All arrangements have now been completed for the Institute to be held at Central Graded School building, beginning August, the 22nd. Prof. A. T. Allen, of the Graham Graded Schools, but recently elected superintendent of the Salisbury Graded School, and Prof. N. C. The City School Board has made an appropriation to the Institute and all city teachers who have not attended a Summer School will be required to attend. The following notices is being mailed out to the county teachers:

"A County Institute will be held at Central School, Concord, N. C., beginning at 9 a. m. August 22nd, and continuing two weeks. Section 4167 of the School Law says: 'All public school teachers of any county in which such institute and school is conducted are hereby required to attend the same continuously during its session, unless providentially hindered, and failure to attend the biennial institute and school shall deprive any teacher so failing to attend continuously from teaching in any of the public schools of the State for a period of one year, or until such teacher shall have attended according to law some county institute and school as herein provided for in some other county.'

"You are required to bring all of the text books used in the public school through the primary and intermediate grades, as the institute will partake largely of the character of a school. For the primary work bring, in addition to the readers, some tablets and a pair of scissors."

An Institute for the colored teachers will be held at the colored school at the same time.

Overman, of Salisbury, accepting the invitation to deliver the principal address to the Juniors at the meeting which promises to be the largest attended of any in many years.

Don't Trust Mary Ann Very Far.

Lexington Dispatch.

The "come back" of Mary Ann Butler may be pleasant to some, but the very mention of his name is enough for most patriotic Tar Heels. Nobody doubts or underestimates his shrewdness or ability; or his unscrupulousness or chicanery. We wouldn't trust him with the best interests of North Carolina any farther than we could throw the courthouse.

AT ELIZABETH COLLEGE.

Improvements Being Made That Will Add Much to Beauty of Building and Grounds.

Improvements are just being completed at Elizabeth College, at Charlotte, which will cost more than $5,000 and will add much to the beauty and comfort of the college building and grounds. The whole interior of the building has been in the hands of decorators during the greater part of the summer and when the students return next month they will find a building that is to all appearances new throughout and newly furnished. The woodwork has all been repainted and the walls done over and additional fire escapes put on.

At present work is being rushed on the new entrance to the college grounds. This structure, which is being built of granite, Indiana limestone, pressed brick and iron, is artistic in design, having been planned by President Charles B. King and Architect Dempwolf, of York, Pa., and will add much to the beauty of the campus, already one of the prettiest spots in North Carolina. The entrance will cost about $3,000.

President King and his office force are being kept busy in anticipation of the opening of the fall term and there is assurance already of an attendance even larger than last year, when all former records were broken.

Wide cracks in the earth are spreading, threatening the postoffice and public school building. The walls of the schoolhouse are cracked. Residents are much alarmed and heroic efforts are being made to prevent further caving of the earth.

A Complete Surprise.

The following is a special of the 11th from Greensboro to the Asheville Gazette-News:

Alexander's withdrawal yesterday was a total surprise to Duncan and Britt. The understanding was that Alexander was to stay to the end. Under all circumstances, the Duncan people wanted a vote. Gilliam Grison, Morehead's secretary, admits that he will in effect be chairman, that being the understanding when Morehead ran.

There will be an excursion from Concord to Johnson City next Tuesday, August 16. The fare for the round trip will be $3.00.

THE CRESCENT PICNIC.

One of the Most Successful Ever Held at the Orphan's Home.

The picnic of the Nazareth Orphan's Home given at Crescent Thursday was a most successful one. The day was a beautiful one, and a large crowd was present, many coming from miles around.

In the morning Rev. Dr. Meminger, of Lancaster, Pa., delivered the annual address. He is one of the ablest ministers of the Reformed church, and his address was an excellent one.

In the afternoon there were exercises by the children of the orphanage, which was greatly enjoyed. There were also several short talks.

Music was furnished by the Rockwell band, and this was one of the best features of the occasion. Refreshments and edibles were sold, and the proceeds went for the benefit of the Home. There are now 22 orphans there. A collection was also taken up for the orphans.

The following attended from Concord: Misses Katie Cook, Ollie Cline, Addie Barrier, Margaret Crowell, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Causey, Mrs. M. E. Barrier, Mr. David Fowlkes, Mrs. R. F. Crooks and L. R. and Roy Crooks.

Mrs. H. W. Joffcoat Has Arm Fractured in Accident.

Mooresville Enterprise, 11th.

Last Saturday morning while Rev. H. W. Joffcoat, pastor of the Lutheran church at Troutman, was going out the lower end of town on his way to fill an appointment, he was met by an automobile at which his horse became frightened. The minister was accompanied by his wife, and as the horse pranced around he jumped out of the buggy and took hold of his reins at the horse's head to ward off a run. Mrs. Joffcoat was excited and in attempting to jump from the buggy her foot caught in a wheel. She fell with considerable force, receiving several bruises and fracturing the bones in one arm. The autoists, of which there were two, witnessed the affair but sped on unconcerned. They were unknown to the preacher. Mrs. Joffcoat was conveyed to the home of Mr. J. A. B. Goodman, where she was given medical attention. She returned to her home at Troutman Saturday night.

Governor Hughes is Threatened.

Samuel S. Koenig, Secretary of State, of New York, admitted yesterday, that he, Governor Hughes and Assemblyman Albert Callahan, father of the new automobile law, had been threatened with death in a letter addressed to him at his Broadway office. The letter was postmarked "Grand Central Station, New York."

The writer did not give any name or address, but said his wife and five children were starving through his failure to get a chauffeur's license. He was now out of work, he said, and could get none. He said he had a bullet for Mr. Koenig and when he "got him" he would then get after Governor Hughes and Assemblyman Callahan.

Last Friday a letter written by the same person was received by secretary Koenig at his Albany office. In it vile language was employed, because the writer failed to pass the chauffeurs' examination.

Three Items from the Mooresville Enterprise.

MUCH ANXIETY FELT.

Disquieting Rumors Gain Currency in Regard to Gaynor's Condition.

New York Dispatch, 11th.

Mayor William J. Gaynor may be making satisfactory progress as his attending physicians persistently maintained today and tonight. But there is an undercurrent of anxiety evidenced tonight that runs contrary to the official bulletin.

His surgeons say that he had a satisfactory day, that he is cheerful and stronger and was resting quietly, more than holding his own against the pistol shot wound inflicted on Tuesday by James J. Gallagher.

Reports that discussion had arisen among the physicians over the advisability of an operation met with prompt denial, but nevertheless persistent rumors came from the hospital that there was serious difference of opinion as to the course to be pursued. One physician, it is said, holds that the bullet should be removed immediately, while others maintain that they should let well enough alone as long as there is no sign of infection.

Arrested for False Pretense.

Lewis Bost, colored, was before the Police Justice this morning charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from Hahn-Honeycutt Co. He purchased some goods from that firm promising to pay with money to be obtained from a certain source. When he got the money he left the city with it. A warrant was issued for him last June. In the meantime he had paid all the account except $1.26. He was discharged on payment of this amount and the costs in the case.
