MAYOR GAYNOR IS RESTING VERY WELL.

Unless infection manifests itself there will be no operation to remove bullet.

Special to The Tribune.

New York, August 10.—Unless infection shows itself, there will be no operation on Mayor Gaynor, who was shot yesterday, to remove the split bullet. This is the decision made by the surgeons today following second inspection of the Mayor's throat. It is stated that it is remarkable that the bullet landed where it did without severing important blood vessels. A call was sent out today for all doctors in the case to hold consultation. Mr. Gaynor joked feebly with his wife and nurse this morning. Occasionally he had difficulty in breathing. His temperature is about normal. He has not mentioned name of his assailant. He takes it for granted that he is an irresponsible crank. Mr. Gaynor will be taken to the Adirondacks as soon as his condition will permit. President Taft today made inquiry over long distance telephone as to Mr. Gaynor's condition, and expressed himself pleased that he was doing so well. Gallagher broke down last night following conference with the attorney and cried. The lawyer told him that the public is much aroused and he is sure to get a long term imprisonment even if the Mayor recovered. Gallagher spent a wakeful night pacing up and down his cell. When asked what he wanted for breakfast said didn't want anything. Finally he ate a roll and drank a little coffee. After breakfast he complained of the injuries received in the tussle with "Big Bill" Edwards and the physician treated him.

MOREHEAD HAS 801 VOTES.

Caucus this morning indicated that he will be elected.

Greensboro, August 10.—The Republican convention met in the opera house here this morning. At a caucus this morning at the court house it is said that Morehead had 801 votes, more than enough. If so, it means fight for local self-government. Opera house is too small and convention adjourned at 2:30 to meet at the auditorium.

Thomas Settle is the Morehead candidate for chairman of the convention and H. G. Stewart is the Duncan candidate.

County Commissioners in Session at Charlotte.

Special to The Tribune.

Charlotte, N. C., August 10.—The second annual convention of the State Association of County Commissioners convened here at noon today, being called to order by President C. E. Foy, of Newbern. A hearty welcome address was made by Mayor Pro Tem Stewart, and reports were read at opening session. Important discussions on county road work, led by Chairman Long, of Mecklenburg, and on the fee system, led by J. A. Davidson, of Guilford, are engaging the earnest attention of the commissioners this afternoon.

The Markets Today.

Special to The Tribune.

New York, August 10.—At the opening cotton was easy, except August, which was one point higher. New crop positions were lower. Cable advices show rains in Texas, but in fact buying orders had but little effect. After call, market rallied sharply. Opening: August 14.58, October 13.74, January 13.60.

Chicago, August 10.—Wheat was several points off.

Corn lost a little but more than regained it, failing to follow wheat; oats steady; provisions easier.

In Recorder's Court.

Archie Boat and "Son" Pearson were tried in the Recorder's court this morning charged with breaking property at the colored graded school building. On account of the extreme youth of the little negroes the court was lenient with them. They were given a severe lecture and their parents were instructed to give them a sound thrashing.

Alonso Blackburn was next called to the rack, charged with assault on his wife. He was found guilty and fined $10.00 including the costs.

HISTORIAN'S PAPER.

Read at Reunion Tuesday by Mr. John D. Barrier, Historian of Camp No. 212.

Mr. John D. Barrier, of Charlotte, historian of Cabarrus Camp, No. 212, read the following paper at the reunion here Tuesday:

Another mile post has been reached as we have marched along the highway of life; but none too soon has the period arrived that affords us an opportunity to greet each other again amid emotions made inexpressible by memories of no less vivid because the drama was enacted more than forty-five years ago. Some have fallen by the way and our column has been robbed of some that always met us in our annual gatherings. But as at all periods and vicissitudes in our soldier life (except in the very din of battle) had their features of merriment and hilarity, so the year has had its satisfactions, its joys, its frustrations of cherished hopes. These I cannot recount or record but will simply attempt to inspire a retrospect by each upon his own life.

A feature of much gratification to us as our locks are whitening for the harvest is the view of the fruitbearing of our posterity who are presenting to us those that shall rise to perpetuate our memories when we shall be reaping the reward of the faithful. "Children's children are a crown of old men."

The honor of membership in the ranks of the Confederate Veterans is yearly growing more real.

Our sponsor from little gorhood up, Miss Lula Jay Harris, graduated at the Presbyterian College in Charlotte at its last commencement. She requested that all the Confederate veterans available should come in a body and occupy reserved seats in her honor. The president in enumerating the honors announced the presence of the veterans as a signal honor to Miss Harris. Your historian very much wanted to be at another meeting that night but went as a representative of this camp and felt personally honored in doing so and in enjoying the occasion.

