will soon be rutted and the smooth surface gone.

Refused to Die When Wife Wouldn't Promise Not to Remarry.

Charlotte News.
"The Virginian who expressed the wish in his will that his wife should marry again if it would contribute to her happiness, and that she and her second husband should enjoy his estate during her lifetime, was evidently a broad minded citizen," says the Statesville Landmark. Very different was he from that gentleman of the lower Cape Fear section of several generations back, of whom this story used to be told. He was sick unto death and when told by his physician that he had but a few hours to live, had his wife summoned to his bedside for a farewell interview and instructions as to what he wished her to do after his death.

Among other requests he made the one that she would promise not to marry again. The wife, though in genuine and great distress, refused to give the promise, saying that, though she had no idea she would ever want to marry a second time, she did not know what circumstances might arise in the future, and that were she to make the promise she would feel in conscience bound to keep it, no matter what unforeseen conditions might arise.

After being repeatedly asked to make the promise, and as often refusing to do so, the supposedly dying husband became irate, and exclaimed: "Well, madam, if you won't promise not to marry again I be ——" using a word most improper at all times and especially so at a deathbed conference—"if I die!" and he proceeded immediately to improve and soon entirely recovered, he and his wife living happily together for many years.

The doctors said it was a case of the influence of mind over matter that will power conquered death where their medicines could not do so.

Meat in Competition with Cotton.

Statesville Sentinel.
There are many who contend that 100 pounds of pork can be raised at less cost than 100 pounds of cotton and brings a much better price. Be that as it may, the amount of cash received by Mr. E. F. Gass, one of North Irdelell's substantial farmers, for the country-cured meat he marketed here this week certainly is encouraging. He sold nine hams and ten sides to the Cash Grocery Company totaling 515 pounds, for which he received something like $100. Country cured meat is in demand at all times and our farmers should bear this in mind as they note the waste of fruit, etc., continually occurring on the farm.

Clarence Eddy Born in Charlotte (?)
Of course the linotype is responsible for it, and we can excuse it, for the bright and alert city editor of the Charlotte News Mrs. Addie William Caldwell, knew better, but Friday afternoon's News stated that Clarence Eddy, the world-famed organist, was born in Charlotte. Mrs. Caldwell, being one of the most accomplished musicians of the State herself, as well as one of the best news gatherers, is too well informed to make such a statement without some foundation, so perhaps she has some information which has been withheld from the rest of those so fortunate as to hold a position as news gatherer on a North Carolina newspaper. We heartily congratulate Charlotte, but wish to state that she has withheld this piece of news longer than was necessary.

Another Fool Shows Up.

Congressman Goodwin Confers With State Officials.
Congressman H. L. Godwin, of the sixth district, spent Friday in Raleigh and called on a number of State officials including Governor Kitehlin. It is understood the Governor is not taking sides at all in the contest that is on between Goodwin and Clark over the congressional nomination. However, he is outspoken in his insistence that there should be some adjustment that will restore party harmony.

Mr. J. B. Sherrill left Thursday morning in quest of a cooler climate. A message yesterday gave the information that he was at Balsam, in the western part of the State.

Mrs. T. E. Rogers and daughter, Miss Sadie, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. W. B. Bruton, have returned to their home in Asheville.

Upon the grounds that Locke Craig, chief counsel for G. C. Watkins, the Black Mountain constable, charged with killing John H. Bunting, a Wilmington man, at Black Mountain about a year ago, was too unwell to conduct the case at this time, Judge Council granted a continuance of the case until the November term of court. The State agreed to a continuance. This makes the third continuance, the defense and prosecuting each having one on account of inability to get witnesses. The case resulted in a mistrial last October.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Literary and Historical association has decided to defer the holding of the annual meeting usually held in October to whatever date in January may be selected later for the unveiling of the bust of Senator Matt W. Ransom by the historical commission. It is the purpose not only to pay special tribute to this occasion through the annual meeting at that time, but also to assemble the literary forces of the state at that time to press upon the members of the general assembly, which will be in session at that time, the necessity for a fireproof building to protect the state library and records generally.

A number of the small corner grocers and other merchants of Raleigh have had a number of pieces of counterfeit money passed on them the past few days, and the city and government authorities both are on the alert to trace down those responsible for it.

So far as the hearing of testimony of witnesses in open session are concerned, the commission investigating the state sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis has adjourned after spending two days at the sanatorium at Montrose and three strenuous days in Greensboro. The point of adjournment was reached at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. There was no argument of counsel—the hearing just stopped—and everybody went home.

Mrs. T. E. Rogers and daughter, Miss Sadie, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. W. B. Bruton, have returned to their home in Asheville.
