Raleigh, N. E. Jan, I. (By the Asso-chited Press). On the eve of the se-ond general assembly of his admitula-trition, Governor Camgron Morelson is ready to introduce early in the se-sion an even greater legislative pro-gram than his first, and among the advance guard of North Carolina fax-umkers in Indeigh tonight the proha-ble rate these measures will meet is ble inte these mensures will meet is the chief subject of discussion.

the chief subject of discussion. Taking the position that practical-g every promise in his platform has been carried out, the governor now is organizing his forces to pass the state shipping line corporation bill and oth-er closely aligned measures. Interove-ment of fisheries in the state and a further band issue to promote the present highway construction pro-gram are said to be amount the athar gram are said to be among the other bills he will urge for enactment.