At your last meeting you made me chairman of the delegation to the State Reunion which met in Charlotte. Seeing the impossibility of conferring with the other members of the delegation before the meeting, I called on Gen. Carr at the Selwyn and prepared the way for offering the motion contemplated in the resolution of Col. Means as to a committee on securing a monument in our State in honor of the Women of the Confederacy. After speaking on the subject and making a motion for this committee, I was rather unceremoniously replied to by Adjutant General H. A. London that such committee had been appointed at a meeting in 1908. He did not read such as part of the minutes of the former meeting and few, if any, knew anything of the movement.

The matter will most probably come before the next General Assembly of North Carolina and it is to be hoped that the Cabarrus legislators will be alert to promote the cause and guard well its interests. The movement is on, for a monument in each Confederate State to commemorate the heroic virtues of Southern womanhood in the great crisis and it will hardly rest till the noble conception is a reality.

At the late reunion at Mobile the Women's Memorial Association expressed a desire that soldier's widows be included in the privileges of the Soldier's Home. The body voted favorably and doubtless the next General Assembly will be asked to make this provision.

My duties would be incomplete if I did not go into the sad record of the dead since we met a year ago. Some of these were not members of our Camp but they wore the gray and defended the cause.

George Garmon.

Mr. George Garmon died very suddenly on August 18, 1909, at the age of 75. He was a member of Co. B, 7th Regiment. He had the enviable satisfaction of being a close follower and therefore ardent admirer of the great Stonewall Jackson.

M. H. Winecoff.

Mr. M. Henderson Winecoff went to the reward of a faithful service to his country and his God on Sept. 23, 1908, at the age of 69 years. He was a member of Co. B, 20th Regiment. Too much can hardly be said of his sterling worth as a man.

O. A. Dayvault.

Mr. Charles A. Dayvault died Sept. 30, 1909, at a good ripe age. He was a member of Co. C, 33rd Regiment. He was a man of kind and lovable character that endeared him to those who knew him and his memory is cherished by probably all of his acquaintances.

J. D. Mc Lester.

Mr. J. Daniel Mc Lester, a member of Co. H, 14th Regiment, died October 10, 1909, at the age of 72 years. He was a native of Stanly county but spent his later years in Cabarrus. He held the commission of lieutenant in the service and was a man of marked zeal in church and as a citizen.

Frederick Cline.

Mr. Fred Cline, a veteran of Co. F, 7th Regiment, fell from the ranks on March 16, 1910, dying suddenly at the age of 70 years. None knew Mr. Cline but to admire his quiet but sturdy characteristics that made him one of earth's noblemen.

S. C. Fulham.

Mr. Samuel C. Fulham died March 21st, 1910, at the ripe old age of 89 years. He was a member of Co. B, 20th Regiment. He was an unostentatious good citizen and soldier.

J. E. Hartsell.

Mr. Jonas E. Hartsell died March 24, 1910, at the age of 74. He was a member of Co. F, 57th Regiment. He was a good soldier and a quiet, humble citizen.

Col. P. B. Means.

Col. Paul B. Means died April 20th, 1910, at the age of 65 years. We miss him exceedingly as he was always with us on these occasions and at the last meeting he was especially interesting and congenial. Col. Means was so well and widely known that eulogy is hardly in place from me. His splendid intellect and strong personality marked him as no ordinary man and he narrowly missed a seat in the highest councils of the nation. His whole make-up assures us of a high type of qualities that shed lustre on the Confederate soldier.

J. C. Fink.

Mr. John Charles Fink died at the very good old age of 82 years, on May 14, 1910, at his home near Mt. Pleasant. He was a member of Co. C, 23rd Regiment. Mr. Fink was a man of independent, home-loving disposition, noting all that transpired and was a reliable statistician of almost everything that occurred in the community. He was a man all did well to be personally acquainted with, as his life told only for good.

G. W. Edwards.

Mr. Geo. W. Edwards, a native of Union county, died in our midst on June 26, 1910, at the age of 65. He was a member of Co. C, 10th Battalion. His wife who viewed his remains from a sick bed followed him to the grave within one month.

Jesse Skeen.

Mr. Jesse Skeen, the long time "Village Blacksmith" of Mt. Pleasant, died June 26th, 1910, at the age of 78. He was a man probably without an enemy for he possessed a kind and genial bearing rarely equalled.

Capt. J. M. Odell.

Capt. John M. Odell died at his home near the great industrial plant that stands as a monument to his enterprise on July 21st, 1910. He was commander of Co. M, 22nd Regiment. He adopted Cabarrus as a place to exercise his splendid business talent and his civic virtues soon after the great struggle. I need add nothing to the good name and honor of one so well and favorably known in our midst.

Mr. Harris and Family to Leave Tomorrow.

Mr. W. R. Harris has been here for several days getting ready to move his family to Asheville. Some time ago he purchased a furniture business there, and since that he and his son, Theodore, have been in charge of the business. On Thursday, Mr. Harris will move his family to Asheville to live.

Our people regret to lose these good people as citizens. Mr. Harris has been prominent in all work, and is a citizen of the best type. Mrs. Harris is an enthusiastic and valuable church worker, and has taken a prominent part in the club and social life of the city. Master Randall Harris has been one of The Times' best carriers, and we much regret to lose him.

Date of Meeting Changed.

The date of the Jubilee Convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Society to be held in St. John's Lutheran church, at Salisbury, has been changed from the 25th to the 26th of August. All delegates will please note the change, and send in their names at once to the undersigned.

MRS. CHAS. M. BROWN,
Secretary,
Salisbury, N. C., Box 139.

THE SOLDIERS' REUNION.

Some Notes of One of the Most Pleasant Ones Ever Held

Messrs. Caleb Bernhardt and Alex Barker, of Salisbury, were among the visiting veterans present at the reunion.

Messrs. C. W. Swink and M. L. Widenhouse contributed a wagon load of watermelons for the veterans. There were 175 veterans in line and a conservative estimate places the number not in line at 50, making a total of veterans present Tuesday at 225.

Mr. C. S. Harris, of Mebane, a brother of Mr. J. S. Harris, a Confederate veteran and former resident of this section attended the reunion. Messrs. J. F. Dayvault, G. T. Crowell and A. M. Gibson certainly made stalwart looking chefs, and well they performed their part.

Mr. C. A. Isenhour, manager of The Theatrum, presented to every veteran a ticket to his theatre.

Commander H. B. Parks was a happy man. For several weeks he has worked day in and day out organizing committees and perfecting plans for the reunion and when he saw the occasion excelled even his fondest hopes, he was unable to suppress his joy.

Mr. D. Henry White, of Mecklenburg county, a former vitizen of this county and member of Cabarrus Camp of Veterans, was here for the reunion and spent a busy day shaking hands with his old friends.

Great credit is due to the Daughters of the Confederacy for the success of the reunion. They had charge of the dinner and everyone who was fortunate to partake of their offering knows how well they performed their part.

Mr. J. H. Moose, of Rockwell, was here. Although his train was several hours late, Mr. Moose arrived in time for dinner and to hear Miss Porter recite, either of which was well worth the trip.

There was an overabundance of good things to eat and after the multitude had been fed there yet remained a large quality of food which was gathered up and given to the poor at the county home.

In Honor of Miss Margaret Davis.

Mrs. I. I. Davis entertained a number of the little girls Thursday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of her attractive little niece, Miss Margaret Davis, of Morganton. The little misses spent the hours in innocent and delightful pleasure. Ice cream was served in canteen by Miss Mary Hartsell. Those present were: Cottrell Sherrill, Adeline Harris, Annis Smoot, Elizabeth Dick, Frances Young, Margaret Virginia Ervin, Isabelle White and Elizabeth Smith.

By the overwhelming vote of 121 to 28, the house of representatives of Georgia Tuesday afternoon passed the as solicitors general are concerned, and placing these offices of the State on an annual salary of $3,000 each.

- C. R. ANDREW, Sec.

Frederic I. of Prussia was killed by fear. His wife was insane, and one day she escaped from her keeper and, dabbling her clothes with blood, rushed upon her husband while he was dozing in his chair. King Fredrick imagined her to be the "white lady" whose ghost was believed to invariably appear whenever the death of a member of the royal family was to occur, and he was thrown into a fever and died in six weeks.

Announcement was made by Acting Secretary Hillis, of the Treasury Department, Tuesday of the appointment of Henry S. Jackson as Collector of Internal Revenue for the North Georgia district in place of Henry A. Rucker, colored, who has resigned. Rucker, it is believed, will be cared for by appointment to some other place under the Taft administration.

Gone to the Convention.

Messrs. J. H. Dorton, H. S. Williams and J. F. Honeycutt left yesterday afternoon for Greensboro to attend the Republican State convention. One of the leaders of the party in this county stated on the eve of his departure for the convention that the delegation from this county would be about evenly divided between Morehead and Duncan for State chairman, with the odds slightly against the congressman.

A sale that is "worth while" at Miss Nannie Alexander's Friday, August 12th. Most excellent values in ribbons.

Mr. Stuart Morrison, of Winston-Salem, is visiting the family of his father, Mr. D. B. Morrison.
